Alumni Day

Lunch Program
Hello and welcome to Alumni Day 2013 – a special day in which we honor fellow Princetonians, reconnect with classmates and friends, and commemorate those who are no longer with us. We hope that you will enjoy the many programs for Tigers of all stripes offered throughout the day.

At 11:30 a.m., we will gather in Jadwin Gym for a reception, lunch, and the annual awards ceremony in which we celebrate the best of Princeton – from the student winners of the Pyne Honor Prize and Porter Ogden Jacobus Fellowships to the recipients of the highest awards that the University can bestow on its alumni. This year, we honor Purdue University President and former Governor of the State of Indiana, Mitchell E. Daniels ’71, with the Woodrow Wilson Award, and Founding Partner of Gávea Investments and former President of the Central Bank of Brazil, Arminio Fraga *85, with the James Madison Medal. Each of these honorees embodies the highest ideals of “Princeton in the Nation’s Service and in the Service of All Nations.”

Today’s luncheon is also a regular meeting of the Alumni Association of Princeton University, giving your alumni leaders the opportunity to thank you for your devotion to and service on behalf of Princeton. It will come as no surprise that, when it comes to alumni engagement, Princeton is the envy of its peers. Thanks go to the over 15,000 alumni who devote time to their classes, regional associations, the Association of Princeton Graduate Alumni, and our numerous affiliated groups. Alumni also interview applicants for admission, participate in Annual Giving, support our athletic teams and arts organizations, provide career advice, and serve in countless other ways.

Finally, a special thanks to my colleagues on the Executive Committee of the Alumni Council. Together, they have embraced the goal of inclusiveness within the alumni body. Through various initiatives, we are striving to broaden alumni engagement even further, and we hope that you will see this reflected in the Princeton events you attend this year and in the future.

Enjoy Alumni Day!

Presented for the first time in 1987 by the Alumni Council Princeton Schools Committee (formerly the National Committee on Schools), this award recognizes the regional Alumni Schools Committees (ASC) whose activities, enthusiasm, and imagination have most effectively realized the primary goals of Schools Committee work: to recruit outstanding candidates for Princeton, to report skillfully on these candidates to the Admission Office, and to represent Princeton to its local community.

This year’s recipients of the Penick Award are the Princeton Alumni Association of Canada, Toronto Chapter (Chairs: Edward Elkin ’84 and Ilana Lucas ’07); the Princeton Alumni Association of Monmouth and Northeast Ocean Counties (Chair: Vincent Silverio ’75); and the Princeton Alumni Association of Santa Barbara (Chair: Heather Stefanski ’95).
Annual Giving provides unrestricted funds that support the core of the academic experience at Princeton. These funds enable Princeton to meet critical needs and seize new opportunities. Last year, alumni, parents, and friends donated $57.2 million, with 60.8 percent of undergraduate alumni participating. This generosity allows Princeton to meet its highest priorities, including financial aid, even under challenging economic conditions.

The five-year Aspire campaign, which included gifts to both Annual Giving and designated capital purposes, reached a successful conclusion on June 30, 2012, with a total of $1.88 billion, exceeding the goal by more than 7 percent.

ANNUAL GIVING

The 2012–13 Annual Giving campaign is under way, and with the support of Princetonians around the world, we hope to reach our goals of $58 million and 61 percent participation by June 30. Today the University honors the leaders of last year’s Annual Giving campaign with three distinguished achievement awards.
The Class of 1926 Trophy
Established by one of Annual Giving’s legendary classes and first awarded in 1978, the trophy goes to the class that raises the largest amount in each year’s campaign. This year’s winner is the Class of 1987, which raised $11,001,987 in celebration of their 25th Reunion. This amount is an all-time record for any Princeton class. They were led by Class Agents Geoffrey W. Whelan and Lee White-Galvis; by Special Gifts Chairs Timothy J. Dockery, Jennifer Pickens Kingston, Timothy M. Kingston, and John P. Rustum; and by Participation Chairs Robert H. Gleason and Linda Ellenberg Rafferty.

The Jerry Horton Award
Given for the first time in 1982, the award is named in honor of Arthur J. Horton ’42, a former director of Annual Giving, director of Development, and recording secretary of the University. The award is presented in recognition of successful efforts by regional Annual Giving committees to expand dollar and participation results. The winner this year is the Annual Giving Committee of Philadelphia, chaired by Joseph P. McErlean ’85.

The Harold H. Helm Award
This prize, first given in 1978, is named in honor of Harold H. Helm ’20, chair of Annual Giving’s first campaign in 1940. Mr. Helm, an ardent champion of Annual Giving, was also chair of the Alumni Council and a charter trustee of Princeton. The Helm Award recognizes “exemplary and sustained service to Annual Giving.” This year’s award goes to Terri Lacy Baird and James V. Baird P06 P10, of Houston, Texas.
The Porter Ogden Jacobus Fellowship

Established in 1905 by the generosity of Mrs. Clara Cooley Jacobus, this honorific fellowship is conferred annually upon the graduate students who, in the judgment of the Faculty Committee on the Graduate School, display the highest scholarly excellence. The fellowship provides four graduate students with full tuition and a generous stipend for one year of study. The following students have received Jacobus Fellowships for the 2012–2013 academic year: Angèle Christin, Sociology; Laura Gandolfi, Spanish and Portuguese Languages and Cultures; George Young, Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering; Jiaying Zhao, Psychology.

The M. Taylor Pyne Honor Prize

Founded in 1921 in remembrance of the life and character of M. Taylor Pyne, Class of 1877 and trustee of Princeton University from 1885 to 1921, by his cousin, Mrs. May Taylor Moulton Hanrahan, the Pyne Prize is the highest general distinction the University confers upon an undergraduate. The Pyne Prize is equivalent in amount to the prevailing undergraduate comprehensive fee for one academic year and is awarded annually to the senior who has manifested in outstanding fashion the following qualifications: excellence in scholarship, character, and effective support of the best interests of Princeton University.

The University announces the recipient(s) of the M. Taylor Pyne Honor Prize on Alumni Day.
The James Madison Medal

Named for James Madison, Princeton’s first graduate alumnus, the Madison Medal was established in 1973 by the Association of Princeton Graduate Alumni (APGA). Upon the recommendation of the APGA Committee on Nominations and Awards and the Madison Medal Selection Committee, this honor is conferred each year on an alumnus or alumna of the Graduate School who has had a distinguished career, advanced the cause of graduate education, or achieved a record of outstanding public service.

This year the Madison Medal will be presented to Arminio Fraga *85.

Woodrow Wilson Award

This prize was established by an anonymous donor in 1956 during the centennial year of Woodrow Wilson’s birth. It has since been conferred annually upon an alumnus or alumna of the undergraduate college whose achievements exemplify Woodrow Wilson’s memorable phrase “Princeton in the nation’s service.”

This year the Woodrow Wilson Award will be presented to Mitchell E. Daniels Jr. ’71.

OLD NASSAU

H. P. Peck, '62

Arranged by Ernest Carter, '88

Karl A. Langlotz

Melody 1st Tenor

Animoso

1. Tune ever'ry heart and ever'ry voice, Bid ev'ry care with-draw;
   Let music rule the fleet-ing hour, Her man-tle round us draw;
   And when these walls in dust are laid, With rever-ence and awe
   Till then with joy our songs we'll bring, And while a breath we draw,

   Let all with one ac-cord re-jole, In praise of Old Nassau,
   And thrill each heart with all her pow'r, In praise of Old Nassau,
   We'll all unite to shout and sing, Long life to Old Nassau.

Refrain

Più mosso

Melody 1st Tenor

"In praise of Old Nassau, we sing, Hur-rah! Hur-rah! Hur-rah!"

Our hearts will give, while we shall live, Three cheers for Old Nassau.

* The melody in 2nd Tenor, except where, as indicated, it passes temporarily to 1st Tenor.
 Last verse, "Long life to!"
