100th ANNIVERSARY of ALUMNI DAY

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2015
We are delighted that you could join us to celebrate Princeton’s special tradition of honoring fellow Tigers, reconnecting with classmates and friends, and commemorating those who are no longer with us. After that first Alumni Day in 1915, the Daily Princetonian reflected that alumni returning for this mid-winter event are those “who even after going out from Princeton are yet keenly interested in her welfare, not only on the athletic fields, but principally in her daily business of educating new generations of Princetonians; [they] are the Alumni with whom the college must feel itself most intimately connected, and to whom generally most deeply indebted.” One hundred years later, we are, indeed, indebted to your service, your support, and your interest in the Best Old Place of All.

With Great CHEER,

Nancy J. Newman ’78
President, Alumni Association of Princeton University

Annual Giving provides unrestricted funds that support the core of the academic experience at Princeton. These funds enable Princeton to meet critical needs and seize new opportunities. Last year, alumni, parents, and friends donated $58.7 million, with 61.4 percent of undergraduate alumni participating. This generosity allows Princeton to meet its highest priorities, including financial aid, and to sustain the quality and breadth of Princeton’s programs.

The 2014-15 Annual Giving campaign is underway, and with the support of Princetonians around the world, we hope to reach our goals of $60 million and 61.5 percent participation by June 30.
Established in 1905 by the generosity of Mrs. Clara Cooley Jacobus, this honorific fellowship is conferred annually upon the graduate students who, in the judgment of the Faculty Committee on the Graduate School, display the highest scholarly excellence. The fellowship now provides full tuition and a stipend for the final year of study for four graduate students.

The following students have received Jacobus Fellowships for the 2014-2015 academic year: Yu Deng, Mathematics; Evan Hepler-Smith, History of Science; Catherine Reilly, Comparative Literature; Kimberly Shepard, Chemical and Biological Engineering.
Founded in 1921 in remembrance of the life and character of Moses Taylor Pyne, Class of 1877 and trustee of Princeton University from 1885 to 1921, by his cousin, Mrs. May Taylor Moulton Hanrahan, the Pyne Prize is the highest general distinction the University confers upon an undergraduate. The Pyne Prize is equivalent in amount to the prevailing undergraduate comprehensive fee for one academic year and is awarded annually to the senior who has manifested the following qualifications: excellent scholarship, outstanding character, and effective support of the best interests of Princeton University.

This year’s recipients of the Moses Taylor Pyne Honor Prize are Yessica Martinez ’15 and Jake Robertson ’15.
Named for James Madison, Princeton’s first graduate alumnus, the Madison Medal was established in 1973 by the Association of Princeton Graduate Alumni (APGA). Upon the recommendation of the APGA Committee on Nominations and Awards and the Madison Medal Selection Committee, this honor is conferred each year on an alumnus or alumna of the Graduate School who has had a distinguished career, advanced the cause of graduate education, or achieved a record of outstanding public service.

This year the Madison Medal will be presented to Martin Eakes *80 (Woodrow Wilson School).

WOODROW WILSON AWARD

This prize was established by an anonymous donor in 1956 during the centennial year of Woodrow Wilson’s birth. It has since been conferred annually upon an alumnus or alumna of the undergraduate college whose achievements exemplify Woodrow Wilson’s memorable phrase, “Princeton in the nation’s service.”

This year the Woodrow Wilson Award will be presented to Her Majesty Queen Noor (formerly Lisa Najeeb Halaby ’73).
