Alumni Day

Lunch Program
Welcome from the President of the Alumni Association

Welcome to Alumni Day 2016 – to the FIRST session of the SECOND century of Alumni Days!

When these gatherings began in 1915, a small group of loyal Princeton alumni gathered to celebrate the wonders of the University that we had become. Now, 101 years later, 1,000 loyal Princeton alumni gather to celebrate the great University that we continue to be. On this one day of the year we “call ALL tigers” simply to be alumni, in the company of friends, getting a chance to hear the people and programs that make us proud to be the most enthusiastic, most loyal alumni body in the world.

Two of those incredible people are Nobel Laureate James Heckman *71, the James Madison Medalist, and General Mark Milley '80, the Woodrow Wilson Award winner. Their contributions to our financial and military security are truly in the nation’s service and in the service of all nations. Our panels on the 2016 election and the frontiers of global health will be of general interest to all of us. And the discussion on college admissions will be of intense interest to those entering that process.

The Pyne and Jacobus Prize winners always amaze us, and the Service of Remembrance always moves us as we say farewell to those of our ranks who have departed this life.

I hope you will be able to stay for the All-Alumni Closing Reception at the Chancellor Green Rotunda. For those of us who remember it as the Pub, it is a very fitting way to end a visit to Princeton!

So enjoy the day. Revel in awe of the Pyne Prize and Jacobus Prize winners; learn from the remarks of the Wilson and Madison Award winners; salute our lost classmates and colleagues; and celebrate with fellow classmates and close friends. And remember: we are glad you are here, and we want to see every alumnus every year.

We are always: Calling All Tigers!

ANNUAL GIVING provides unrestricted funds that support the core of the academic experience at Princeton. These funds enable Princeton to meet critical needs and seize new opportunities. Last year, alumni, parents and friends donated $61.5 million, with 60.3 percent of undergraduate alumni participating. This generosity allows Princeton to meet its highest priorities, including financial aid, and to sustain the quality and breadth of Princeton’s programs.

The 2015-16 Annual Giving Campaign is underway, and with the support of Princetonians around the world, we hope to reach our goals of $63 million and 60.5 percent participation by June 30.

The Harold H. Helm Award
This prize, first given in 1978, is named in honor of Harold H. Helm ’20, chair of Annual Giving’s first campaign in 1940. Mr. Helm, an ardent champion of Annual Giving, was also chair of the Alumni Council and a charter trustee of Princeton. The Helm Award recognizes “exemplary and sustained service to Annual Giving.” This year’s award goes to John P. Lavelle ’85 of Bryn Mawr, PA.
The Porter Ogden Jacobus Fellowship

Established in 1905 by the generosity of Mrs. Clara Cooley Jacobus, this honorific fellowship is conferred annually upon the graduate students who, in the judgment of the Faculty Committee on the Graduate School, display the highest scholarly excellence. The fellowship now provides full tuition and a stipend for the final year of study for four graduate students.

The following students have received Jacobus Fellowships for the 2015-16 academic year: Joshua Bennett, English; Kellen Funk, History; Carlee Joe-Wong, Applied and Computational Mathematics; and Rajesh Ranganath, Computer Science.
The M. Taylor Pyne Honor Prize

Founded in 1921 in remembrance of the life and character of M. Taylor Pyne, Class of 1877 and trustee of Princeton University from 1885 to 1921, by his cousin, Mrs. May Taylor Moulton Hanrahan, the Pyne Prize is the highest general distinction the University confers upon an undergraduate. The Pyne Prize is equivalent in amount to the prevailing undergraduate comprehensive fee for one academic year and is awarded annually to the senior who has manifested in outstanding fashion the following qualifications: excellence in scholarship, character, and effective support of the best interests of Princeton University.

This year’s recipients of The Moses Taylor Pyne Honor Prize:

James P. Agolia ’16
Andrew S. Nelson ’16
The James Madison Medal

Named for James Madison, Princeton’s first graduate alumnus, the Madison Medal was established in 1973 by the Association of Princeton Graduate Alumni (APGA). Upon the recommendation of the APGA Committee on Nominations and Awards and the Madison Medal Selection Committee, this honor is conferred each year on an alumnus or alumna of the Graduate School who has had a distinguished career, advanced the cause of graduate education or achieved a record of outstanding public service.

This year the Madison Medal will be presented to

Dr. James J. Heckman *71

Woodrow Wilson Award

This prize was established by an anonymous donor in 1956 during the centennial year of Woodrow Wilson’s birth. It has since been conferred annually upon an alumnus or alumna of the undergraduate college whose achievements exemplify Woodrow Wilson’s memorable phrase “Princeton in the nation’s service.”

This year the Woodrow Wilson Award will be presented to General Mark A. Milley ’80
