

OTHER CAMPUS EVENTS

Friday, February 22, 2019

10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. - Exhibit: Confronting Childhood

This exhibit considers the complex reality of childhood and family life in the modern world. Spanning more than 150 years, the exhibition affords glimpses of children and their families through the vantage point of painting and primarily photography, including artists such as Diane Arbus, Ruth Bernhard, Lewis Carroll, Lewis Hine, Dorothea Lange, Sally Mann, and Clarence White.

Exhibit: Picturing Place in Japan

This exhibit includes nearly 40 paintings, prints, book and photographs, from the 16th through the 21st centuries that collectively explore the varied meaning of place to Japanese artistic practice over these epochs.

Princeton University Art Museum

11:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. - Women’s Swimming Ivy League Championship

DeNunzio Pool

5:30 p.m. - Women’s Basketball vs. Cornell

Jadwin Gymnasium; for tickets, call 609-258-4TIX (4849) or visit tickets.princeton.edu

7:00 p.m. - Men’s Ice Hockey vs. Clarkson

Hobey Baker Rink; for tickets, call 609-258-4TIX (4849) or visit tickets.princeton.edu

8:00 p.m. - Jordi Savall & Le Concert des Nations

Jordi Savall, the world’s most celebrated gambist, has brought humanity, unique artistry and virtuosity to his tireless exploration of early music. In his McCarter debut, his ensemble will play the music inspired by the 1992 French hit film “Tous le matins du monde,” starring Gérard Depardieu.

Matthews Theatre; for tickets, call McCarter Theatre at 609-258-ARTS (2787) or visit mccarter.org

8:00 p.m. - Men’s Basketball vs. Cornell

Jadwin Gymnasium; for tickets, call 609-258-4TIX (4849) or visit tickets.princeton.edu

Saturday, February 23, 2019

10:00 a.m. - Exhibit: Confronting Childhood

5:00 p.m.

This exhibit considers the complex reality of childhood and family life in the modern world. Spanning more than 150 years, the exhibition affords glimpses of children and their families through the vantage point of painting and primarily photography, including artists such as Diane Arbus, Ruth Bernhard, Lewis Carroll, Lewis Hine, Dorothea Lange, Sally Mann, and Clarence White.

Exhibit: Gainsborough's Family Album

This exhibit offers insights into artist Thomas Gainsborough's family life and sometimes-complicated personality but also into wider questions of domesticity, marriage, parenthood and family values at the birth of the modern age.

Exhibit: Picturing Place in Japan

This exhibit includes nearly 40 paintings, prints, book and photographs, from the 16th through the 21st centuries that collectively explore the varied meaning of place to Japanese artistic practice over these epochs.

Princeton University Art Museum

10:30 a.m. – Art for Families

1:00 p.m.

Join us on Saturday morning for family fun in the Art Museum. Drop in anytime between 10:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. and enjoy an engaging gallery activity followed by a related art project.

Princeton University Art Museum

11:00 a.m. – Women's Swimming Ivy League Championship

6:00 p.m.

DeNunzio Pool

12:00 p.m. Men's Lacrosse vs. Virginia

Class of 1952 Stadium; for tickets, call 609-258-4TIX (4849) or visit tickets.princeton.edu

3:30 –

4:30 p.m.

Latino Graduate Student Showcase Presented by the Association of Latino Princeton Alumni and LGSA

Hear from graduate students as they present their research in topics in East Asian Studies, Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering, Classics, Geosciences, History and Civil and Environmental Engineering.

McCosh 62

Saturday, February 23, 2019 (continued)

4:30 –

6:30 p.m.

Asian American Alumni Association of Princeton (A4P) Alumni Fireside Chats With Alumni and Students Networking

Connect with A4P alums and hear the experiences of two fascinating alums in exciting fields: Shikha Uberoi Bajpai '13, VP Business Development and co-founder of Indi.com, and Dr. Anita Gupta *18.

McCosh 62

5:00 p.m.

Opening Lecture and Reception: Gainsborough's Family Album and Confronting Childhood

These exhibits present images of family and childhood from an iconic 18th century British artists to today. The opening lecture by James Steward, the Nancy A. Nasher-David J. Haemisegger, Class of 1976, Director, will be held at 5:00 p.m., and will be followed by a reception in the Museum.

McCosh Hall, Room 10

5:30 p.m.

Women's Basketball vs. Columbia

Jadwin Gymnasium; for tickets, call 609-258-4TIX (4849) or visit tickets.princeton.edu

7:00 p.m.

Men's Ice Hockey vs. St. Lawrence

Hobey Baker Rink; for tickets, call 609-258-4TIX (4849) or visit tickets.princeton.edu

7:30 p.m.

Rossini: Petite Messe Solennelle

The Princeton University Chamber Choir presents Gioachino Rossini's heart-warming and celebratory work, an 80-minute work written over 30 years after the composer retired from writing opera.

Alexander Hall, Richardson Auditorium; for tickets, call 609-258-9220 or visit tickets.princeton.edu

8:00 p.m.

Farruquito – Return of a Flamenco Legend

The grandson of legendary flamenco founder "El Farruco," Farruquito is the modern-day repository of a tradition dedicated to preserving the art in its purest form, having performed with his grandfather from the time he was four until his death in 1997.

Matthews Theatre; for tickets, call McCarter Theatre at 609-258-ARTS (2787) or visit mccarter.org

8:00 p.m.

Men's Basketball vs. Columbia

Jadwin Gymnasium; for tickets, call 609-258-4TIX (4849) or visit tickets.princeton.edu

Sunday, February 24, 2019

1:00 -
5:00 p.m.

Exhibit: Confronting Childhood

This exhibit considers the complex reality of childhood and family life in the modern world. Spanning more than 150 years, the exhibition affords glimpses of children and their families through the vantage point of painting and primarily photography, including artists such as Diane Arbus, Ruth Bernhard, Lewis Carroll, Lewis Hine, Dorothea Lange, Sally Mann, and Clarence White.

Exhibit: Gainsborough's Family Album

This exhibit offers insights into artist Thomas Gainsborough's family life and sometimes-complicated personality but also into wider questions of domesticity, marriage, parenthood and family values at the birth of the modern age.

Exhibit: Picturing Place in Japan

This exhibit includes nearly 40 paintings, prints, book and photographs, from the 16th through the 21st centuries that collectively explore the varied meaning of place to Japanese artistic practice over these epochs.

Princeton University Art Museum

3:00 p.m.

The Klez Dispensers – 20th Anniversary Concert

This celebrated NJ band has served up an innovative blend of fabulous folk music, sizzling jazz and spicy world music flavors to audiences for two decades.

Alexander Hall, Richardson Auditorium; for tickets, call 609-258-9220 or visit tickets.princeton.edu

3:00 p.m.

Peace and Stillness

Vocalist Olivia Parker '19 presents her senior recital as part of the Certificate in Music Performance.

Fine Hall, Taplin Auditorium; no tickets are required for this free performance