Alumni Day
& Parents’ Program

Saturday, February 25, 2012
Welcome from the President of the Alumni Association

Hello and welcome to Alumni Day – a special day in which we honor fellow Princetonians, reconnect with classmates and friends, and commemorate those who are no longer with us. We hope that you enjoy the many programs for Tigers of all stripes listed in these pages.

At 11:30 a.m., we will gather in Jadwin Gym for lunch and the annual awards ceremony in which we celebrate the best of Princeton – from the student winners of the Pyne Honor Prize and Jacobus Fellowships to the recipients of the highest awards that the University can bestow on an alumnus. This year, we honor Federal Bureau of Investigation Director Robert S. Mueller III ’66 with the Woodrow Wilson Award and Environmental Protection Agency Administrator Lisa P. Jackson ’86 with the Madison Medal, each of whom embodies the highest ideals of “Princeton in the Nation’s Service and in the Service of All Nations.”

Today’s luncheon is also a regular meeting of the Alumni Association of Princeton University, giving your alumni leaders the opportunity to thank you for your devotion to and service on behalf of Princeton. It will come as no surprise that – when it comes to alumni engagement – Princeton is the envy of its peers. Thanks go to the over 15,000 alumni who devote time to their classes, regional associations, the Association of Princeton Graduate Alumni, and to our numerous affiliated groups. Alumni also interview applicants for admission, participate in Annual Giving, support our athletic teams and arts organizations, provide career advice, and serve in countless other ways.

Finally, a special thanks to my colleagues on the Executive Committee of the Alumni Council. Together, they have embraced the goal of inclusiveness within the alumni body. Through various initiatives, we are striving to broaden alumni engagement even further, and we hope that you will see this reflected in the Princeton events you attend this year and in the future.

Enjoy Alumni Day!

Princeton Schools Committee
S. Barksdale Penick, Jr. ’25 Award

Presented for the first time in 1987 by the Alumni Council Princeton Schools Committee (formerly the National Committee on Schools), this award recognizes the regional Alumni Schools Committee (ASC) whose activities, enthusiasm, and imagination have most effectively realized the primary goals of Schools Committee work: to recruit outstanding candidates for Princeton, to report skillfully on these candidates to the Admission Office, and to represent Princeton to its local community.

This year’s recipients of the Penick Award are the Princeton Club of Africa, Egypt Region (Ahmed M. Ozalp ’95, Chair); Princeton Club of Orange County (Ashley Cordell Cook ’95, Chair; Amit K. Lal ’88, Chair); and the Princeton Club of Northwestern New Jersey, Union County Region (Donna M. Sotolongo ’77, Past Chair 2001-2011; Ray Wong ’76, Chair; David A. DeFreese ’91, Chair).
Report on Giving to Princeton

Annual Giving provides unrestricted funds that support the core of the academic experience. Those funds enable Princeton to meet critical needs and seize new opportunities. Last year, alumni, parents, and friends raised $50 million, with 61.3 percent of undergraduate alumni participating. This generosity allows Princeton to meet its highest priorities, including financial aid, even under challenging economic conditions.

The Aspire campaign includes gifts to Annual Giving as well as capital funds to enhance the University’s capacities in engineering and the environment, the arts, neuroscience and the natural sciences, national and global citizenship, and the Princeton experience. The campaign concludes this June 30. As of January, it had achieved 93 percent of its $1.75 billion goal, with 75 percent participation from undergraduate alumni.

ANNUAL GIVING

The 2011-12 Annual Giving campaign is underway, and with the support of Princetonians around the world, we hope to reach our goals of $53 million and 61.5 percent participation by June 30. These goals have additional importance this year, as we strive to reach our five-year objective of $250 million as part of the Aspire campaign. Today the University honors the leaders of last year’s Annual Giving campaign with three distinguished achievement awards.

The Class of 1926 Trophy

Established by one of Annual Giving's legendary classes and first awarded in 1978, the trophy goes to the class that raises the largest amount in each year's campaign. This year’s winner is the Class of 1986, which raised $9,001,986 in celebration of their 25th Reunion. This amount is an all-time record for any Princeton class. They were led by Class Agents Anthony V. Manory and Bruce C. Willise; by Special Gifts Chairs Harold A. Dawson, Jr., Mary Tabor Engel, Robert A. Engel, Robert G. Helund, III, Christian L. Pompa, Kevin J. Rehnberg, and Karen Horwitz Sabath; by Participation Chair Karen B. Konigsberg; and by Class President Patrick J. Blake.

The Jerry Horton Award

Given for the first time in 1982, the award is named in honor of Arthur J. Horton ’42, a former director of Annual Giving, director of Development, and Recording Secretary of the University. The award is presented in recognition of successful efforts by regional Annual Giving committees to expand dollar and participation results. The winner this year is the Annual Giving Section of the South, chaired by Barbara A. McElroy ’81 of Birmingham, AL.

The Harold H. Helm Award

This prize, first given in 1978, is named in honor of Harold H. Helm ’20, chair of Annual Giving’s first campaign in 1940. Mr. Helm, an ardent champion of Annual Giving, was also chair of the Alumni Council and a charter trustee of Princeton. The Helm Award recognizes “exemplary and sustained service to Annual Giving.” This year’s award goes to Frederick G. Strobel ’74 of Nashville, TN.
The Porter Ogden Jacobus Fellowship

Established in 1905 by the generosity of Mrs. Clara Cooley Jacobus, this honorific fellowship is conferred annually upon the graduate students who, in the judgment of the Faculty Committee on the Graduate School, display the highest scholarly excellence. The fellowship now provides full tuition and a stipend for the final year of study for four graduate students. The following students have received Jacobus Fellowships for the 2011–2012 academic year: Richard C. Baliban, Chemical and Biological Engineering; William P. Cavendish, Mathematics; William P. Deringer, History of Science; and Andrew C. Huddleston, Philosophy.

The M. Taylor Pyne Honor Prize

Founded in 1921 in remembrance of the life and character of M. Taylor Pyne, Class of 1877 and trustee of Princeton University from 1885 to 1921, by his cousin, Mrs. May Taylor Moulton Hanrahan, the Pyne Prize is the highest general distinction the University confers upon an undergraduate. The Pyne Prize is equivalent in amount to the prevailing undergraduate comprehensive fee for one academic year and is awarded annually to the senior who has manifested in outstanding fashion the following qualifications: excellence in scholarship, character, and effective support of the best interests of Princeton University.

The University announces the recipient(s) of the M. Taylor Pyne Honor Prize on Alumni Day.

The James Madison Medal

Named for James Madison, Princeton’s first graduate alumnus, the Madison Medal was established in 1973 by the Association of Princeton Graduate Alumni (APGA). Upon the recommendation of the APGA Committee on Nominations and Awards and the Madison Medal Selection Committee, this honor is conferred each year on an alumnus or alumna of the Graduate School who has had a distinguished career, advanced the cause of graduate education or achieved a record of outstanding public service.

This year the Madison Medal will be presented to Lisa P. Jackson ’86 (CHEME).

Woodrow Wilson Award

This prize was established by an anonymous donor in 1956 during the centennial year of Woodrow Wilson’s birth. It has since been conferred annually upon an alumnus or alumna of the undergraduate college whose achievements exemplify Woodrow Wilson’s memorable phrase “Princeton in the nation’s service.”

This year the Woodrow Wilson Award will be presented to Robert S. Mueller III ’66.

OLD NASSAU

H. P. Peck, '02
Karl A. Langloix
Arranged by Ernest Carter, '88

Melody 1st Tenor

Animoso

1. Tune ev'ry heart and ev'ry voice, Bid ev'ry care withdraw;
2. Let musick rule the fleeting hour, Her mantle round us draw;
3. And when th' hours in dust are laid, With reverence and awe
4. Till then with joy our songs we'll bring, And while a breath we draw,

Melody 2nd Tenor

Let all with one accord rejoice, In praise of Old Nassau,
And thrill each heart with all her power, In praise of Old Nassau,
An-other throng shall breathe our song, In praise of Old Nassau,
We'll all unite to shout and sing, Long life to Old Nassau,

Refrain

Mezzo 1st Tenor

"In praise of Old Nassau, we sing, Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah!"

Mezzo 2nd Tenor

Our hearts will give, while we shall live, Three cheers for Old Nassau

*The melody in 1st Tenor, except where, as indicated, it passes temporarily to 2nd Tenor.
