SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE

FEBRUARY 24, 2018

3:00 P.M.
The first Service of Remembrance was held in 1919.

The Princeton University Chapel is the religious and ceremonial center for the University. Completed in 1928 the Chapel is the third largest university chapel in the world. It is the home of regular religious services for many of the University's faith groups, including the 272 year-old ecumenical Christian worshiping community that meets every Sunday at 11:00 a.m. - the very community that founded Princeton in 1746. A place of grace and of peace, the Chapel is open to all people. There is seating for approximately 1,300 people, including 90 in the balcony.

The Memorial Procession
The Procession is composed of representatives from every undergraduate and alumni class, the Graduate School, and the Princeton faculty and staff, followed by members of the Service of Remembrance Committee. Each person wears a white carnation that is placed inside the Memorial Wreath, remembering all of those who died during 2017 and in all past years.

Processional Kites
The kites are a part of many University events in the Chapel, including Opening Exercises and Baccalaureate. The fabric for the kites was painted by Juanita Kauffman, who also painted the six hanging banners. The kites were constructed by Martin Blais, a kitemaker in Tennessee.

The students listed below are also members of the University Chapel Choir:
- The red kite represents fire and is carried by Samone Blair, Class of 2018.
- The white kite represents air and is carried by Nathan C. Leach, Class of 2018.
- The green kite represents earth and is carried by James Brown-Kinsella, Class of 2019.
- The blue kite represents water and is carried by McGinnis B. Miller, Class of 2020.

This Service of Remembrance is made possible in part by generous support from the bequest of Lois Dale Stewart Eddy h41 in memory of Ernest T. Stewart Jr. ’41.

HYMN O God, Our Help in Ages Past

St. Anne

I
O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home!

IV
A thousand ages, in your sight,
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.

II
Under the shadow of your throne
Your saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is your arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

V
Time, like an ever rolling stream,
Soon bears us all away;
We fly forgotten, as a dream
Fades at the opening day.

III
Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received its frame,
From everlasting you are God,
To endless years the same.

VI
O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Still be our God while troubles last,
And our eternal home!

OPENING SENTENCES

The Reverend Dr. Alison L. Boden

Leader: God is our refuge and strength,
People: A very present help in trouble.
Leader: God, you have been our refuge
People: From one generation to another.
Leader: Let us pray.

A PRAYER (Leader and People)

O God our Creator, the source of life, from whom we come and to whom all life leads, we praise you for the gift of life, for its joys and wonders, its friendship, family and community. We thank you for the ties that bind us so closely to one another. We ask for the faith to entrust to the power of your love those who have died. We thank you for their accomplishments, their happiness, and the times of grace they knew with us. Gather them with those who have gone before in the comfort of a saving hope and at perfect peace with all the world.

Leader: Holy God, Holy and Mighty, Holy Immortal One, have mercy upon them and upon all whom you have made.
People: May light perpetual shine upon them. Amen.
Please be seated.

ANTHEM Wie Lieblich sind deine Wohnungen, Herr Zebaoth from Ein Deutsches Requiem
Johannes Brahms
(1833-1897)

How lovely is your dwelling place, O Lord of Hosts!

For my soul longs, indeed it faints for the courts of the Lord:

My soul and body sing for joy to the living God.

O blessed are they that dwell within your house; they praise your name evermore!

from Psalm 84

PSALM 139:1–11
Brandon L. McGhee

Leader: Lord, you have searched me out and known me;

People: you know my sitting down and my rising up;
you discern my thoughts from afar.

Leader: You trace my journeys and my resting places

People: and are acquainted with all my ways.

Leader: Indeed, there is not a word on my lips,

People: but you, O Lord, know it altogether.

Leader: You press upon me behind and before

People: and lay your hand upon me.

Leader: Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;

People: it is so high that I cannot attain to it.

Leader: Where can I go then from your spirit?

People: Where can I flee from your presence?

Leader: If I climb up to heaven, you are there;

People: if I make the grave my bed, you are there also.

Leader: If I take the wings of the morning,

People: and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,

Leader: Even there your hand will lead me

People: and your right hand hold me fast.

Leader: If I say, “Surely the darkness will cover me,

People: and the light around me turn to night,”

Leader: Darkness is not dark to you; the night is as bright as the day;

People: darkness and light to you are both alike.

HYMN

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

I
Immortal invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, your great name we praise.

II
Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light,
Not wanting, not wasting, but ruling in might;
Your justice like mountains high soaring above,
Your clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

III
Your life is life-giving—to both great and small;
In all life you’re living, the true life of all;
We blossom and flourish as leaves and as flowers,
Then wither and perish—but naught dims your powers.

IV
So perfect your glory, so brilliant your light,
Your angels adore you, all veiling their sight;
All praise we now render as your angels do;
In awe at the splendor of light hiding you.

Please be seated.

PRAYERS

El Maleih Rachamin (Jewish) Talya R. Nevins
God, full of mercy, Who dwells above, give rest on the wings of the Divine Presence, amongst the holy, pure and glorious who shine like the sky, to the souls of our dear ones, who have gone to their eternal rest. The Merciful One will protect their souls forever, and will merge their souls with eternal life. The Everlasting is their inheritance. May they rest in peace, and let us say: Amen.

Surah Al-Fatihah (Muslim) Fatima Siwaju
In the name of God, the infinitely Compassionate and Merciful. Praise be to God, Lord of all the worlds. The Compassionate, the Merciful. Ruler on the Day of Reckoning. You alone do we worship, and You alone do we ask for help. Guide us on the straight path, the path of those who have received your grace; not the path of those who have brought down wrath, nor of those who wander astray. Amen.

Anguttara Nikâya (Buddhist) Bhadrajee S. Hewage
Short; alas, is the life of man, limited and fleeting, full of pain and torment. One should wisely understand this, do good deeds and lead a holy life, for no mortal ever escapes death. Just as the dewdrop at the point of the grass blade at sunrise very soon vanishes and does not remain for long: just so is the dewdrop-like life of men very short and fleeting. Just as at the pouring down of a mighty rain, the bubbles on the water very soon vanish and do not remain for long: just so is the bubble-like life of men very short and fleeting. Just as a furrow drawn with a stick in the water very soon vanishes and does not remain for long: just so is the furrow-like life of men very short and fleeting. Just as the cattle for slaughter, whatever foot they lift, ever stand on the brink of death: just so is the life of men, as with cattle for slaughter, very short and fleeting. One should wisely understand this, do good deeds and lead a holy life; for no mortal ever escapes death.

Please stand as you are able.
A PRAYER FOR PRINCETON

Leader and People:

O Eternal God, the source of life and light for all peoples,
we pray you would endow this University with your grace and wisdom:
Give inspiration and understanding to those who teach and to those who learn.
Grant vision to her trustees and administrators.
To all who work here and to all who bear her name give your guiding Spirit of sacrificial courage and loving service. Amen.

HYMN

For All the Saints

I
For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who to the world their steadfast faith confessed,
Your name, O Lord God, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

II
You were their rock, their refuge, and their might:
You, Lord, the hope that put their fears to flight;
'mid gloom and doubt, you were their one true light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

III
Ringed by this cloud of witnesses divine,
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet in your love our faithful lives entwine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

IV
And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
Then hearts are brave again, and faith grows strong.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

THE MEMORIAL PROCESSION

When the procession reaches the Chancel, the representatives will each contribute one flower to the Memorial Wreath in memory of their classmates and colleagues. As soon as the Memorial Wreath is complete, the President of the University, Christopher L. Eisgruber, will pronounce the following dedication:

By the dedication of this wreath, we, the living members of the Princeton family, join together to honor those of our company who are now numbered with the great communion of the eternal.

May this wreath be the symbol of our continuing unity so that we may uphold their allegiance to the mission of this University, their dedication to the service of all people, and their devotion to the ideals of their faith.
OLD NASSAU

Organ Solo, then the people will sing

Tune ev’ry heart and ev’ry voice, Bid ev’ry care withdraw;
Let all with one accord rejoice, In praise of Old Nassau.
In praise of Old Nassau we sing, Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah!
Our hearts will give, while we shall live, Three cheers for Old Nassau!
And when these walls in dust are laid, With reverence and awe,
Another throng shall breathe our song, In praise of Old Nassau.
In praise of Old Nassau we sing, Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah!
Our hearts will give, while we shall live, Three cheers for Old Nassau!

BENEDICTION

The Reverend Dr. Theresa S. Thames

HYMN

Joyful, Joyful, We Adore You
Hymn to Joy
Music by Ludwig van Beethoven
(1770-1827)
Words by Reverend Henry van Dyke
Class of 1873 and Princeton University Professor of English
(1852-1933)

I
Joyful, joyful, we adore you, God of glory, God of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before you, opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness, drive the storms of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day.

II
All your works with joy surround you, earth and heaven reflect your rays,
Stars and angels sing around you, center of unbroken praise,
Field and forest, vale and mountain, flowery meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, teach us what our praise should be.

III
You are giving and forgiving, ever blessing, ever blessed,
Well-spring of the joy of living, ocean depth of happy rest!
Loving Spirit, Father, Mother, all who love belong to you;
Teach us how to love each other, by that love our joy renew.

IV
Mortals, join the mighty chorus which the morning stars began;
Boundless love is reigning o’er us, reconciling race and clan.
Ever singing, move we forward, faithful in the midst of strife,
Joyful music leads us onward in the triumph song of life.

RECESSIONAL

Gravement from Pièce d’Orgue, BWV 572
Johann Sebastian Bach
(1685-1750)

The congregation will please remain standing until the procession has left the Chapel.
