Dear fellow Princetonians,

On behalf of the Alumni Association of Princeton University, it is my great honor to welcome you back to Old Nassau and to Reunions 2016. In these pages, you will find a full weekend of programs and activities, from athletic contests and community service projects to class and departmental panels and receptions. Alumni-Faculty Forums will feature distinguished alumni speaking on a wide range of topics, including climate change, healthcare and pandemics, the arts, biotechnology and entrepreneurship, just to name a few. If music is your passion, stop by the Reunions headquarters sites each evening for great entertainment, stroll over to the arches around campus to hear Princeton’s a cappella groups perform, spend Friday afternoon listening to groups from the past compete in the ninth annual Alumni Battle of the Bands, and be sure to attend the Princeton University Band’s Fred E. Fox ’39 Memorial Concert Saturday morning on Cannon Green. Finally, you won’t want to miss the one and only P-rade on Saturday afternoon and the spectacular lawn concert and fireworks on Saturday evening.

Going Back is among the greatest and most longstanding of Princeton traditions. We hope that you will take this time to reconnect with old friends and meet new ones, engage your mind, enjoy the beautiful Princeton campus, and rediscover why Princeton really is “the best old place of all.”

Have a wonderful weekend!

A Brief History of Princeton Reunions and the P-rade

All colleges encourage their graduates to maintain and demonstrate loyalty to their alma mater through return visits. However, no other institution welcomes all of its alumni and their families back for reunions on a yearly basis with the style and fanfare that is uniquely Princeton. Here is a short history of this ever-evolving annual tradition.

In the College of New Jersey’s early years, alumni regularly returned to campus to attend Commencement exercises. Its 100th Commencement in June 1847 drew an impressive 700 graduates for a formal dinner, escalating the tradition into a larger event. Until 1859, all alumni gathered together, but in that year, Alfred Woodhull, Class of 1856, organized the first “class” reunion, a triennial. He astutely surmised reasonable attendance could be expected, because in that era, anyone who returned to campus for Commencement three years after graduation qualified for an automatic master’s degree (a practice lasting until 1892).

In 1861, a regiment bound for battle in the Civil War passing through Princeton captivated the College’s students with its “skyrocket” cheer, which imitated the sound of fireworks — “sis” for the zooming rocket; “boom” for the explosion; and “ahhhh” as the crowd expressed its pleasure for the resulting light show. At Princeton, the “sis, boom, ah” skyrocket cheer evolved into Princeton’s “locomotive,” where word repetition and increasing speed emulates the sound of a train pulling out from a station. “Tiger” was likely added to the cheer in the late 19th century, when athletic uniforms began consistently using orange and black.

The P-rade officially began in the late 1890s but is actually the merged product of earlier traditions. Beginning in the Civil War era, alumni formally processed to Commencement Day dinner meetings. Then in 1888, Princeton and Yale University began scheduling one of their baseball games at Princeton on the Saturday before Commencement. Since this coincided with class dinners, alumni attendance was high and many classes formally marched to the game at University Field (located at the corner of Prospect Avenue and Olden Street). In October 1896, when the newly renamed Princeton University celebrated its sesquicentennial (150th anniversary), 800 Princeton undergraduates and 2,000 alumni took part in a mile-long procession through the campus and town; most carried an orange torch or lantern, and many classes wore coordinated costumes. Stimulated by the grandeur and organization of this parade, in 1897 all returning classes first joined to march in order to the baseball game. By 1906, a written description of the annual event said, “The Alumni Pee-rade on Saturday afternoon was quite as spectacular as usual; the bands, banners, transparencies, uniforms, and vaudeville features encircling University Field with color and noise.”
During early P-rades, the sole decoration worn by returning alumni was a small badge with class numerals on it. Gradually, classes began to distinguish themselves with creative hats, balloons, and parasols; before long, younger classes wore colorful costumes, carried humorous signs, and often performed comic stunts. In 1912, some of that year’s graduating class dressed in blue denim overalls and jackets to protect their regular clothes from spilled beer stains. One year later, the Class of 1913 adopted white beer jackets as their costume. By 1920, the jackets became a tradition with the addition of unique class logos. To this day, each graduating class designs its own class jacket, worn for the first time during Reunions weekend. Classes typically design new costumes for each “major” quinquennial reunion up until the 25th, when they receive a class blazer. The Association of Princeton Graduate Alumni introduced a Reunions Jacket in 2003 and all graduate alumni, regardless of graduation year, are unified in wearing this jacket each year.

Reunions were cancelled in 1917 and 1918 for World War I, so the “Victory Commencement” of 1919 featured a throng of 5,000 alumni for the largest Reunions and P-rade yet. An even longer “Victory Reunion” P-rade in 1946 following World War II (and the cancelled Reunions of 1943, 1944, and 1945) brought back 7,300 alumni, with each class carrying service flags showing the number of classmates who served and were killed in the war.

In 1947, the Class of 1922 held its 25th Reunion in Holder Hall Courtyard, becoming the first on-campus reunion site. (Previous reunions were held in private homes and rented spaces in town.) But it was not until 1952 that liquor was permitted to be served at the on-campus sites.

Rain has put the occasional damper on the P-rade but only once — in 1953 — did it force a cancellation. Even then, some classes insisted on marching anyway! Over time, P-rades and Reunions increasingly became a family affair, but it was not until the undergraduate body became coeducational in 1969 that women were officially welcome to participate in the P-rade.
From the early- to mid-20th century, the P-rade route began at Nassau Hall, moved across campus to 1879 Arch, then down Prospect Avenue and around University Field to pass the president in his reviewing box. Construction of the EQuad on the site of University Field in the late 1960s changed the end of the route to the new Clarke Field south of Ivy Lane. This era also marked the last Yale-Princeton Commencement baseball game (1966), so the P-rade ending changed to an Alumni Association meeting welcoming the graduating seniors into the alumni body. In the early 1990s, the route was altered again to keep the P-rade entirely on campus — beginning at FitzRandolph Gate, going around Nassau Hall and Cannon Green, then down Elm Drive to finish on Poe Field.

Despite route changes, procession order remains traditional. At 2:00 PM on Reunions Saturday, the Nassau Hall bell tolls and the P-rade Grand Marshal and other dignitaries (including the University president) lead members of the 25th Reunion Class from front campus to Poe Field. The classes then process in descending class order, beginning with the “Old Guard” (classes beyond the 65th Reunion) who ride in golf carts or occasionally walk, always drawing the loudest cheers from spectators. In recognition of his commitment to Reunions, the eldest returning alumnus from the oldest returning class has the special privilege of carrying the Class of 1923 Cane — a black wooden staff topped by a leaping silver tiger. Beginning in 1975, graduate alumni were invited to march between the 24th and 26th reunion classes, a tradition that has continued to this day. Throughout, dedicated alumni known as Marshals maintain order in their distinctive orange “Da Vinci” hats and blue blazers. The P-rade ends when the senior class sprints onto Poe Field, charging past the Reviewing Stand.

In 1996, in celebration of the University’s bicenquinquagenary (250th anniversary), a spectacular fireworks display was first held on Saturday night. The thousands of shells, custom soundtrack, and tailored choreography of the 25-minute display quickly became a highlight and annual tradition during Reunions.

Increasing student body size and the inclusion of family members in the P-rade has swollen turnout and lively participation in the ever-more-colorful spectacle. Today, well over 20,000 alumni, family, and friends participate in this annual gathering, and no other university comes close to the pageantry, magnitude, and ceremony of Princeton Reunions.

This summary was prepared by the Committee on Reunions and is adapted from the research and writings of Alexander Leitch ’24, William K. Selden ’34, Daniel N. White ’65, J. T. Miller ’70, and Liz Greenberg ’02.

The P-rade: 25 Years Marching Down Elm Drive

The P-rade's origins date back to the Civil War era, but the last 25 years have brought a few changes to the route of this beloved Reunions event. From the early- to mid-20th century, the P-rade began at Nassau Hall, wound through campus to 1879 Arch, and continued down Prospect Avenue to University Field, passing the president in his reviewing box. Construction of the Engineering Quadrangle altered the route to the new Clarke Field, south of Ivy Lane. 25 years ago, in 1991, the route of the P-rade changed once more, becoming self-contained on the Princeton campus. The route still begins at Nassau Hall, winds around Cannon Green, but then turns down Elm Drive and finishes on Poe Field. For many years, there were alternative arches, including balloons, and a wooden “archway,” but in 2004, with the completion of Bloomberg Hall, the P-rade once again marched grandly through a triumphal arch before passing the reviewing stand. This exhibit showcases the “before” and “after” of 25 years of Marching Down Elm Drive. Thursday 10:00 AM to 6:00 PM; Friday 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM. Sponsored by the Alumni Council Committee on Princetoniana. Maclean House, Library.

Women, Art, & Social Change: The Newcomb Pottery Enterprise
Newcomb Pottery forged a distinctly Southern brand of the American Arts and Crafts movement and is considered one of the most significant makers of American art pottery of the 20th century, both critically acclaimed and highly coveted. Established in 1895, Newcomb Pottery was a pioneering educational experiment focused on training young women to support themselves financially by designing, producing and selling handcrafted art objects. Housed within Newcomb College (Tulane University’s former women’s college) in New Orleans, Newcomb Pottery was active as an artistic-commercial venture from its inception until the 1940s. Thursday 10:00 AM to 10:00 PM; Friday to Sunday, 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Princeton University Art Museum.

WPRB — A Haven for the Creative Impulse: An exhibition of documents, photographs, memorabilia, and audio celebrating 75 years of Princeton’s campus radio station

In celebration of its 75th anniversary, this exhibition showcases the impact of the college radio station on the Princeton campus and the entire nation. A joint effort of the Princeton University Archives and WPRB’s educational advisor, Mike Lupica, the displayed collection includes objects loaned from station alumni, the WPRB Station, and the Archives’ collections. From license plates to records, and even the original stereo control console, the items on display provide an inside look at the personalities and events of WPRB. Thursday and Friday 9:00 AM to 4:45 PM; Saturday 9:00 AM to 11:30 AM. Wiess Lounge at the Mudd Manuscript Library, 65 Olden Street.
Alcohol Policy at Princeton University  The University alcoholic beverage policy is designed to be consistent with the laws of the state of New Jersey and also reflects the need for mutual respect and personal responsibility within a diverse community. Computing Resources During Reunions weekend, Princeton’s Office of Information Technology (OIT) provides wireless Internet access to all campus visitors. The service is free of charge and requires no registration. Your use of the Visitor Wireless Service constitutes your agreement to abide by the University’s Acceptable Use Policy, posted at www.princeton.edu/itpolicy. If you do not agree to abide by that policy, do not connect to this network.

Wireless Networking
Wireless networking is available in nearly all of Princeton’s buildings, and in many outdoor spaces such as Cannon Green and Reunions headquarters sites. Visitors should connect to the network called “puvisitor.”

To speak with a Help Desk consultant on the phone, call 609-258-HELP (4357) and press option 1. For online chat, go to the OIT homepage (princeton.edu/oit) and click on the link on the right. You can also send email to helpdesk@princeton.edu.

Please note: The dormitory room doors will automatically lock when the door is closed so remember to bring your keycard when you leave your room. For lockouts or replacement keycards, please contact a member of the student crew at the headquarters site at which you received your keycard or a member of the student crew located closest to your dormitory. All keycards and linens must be returned on Sunday by Noon to your headquarters checkout.  Keycards will be deactivated at Noon.

Lightning Storms: Emergency Preparedness  Individuals are ultimately responsible for their personal safety and should take appropriate action when threatened by lightning. Adults must take responsibility for the safety of children in their care during severe weather. However, awareness of certain lightning safety guidelines can greatly reduce the risk of injury or death.

1. Identify in advance a location (e.g., building, bus, car) that would be safe during a thunderstorm. Locations that offer little or no protection from lightning include tents, golf carts, or open shelters, such as parking garages.

2. Public Safety will attempt to notify your reunion if a bad storm is expected and if evacuation of the headquarters site is recommended. However, when you first see lightning or hear thunder, go to the safe location immediately.

3. Avoid standing under Reunions tents during severe storms; while tents provide protection from the rain, they do not provide protection from lightning. If lightning is striking nearby when you are outside, you should:
   a. Crouch down and put your feet together. Place your hands over your ears to minimize hearing damage from thunder.
   b. If part of a group, spread out. You should avoid being in close proximity (minimum of 15 feet) to other people.

4. Suspend outdoor activities for at least 30 minutes after the last observed lightning flash or thunder clap or until your reunion receives the “All Clear” message from Public Safety.

5. Persons injured by a lightning strike do not carry an electrical charge and can be handled safely. Apply First Aid procedures to a lightning victim if you are qualified to do so.  Call Public Safety Emergency at 609-258-3333.
Lost and Found If you discover you have lost an item over the weekend, please check first with the student crew at your major reunion headquarters. Please submit the online Reunions Lost and Found registration form: alumni.princeton.edu/ReunionsLostandFound. The Office of Alumni Affairs crew also collects lost and found items, and you may stop by Maclean House or contact this crew directly for information (609-258-3468). Shortly after Reunions, unclaimed lost and found items will be moved to Public Safety (609-258-1000).

Medical Services If you or your companions need assistance, medical help is available for bee stings, cardiac symptoms, or anything in between. Please program your cell phone with Public Safety’s Emergency number 609-258-3333, or dial 9-1-1 from any blue light phone or campus landline. Dialing 9-1-1 on a cell phone routes to the nearest emergency call center and may slow emergency response time.

Orange Key Campus Tours Tours will be offered Thursday and Friday at 11:15 AM, 1:00 PM, and 3:30 PM, leaving from the Admission Reception Area in Clio Hall (top floor).

P-rade The P-rade begins at 2:00 PM on Saturday. Alumni and their families are welcome to march. Be sure to check the P-rade map in this booklet, in your Reunions issue of the Princeton Alumni Weekly, or on posters at your major reunion headquarters site and around campus for the route and staging area for your class. Orange signs will also be posted along the route. Refer to the P-rade map for concession stand locations. The finale is on Poe-Pardee fields. Parents of members of the Class of 2016 are encouraged to sit on the bleachers reserved for them at the finale for the best views and photos. As always, please help keep the P-rade moving!

Public Safety Contact: The Department of Public Safety (DPS) is located at 200 Elm Drive, on the southern end of main campus. DPS operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The Communication Center and Welcome Desk are located on the first floor at 200 Elm Drive. For non-emergencies dial 609-258-1000, and for all immediate emergencies please call 609-258-3333.

On-Campus Emergencies: Dialing 9-1-1 from any University landline phone connects you to the Department of Public Safety’s emergency line. If you are on campus and dial 9-1-1 from your cell phone you will automatically be routed through the state approved 9-1-1 Switched Telephone Network and be connected to the appropriate state approved Public Safety Answering Point (PSAP), which would, in most situations, be the Princeton Police Department. If you want to reach DPS quickly and easily, we suggest you program your cell phone with 609-258-3333. There are numerous blue light communication towers and blue light phones throughout campus. With the push of a button the user can communicate directly with DPS Communication Center. This enhanced technology also allows DPS to send out emergency broadcast alerts (e.g., seek shelter due to an impending lightning storm) as needed. The location of each tower is digitally displayed to the DPS Communication Center. For more information on safety and security, please go to the Public Safety website at: publicsafety.princeton.edu/
Reunions Mobile Throughout Reunions, you can quickly access helpful information — from event schedules to alerts, from transportation logistics to P-rade staging sites. Just navigate to m.princeton.edu/reunions on your smartphone or other mobile device.

Reunions Rover In addition to providing campus shuttles and hotel buses, the University coordinates the Reunions “Rover,” a student-driven golf cart transport service for alumni and guests. Overseen by University Services, the rovers will be clearly marked and will make continuous loops around campus. Please feel free to wave the student driver down if a ride to your destination would be helpful. In an effort to increase safety and reduce emissions, the Reunions Rover will be replacing the bus service that is usually offered on Elm Drive. The Elm Drive “Rovers” will be marked differently than the others, and they will be servicing all stops along Elm Drive including Lot 16, the Chapel, Richardson and Baker. Unlike the other “Rovers,” these will make continuous loops via Elm Drive between Lot 16 and the North Gate exclusively.

Transportation — Campus Shuttles The Office of Alumni Affairs provides a shuttle service to help you move around the campus and from the main parking lots (see 2016 Headquarters and Parking map foldout).

There are three campus shuttle routes:

- Central Line (Main Campus)
- East Line (Lot 21)
- Forbes Line

Note that because of special events, area construction, and traffic, shuttles may need to be rerouted and routes combined. A real-time shuttle tracker is available through Reunions Mobile at m.princeton.edu/reunions

The shuttle service hours are:

- Thursday: 1:00 PM to Midnight
- Friday: 8:00 AM to 2:00 AM
- Saturday: 8:00 AM to 2:00 AM
- Sunday: 8:00 AM to Noon

*Limited service during the P-rade between 2:00 PM and 5:30 PM

Transportation — Hotel Shuttles The bus stop for hotel return shuttles will be in Lot 23, and drop off will be at the West Garage (near Baker Rink). Hotels serviced by this program are available Thursday afternoon through Saturday.

Locomotive Cheer

Princeton’s first cheer, “Hooray, hooray, hooray! Tiger Siss-boom-ah, Princeton!” was adapted from the “skyrocket” cheer of the Seventh Regiment of New York City as they passed through Princeton on their way to Washington a few days after the outbreak of the Civil War. The cheer was intended to simulate the launch, explosion, and reaction to a firework.

Sometime in the 1890s, the skyrocket cheer developed into the “locomotive,” Princeton’s longest-used and most distinctive cheer, which starts slowly and picks up increasing speed, suggesting the sound of a locomotive:

Hip! Hip!
Rah, Rah, Rah,
Tiger, Tiger, Tiger,
Sis, Sis, Sis,
Boom, Boom, Boom, Ah!
Princeton! Princeton! Princeton!
