

Dear fellow Princetonians,

On behalf of the more than 92,000 graduate and undergraduate alumni of Princeton University, it is my great honor to welcome you back to Old Nassau and to Reunions 2017. In these pages, you will find a full weekend of programs and activities, from athletic contests and student performances to class and departmental panels and receptions.

Alumni-Faculty Forums will feature distinguished alumni and faculty moderators speaking on a wide range of topics, including space exploration, sports, cybersecurity, the future of medicine, and books that changed your life, just to name a few. If music is your passion, stop by the Reunions headquarters sites each evening for memorable entertainment, stroll over to the arches around campus to hear Princeton's a cappella groups perform, spend Friday afternoon listening to groups from the past compete in the annual Alumni Battle of the Bands, and be sure to attend the Princeton University Band's Fred E. Fox '39 Memorial Concert Saturday morning on Cannon Green. Consider starting your Saturday with a yoga class or the Annual Princeton University Reunions Run (PURR). Finally, you will not want to miss the one and only P-rade on Saturday afternoon and the spectacular lawn concert and fireworks on Saturday evening for the grand finale. Going Back is among the greatest and most longstanding of Princeton traditions. We hope that you will take this time to reconnect with old friends and meet new ones, engage your mind, enjoy the beautiful Princeton campus, and rediscover why Princeton really is "the best old place of all."

Three cheers to Old Nassau!

A Brief History of Princeton Reunions and the P-rade

All colleges encourage their graduates to maintain and demonstrate loyalty to their alma mater through return visits. However, no other institution welcomes all of its alumni and their families back for reunions on a yearly basis with the style and fanfare that is uniquely Princeton. Here is a short history of this ever-evolving annual tradition.

In the College of New Jersey's early years, alumni regularly returned to campus to attend Commencement exercises. Its 100th Commencement in June 1847 drew an impressive 700 graduates for a formal dinner, escalating the tradition into a larger event. Until 1859, all alumni gathered together, but in that year, Alfred Woodhull, Class of 1856, organized the first "class" reunion, a triennial. He astutely surmised reasonable attendance could be expected, because in that era, anyone who returned to campus for Commencement three years after graduation qualified for an automatic master's degree (a practice lasting until 1892).

In 1861, a regiment bound for battle in the Civil War passing through Princeton captivated the College's students with its "skyrocket" cheer, which imitated the sound of fireworks — "sis" for the zooming rocket; "boom" for the explosion; and "ahhhh" as the crowd expressed its pleasure for the resulting light show. At Princeton, the "sis, boom, ah" skyrocket cheer evolved into Princeton's "locomotive," where word repetition and increasing speed emulates the sound of a train pulling out from a station. "Tiger" was likely added to the cheer in the late 19th century, when athletic uniforms began consistently using orange and black.

The P-rade officially began in the late 1890s but is actually the merged product of earlier traditions. Beginning in the Civil War era, alumni formally processed to Commencement Day dinner meetings. Then in 1888, Princeton and Yale University began scheduling one of their baseball games at Princeton on the Saturday before Commencement. Since this coincided with class dinners, alumni attendance was high and many classes formally marched to the game at University Field (located at the corner of Prospect Avenue and Olden Street). In October 1896, when the newly renamed Princeton University celebrated its sesquicentennial (150th anniversary), 800 Princeton undergraduates and 2,000 alumni took part in a mile-long procession through the campus and town; most carried an orange torch or lantern, and many classes wore coordinated costumes. Stimulated by the grandeur and organization of this parade, in 1897 all returning classes first joined to march in order to the baseball game. By 1906, a written description of the annual event said, "The Alumni Pee-rade on Saturday afternoon was quite as spectacular as usual; the bands, banners, transparencies, uniforms, and vaudeville features encircling University Field with color and noise."

During early P-rades, the sole decoration worn by returning alumni was a small badge with class numerals on it. Gradually, classes began to distinguish themselves with creative hats, balloons, and parasols; before long, younger classes wore colorful costumes, carried humorous signs, and often performed comic stunts. In 1912, some of that year's graduating class dressed in blue denim overalls and jackets to protect their regular clothes from spilled beer stains. One year later, the Class of 1913 adopted white beer jackets as their costume. By 1920, the jackets became a tradition with the addition of unique class logos. To this day, each graduating class designs its own class jacket, worn for the first time during Reunions weekend. Classes typically design new costumes for each "major" quinquennial reunion up until the 25th, when they receive a class blazer. The Association of Princeton Graduate Alumni introduced a Reunions Jacket in 2003 and all graduate alumni, regardless of graduation year, are unified in wearing this jacket each year.

Reunions were cancelled in 1917 and 1918 for World War I, so the "Victory Commencement" of 1919 featured a throng of 5,000 alumni for the largest Reunions and P-rade yet. An even longer "Victory Reunion" P-rade in 1946 following World War II (and the cancelled Reunions of 1943, 1944, and 1945) brought back 7,300 alumni, with each class carrying service flags showing the number of classmates who served and were killed in the war.

In 1947, the Class of 1922 held its 25th Reunion in Holder Hall Courtyard, becoming the first on-campus reunion site. (Previous reunions were held in private homes and rented spaces in town.) But it was not until 1952 that liquor was permitted to be served at the on-campus sites.

Rain has put the occasional damper on the P-rade but only once — in 1953 — did it force a cancellation. Even then, some classes insisted on marching anyway! Over time, P-rades and Reunions increasingly became a family affair, but it was not until the undergraduate body became coeducational in 1969 that women were officially welcome to participate in the P-rade.

From the early- to mid-20th century, the P-rade route began at Nassau Hall, moved across campus to 1879 Arch, then down Prospect Avenue and around University Field to pass the president in his reviewing box. Construction of the EQuad on the site of University Field in the late 1960s changed the end of the route to the new Clarke Field south of Ivy Lane. This era also marked the last Yale-Princeton Commencement baseball game (1966), so the P-rade ending changed to an Alumni Association meeting welcoming the graduating seniors into the alumni body. In the early 1990s, the route was altered again to keep the P-rade entirely on campus — beginning at FitzRandolph Gate, going around Nassau Hall and Cannon Green, then down Elm Drive to finish on Poe Field.

Despite route changes, procession order remains traditional. At 2:00 PM on Reunions Saturday, the Nassau Hall bell tolls and the P-rade Grand Marshal and other dignitaries (including the University president) lead members of the 25th Reunion Class from front campus to Poe Field. The classes then process in descending class order, beginning with the “Old Guard” (classes beyond the 65th Reunion) who ride in golf carts or occasionally walk, always drawing the loudest cheers from spectators. In recognition of his commitment to Reunions, the eldest returning alumnus from the oldest returning class has the special privilege of carrying the Class of 1923 Cane — a black wooden staff topped by a leaping silver tiger. Beginning in 1975, graduate alumni were invited to march between the 24th and 26th reunion classes, a tradition that has continued to this day. Throughout, dedicated alumni known as Marshals maintain order in their distinctive orange “Da Vinci” hats and blue blazers. The P-rade ends when the senior class marches onto Poe Field and gathers by the reviewing stand to be officially welcomed into the Alumni Association.

In 1996, in celebration of the University’s bicenquingenary (250th anniversary), a spectacular fireworks display was first held on Saturday night. The thousands of shells, custom soundtrack, and tailored choreography of the 25-minute display quickly became a highlight and annual tradition during Reunions.

Increasing student body size and the inclusion of family members in the P-rade has swelled turnout and lively participation in the ever-more-colorful spectacle. Today, well over 25,000 alumni, family, and friends participate in this annual gathering, and no other university comes close to the pageantry, magnitude, and ceremony of Princeton Reunions.

This summary was prepared by the Committee on Reunions and is adapted from the research and writings of Alexander Leitch '24, William K. Selden '34, Daniel N. White '65, J. T. Miller '70, and Liz Greenberg '02.

Peter Badge is a portrait photographer who has photographed nearly 400 Nobel laureates since 2000. Princeton University Art Museum

The Berlin Painter and His World: Athenian Vase-Painting in the Early Fifth Century B.C.

This exhibition is a celebration of ancient Greece and of the ideals of reason, proportion, and human dignity that are its legacy. Focusing on the extraordinary work of a single anonymous master artisan, the exhibition provides a window into ancient Athenian society at a time of economic growth and cultural flourishing through the art of vase-painting, the largest body of pictorial imagery to have survived from antiquity. Depictions of myths, cult, and daily life on red-figure vases posit questions on love and war, and life and death that still resonate today. Though the artist's elegant style has long been appreciated, this is the first exhibition devoted to the Berlin Painter. The exhibition features 84 vessels and statuettes of the early fifth century B.C., gathered from museums and private collections around the globe, and examines the elements of this artist's style that allow the attribution of objects to his hand while affording unique insights into life 2,500 years ago. Thursday, 10:00 AM to 10:00 PM; Friday to Sunday, 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM.

Princeton University Art Museum.

Revealing Pictures: Photographs from the Christopher E. Olofson Collection

Revealing Pictures, drawn from the collection of Christopher E. Olofson '92, presents rich examples of photographs that are more than what they seem. Images that might appear at first glance to be unassuming, banal, or straightforward reveal themselves to be anything but. An image of an abandoned bed engulfed in lush greenery is also a record of a portion of the Mississippi delta where the land is disappearing at an alarming rate, making the prospect of anyone needing or discarding a bed a moot point. Such ecological, historical, or cultural significance can be found in all the works gathered here—whether studies of individuals or environments—pointing back to Olofson's own background in international studies and an interest in narrative, identity, representation, and nationhood that informs his collection. Thursday, 10:00 AM to 10:00 PM; Friday to Sunday, 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Princeton University Art Museum.

Seeley G. Mudd Manuscript Library

A Lotta Kicks: 125 Years of the Triangle Club

The exhibit walks you through some highlights from the past century and a quarter, bringing to light the extensive history of this Princeton standard. Playbills, photographs, sheet music, memorabilia, travel plans, costume sketches, and, of course, punny titles, can all be found in this exhibit, and to a much greater degree in the Triangle Club Records. Thursday and Friday, 9:00 AM to 4:45 PM; Saturday, 9:00 AM to 11:30 AM. Wiess Lounge at the Mudd Manuscript Library, 65 Olden Street.

Campus Information

Alcohol Policy at Princeton University The University alcoholic beverage policy is designed to be consistent with the laws of the State of New Jersey and also reflects the need for mutual respect and personal responsibility within a diverse community. The University and the Town of Princeton prohibit:

- Transport of an open container of alcohol across common spaces of the University. (Common spaces are areas such as lounges, open campus, meeting halls, etc., outside of Reunions headquarters.)
- Possession of a container of alcohol by persons under the age of 21.
- Serving of alcohol to persons under the age of 21.

Alcohol: The State of New Jersey The State of New Jersey has very strict laws concerning driving under the influence of alcohol and drugs. Persons found guilty of DUI charges are subject to substantial penalties, including fines and imprisonment. In addition, the Town of Princeton prohibits the transporting of open containers of alcohol in public places, such as streets and sidewalks (including Prospect Avenue). Please note that golf carts are considered vehicles for purposes of DUI and open container laws. Princeton University does not condone the possession, use, manufacture, or distribution of illegal substances or drug paraphernalia of any kind in any amount, or the possession, use, manufacture, or distribution of prescription drugs without a prescription. Please note that New Jersey state law classifies heroin, cocaine, amphetamines, LSD, marijuana, and hashish, among other substances, as “controlled dangerous substances.” New Jersey law does provide some immunity for those who seek immediate medical assistance on behalf of themselves or others in drug overdose situations.

Animals With the exception of service animals (or those in training) for guests with disabilities, attendees are not permitted to bring animals into academic and dormitory buildings, major reunion headquarters sites, or to the P-rade.

Computing Resources During Reunions weekend, Princeton’s Office of Information Technology (OIT) provides wireless Internet access to all campus visitors. The service is free of charge and requires no registration. Your use of the Visitor Wireless Service constitutes your agreement to abide by the University’s Acceptable Use Policy, posted at princeton.edu/itpolicy. If you do not agree to abide by that policy, do not connect to this network.

Wireless Networking Wireless networking is available in nearly all of Princeton’s buildings, and in many outdoor spaces such as Cannon Green and Reunions headquarters sites. Visitors should connect to the network called “puvisitor.”

Getting Computer Help While on Campus The OIT Support and Operations Center (also known as the “Help Desk”) is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, to help with computing and networking problems. To speak with a Help Desk consultant on the phone, call 609-258-HELP (4357) and press option 1. For online chat, go to the OIT homepage (princeton.edu/oit) and click on the link on the right for “Live Chat Online.” Alumni should click the link “I do not have Princeton credentials.” You can also contact the Support and Operations Center by sending an email to helpdesk@princeton.edu.

Computing Facilities Available during Reunions There are several computing facilities (“clusters”) available for your use during Reunions weekend. These machines will have a special Reunions configuration and will not require you to log in. You can simply visit one of the facilities listed below and gain access to the Internet. Reunions computer clusters will be located as follows:

- McCosh B59
- Friend Center 005
- Friend Center 009
- Frist Campus Center 200
- Frist Campus Center 300
- Whitman Residential College
- Edwards Hall

Drones During Reunions, the campus is a designated “no drone zone” for unmanned aircraft (i.e., model aircraft, quadcopters, drones). The University unmanned aircraft policy, which is designed to be consistent with Federal Aviation Administration regulations, places restrictions on the operation of unmanned aircraft in order to protect campus safety, security, and privacy. The University prohibits drone flights throughout Reunions weekend, including the P-rade and fireworks.

Fireworks The fireworks start at 9:15 PM following the lawn concert on Finney and Campbell Fields. Due to traffic and road closures starting at 7:00 PM (Faculty Road – from Washington Road to Fitz Randolph) and 8:45 PM (sections of Washington Road, Western Way, Fitz Randolph, and Roper Lane), it is recommended that pedestrians/golf carts use Streicker Bridge to access the fireworks viewing areas. Please note: Princeton Stadium is available for spectators to view the fireworks; however, Powers Field is inaccessible due to construction.

Lightning Storms: Emergency Preparedness Individuals are ultimately responsible for their personal safety and should take appropriate action when threatened by lightning. Adults must take responsibility for the safety of children in their care during severe weather. However, awareness of certain lightning safety guidelines can greatly reduce the risk of injury or death.

1. Identify in advance a location (e.g., building, bus, car) that would be safe during a thunderstorm. Locations that offer little or no protection from lightning include tents, golf carts, or open shelters, such as parking garages.
2. Public Safety will attempt to notify your reunion if a bad storm is expected and if evacuation of the headquarters site is recommended. However, when you first see lightning or hear thunder, go to the safe location immediately.
3. Avoid standing under Reunions tents during severe storms; while tents provide protection from the rain, they do not provide protection from lightning. If lightning is striking nearby when you are outside, you should:
 - a. Crouch down and put your feet together. Place your hands over your ears to minimize hearing damage from thunder.
 - b. If part of a group, spread out. You should avoid being in close proximity (minimum of 15 feet) to other people.
4. Suspend outdoor activities for at least 30 minutes after the last observed lightning flash or thunder clap or until your reunion receives the “All Clear” message from Public Safety.
5. Persons injured by a lightning strike do not carry an electrical charge and can be handled safely. Apply First Aid procedures to a lightning victim if you are qualified to do so. Call Public Safety Emergency at 609-258-3333.

Lost and Found If you discover you have lost an item over the weekend, please check first with the student crew at your major reunion headquarters. Please submit the online Reunions Lost and Found registration form: alumni.princeton.edu/ReunionsLostandFound. The Office of Alumni Affairs crew also collects lost and found items, and you may stop by Maclean House or contact this crew directly for information (609-258-3468). Shortly after Reunions, unclaimed lost and found items will be moved to Public Safety (609-258-1000).

Medical Services If you or your companions need assistance, medical help is available for bee stings, cardiac symptoms, or anything in between. Please program your cell phone with Public Safety’s Emergency number 609-258-3333, or dial 9-1-1 from any blue light phone or campus landline. Dialing 9-1-1 on a cell phone routes to the nearest emergency call center and may slow emergency response time.

Nursing Rooms A dedicated private room will be available Friday and Saturday 9:00 AM to 11:00 PM in Frist Campus Center, Room 114; and during the P-rade in Whig Hall and Dillon Gym.

Orange Key Campus Tours Tours will be offered for alumni and guests Thursday and Friday at 11:15 AM, 1:00 PM, and 3:30 PM, leaving from Clio Hall (2nd floor).

Parking All entrances to the University will be closed to vehicles during Reunions. To access the campus shuttle, park cars in Lot 20, off Elm Drive and Faculty Road, or Lot 21, next to Jadwin Gym. Accessible parking is available in Lot 16 with access to ADA-compliant shuttles. Reserved parking is available in Lot 16 for the Old Guard and 65th Reunion ONLY. Please refer to the foldout 2017 Reunions Headquarters and Parking map for details.

P-rade The P-rade begins at 2:00 PM on Saturday. Alumni and their families are welcome to march. Be sure to check the P-rade map in this booklet, in your Reunions issue of the Princeton Alumni Weekly, or on posters at your major reunion headquarters site and around campus for the route and staging area for your class. Orange signs will also be posted along the route. Refer to the P-rade map for concession stand locations. The finale is on Poe-Pardee fields. Parents of members of the Class of 2017 are encouraged to sit on the bleachers reserved for them at the finale for the best views and photos. As always, please help keep the P-rade moving!

Public Safety

Contact The Department of Public Safety (DPS) is located at 200 Elm Drive, on the southern end of main campus. DPS operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The Communication Center and Welcome Desk are located on the first floor at 200 Elm Drive. For non-emergencies dial 609-258-1000, and for all immediate emergencies please call 609-258-3333.

On-Campus Emergencies Dialing 9-1-1 from any University landline phone connects you to the Department of Public Safety's emergency line. If you are on campus and dial 9-1-1 from your cell phone you will automatically be routed through the state approved 9-1-1 Switched Telephone Network and be connected to the appropriate state approved Public Safety Answering Point (PSAP), which would, in most situations, be the Princeton Police Department. If you want to reach DPS quickly and easily, we suggest you program your cell phone with 609-258-3333.

There are numerous blue light communication towers and blue light phones throughout campus. With the push of a button the user can communicate directly with DPS Communication Center. This enhanced technology also allows DPS to send out emergency broadcast alerts (e.g., seek shelter due to an impending lightning storm) as needed. The location of each tower is digitally displayed to the DPS Communication Center. For more information on safety and security, please go to the Public Safety website, publicsafety.princeton.edu.

Restrooms Reunions attendees will have access to designated restrooms in most dormitories located within the headquarters sites. Dormitory entryways leading to these restrooms will be unlocked during the following hours:

Thursday: Noon to 2:30 AM
 Friday: 8:00 AM to 2:30 AM
 Saturday: 8:00 AM to 2:30 AM
 Sunday: 8:00 AM to Noon

Note that during the P-rade between the hours of 1:30 PM and 5:30 PM, dormitories with public restrooms located along the P-rade route will be available.

In addition, there are restroom trailers and/or gender-inclusive portable units available at the following campus locations:

- Baker Rink Lot (5th satellite registration)
- Boathouse
- Dillon Court Walk
- Dillon Gymnasium, near tower
- East Pyne, near Cannon Green
- Elm Drive, near Witherspoon Hall
- Forbes College
- Graduate College
- Lot 28 (hotel bus pick-up)
- Poe Field
- U-Store Courtyard, near Laughlin
- West Windsor Athletic Fields
- Whig Hall
- Whitman College lawn, near 1981 Hall

Reunions Mobile Throughout Reunions, you can quickly access helpful information — from event schedules to alerts, from transportation logistics to P-rade staging sites. Just navigate to m.princeton.edu/reunions on your smartphone or other mobile device.

Reunions Rover In addition to providing campus shuttles and hotel buses, the University coordinates the Reunions “Rover,” a student-driven golf cart transport service for alumni and guests. Overseen by University Services, the rovers will be clearly marked and will make continuous loops around campus. Please feel free to wave the student driver down if a ride to your destination would be helpful. In an effort to increase safety and reduce emissions, the Reunions Rover will be replacing the bus service that is usually offered on Elm Drive. The Elm Drive “Rovers” will be marked differently than the others, and they will be servicing all stops along Elm Drive including Lot 16, the Chapel, Richardson Auditorium, and Baker Rink. Unlike the other “Rovers,” these will make continuous loops via Elm Drive between Lot 16 and the North Gate exclusively.

Transportation — Campus Shuttles The Office of Alumni Affairs provides a shuttle service to help you move around the campus and from the main parking lots (see 2017 Headquarters and Parking map foldout).

There are three campus shuttle routes:

- Central Line (Main Campus)
- East Line (Lot 21)
- Forbes Line

Note that because of special events, area construction, and traffic, shuttles may need to be rerouted and routes combined. A real-time shuttle tracker is available through Reunions Mobile at m.princeton.edu/reunions

The shuttle service hours are:

- Thursday: 1:00 PM to Midnight
- Friday: 8:00 AM to 2:00 AM
- Saturday: 8:00 AM to 2:00 AM
- Sunday: 8:00 AM to Noon

*Limited service during the P-rade between 2:00 PM and 5:30 PM

Transportation — Hotel Shuttles The bus stop for hotel return shuttles will be in Lot 23, and drop off will be at the West Garage (near Baker Rink). Hotels serviced by this program are available Thursday afternoon through Saturday.

Locomotive Cheer

Princeton's first cheer, "Hooray, hooray, hooray! Tiger Siss-boom-ah, Princeton!" was adapted from the "skyrocket" cheer of the Seventh Regiment of New York City as they passed through Princeton on their way to Washington a few days after the outbreak of the Civil War. The cheer was intended to simulate the launch, explosion, and reaction to a firework.

Sometime in the 1890s, the skyrocket cheer developed into the "locomotive," Princeton's longest-used and most distinctive cheer, which starts slowly and picks up increasing speed, suggesting the sound of a locomotive:

Hip! Hip!
Rah, Rah, Rah,
Tiger, Tiger, Tiger,
Sis, Sis, Sis,
Boom, Boom, Boom, Ah!
Princeton! Princeton! Princeton!
