PRINCETON JOURNEYS
A World of Learning

AEGEAN ODYSSEY
ISTANBUL TO ATHENS ABOARD SEA CLOUD II

JULY 13 TO 21, 2011
Dear Princetonian,

We invite you to join Princeton Journeys for a summer voyage under sail along the coast of Turkey and through the Greek Isles to discover— or perhaps revisit— some of the most important sites of antiquity. Ruins and relics, temples and treasures are all to be encountered on this summer voyage from Istanbul to Athens aboard the incomparable Sea Cloud II.

The program begins in Istanbul, for a brief look at some of the city’s finest mosaics. Then, aboard the elegant Sea Cloud II, sail across the Sea of Marmara and through the Dardanelles. Step ashore in the lively port of Kusadasi and drive to Ephesus, one of the best-preserved sites from antiquity. Continue to Bodrum to see an impressive array of antiquities recovered from ancient shipwrecks. Then sail into the spectacular bay of Santorini for a visit to the whitewashed cliff-top villages of this volcanic island. Explore the rich archaeological treasures at Delos and Mycenae before disembarking in Athens.

Archaeology scholar Diane Cline *87 *91 will lead Princetonians on this Journey along the beautiful Turquoise Coast and among the Cyclades. Her commentary will be supplemented by that of Kathryn Calley Galitz, Assistant Museum Educator at The Metropolitan Museum of Art, as well as Richard Sylla, Professor of Economics at New York University, who will provide background on the economic history of the Mediterranean region from ancient to modern times.

Princeton travelers will share this exclusive charter of Sea Cloud II with those from The Metropolitan Museum of Art and the National Trust for Historic Preservation. This superb vessel, christened in 2001, combines the seafaring elegance of a bygone era with the highest modern standards of luxury and provides a superb setting with just 47 cabins, world-class service and five-star dining. Because space is limited, please contact the Princeton Journeys team soon at (609) 258-8686 or journeys@princeton.edu to reserve your spot on this special Journey in the Aegean.

Sincerely,

Margaret M. Miller ’80
Assistant Vice President for Alumni Affairs and Director, Office of the Alumni Association

Princeton Study Leader, Diane Cline *87 *91

A classical archeologist by training, Dr. Diane Cline *87 *91 has broad interest in interpretation of the classical world and has written and taught on topics such as philosophy, art history, women's studies, linguistics, literary criticism, history, and religion. Having held tenure at both the History Department at California State University Fresno and also the Classics Department at the University of Cincinnati, she has also taught at other major institutions, including George Washington University, where she is currently a professorial lecturer in Classics. A Fulbright Fellowhip recipient for work in Greece, she has worked on excavations in Israel, Greece, and Cyprus. Dr. Cline holds a B.A. in Classics from Stanford University and a M.A. and Ph.D. from Princeton University’s Department of Art and Archaeology.
NEW YORK | ISTANBUL, TURKEY

Wednesday, July 13  Depart New York on an overnight flight to Istanbul.

ISTANBUL | SEA CLOUD II

Thursday, July 14  Arrive in Istanbul this morning and meet your fellow travelers during lunch in the Old City at the Four Seasons Sultanahmet Hotel. Visit the Byzantine Church of the Savior in Chora with its exquisite mosaics before boarding Sea Cloud II later this afternoon. Enjoy a glass of bon voyage champagne on deck while cruising out of the harbor and into the Sea of Marmara.

AT SEA

Friday, July 15  During an idyllic day at sea, watch as the ship’s crew trim the sails by hand, attend a lecture or perhaps relax on deck with a good book. Weather permitting, there will be an opportunity to swim in the Aegean. In the evening, join the captain for a welcome dinner.

KUSADASI, TURKEY

Saturday, July 16  Step ashore this morning and drive to Ephesus, one of the best-preserved sites from antiquity. See temples and houses with their original mosaics and fountains; the reconstructed Library of Celsus, originally built in 114 C.E.; and the theater where audiences of more than 2,000 once gathered to hear poetry readings and music. Return to the ship for lunch. The afternoon is at leisure to enjoy the sights and shops of Kusadasi. In the evening, a special onboard performance by a quintet from the Izmir Philharmonic Orchestra is followed by dinner.
BODRUM, TURKEY

Sunday, July 17 Arrive in Bodrum, birthplace of Herodotus and Dionysius, and site of the Mausoleum of Halicarnassus, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. Visit the Castle of St. Peter, a showpiece of medieval military architecture. Housed in the castle is the Museum of Underwater Archaeology, featuring treasures from ancient shipwrecks discovered along Turkey’s shores. Lunch on deck is followed by a continuation of the lecture program.

SANTORINI, GREECE

Monday, July 18 This morning cruise into the bay of Santorini, one of the world’s most astounding geological sights. In 1600 B.C.E. a volcanic eruption caused the center of the island to sink, creating this amazing caldera, rising over 1,000 feet from the sea. Drive to the highest peak for panoramic views before continuing to the tip of the island to stroll through the lovely village of Oia. Continue to a local winery for a guided tour and tasting of Santorini’s fine wines. After lunch on board, explore the white town of Fira, perched high on the cliffs above the harbor. Dine on deck this evening as Sea Cloud II remains moored in the bay of Santorini.

DELOS, GREECE

Tuesday, July 19 Spend the morning on tiny Delos. Said to be the birthplace of Artemis and Apollo, this now uninhabited island is one of the most important archaeological sites in Greece. See the Sanctuary of Apollo and the theater, as well as public squares, shops and villas, many displaying superb mosaic work. Lunch on board is followed by a relaxing afternoon at sea and a teatime lecture.

NAVPLION, GREECE

Wednesday, July 20 Step ashore in the beautiful port town of Navplion. A morning walking tour includes the narrow streets of the Old Town, which are lined with elegant Venetian houses and gracious neoclassical mansions. Drive to the nearby ruins of Mycenae, fabled palace of Agamemnon. View the Lion Gate and other archaeological discoveries of Heinrich Schliemann. Return to the ship for lunch. This evening the captain hosts a festive farewell dinner.

ATHENS, GREECE | NEW YORK

Thursday, July 21 Disembark Sea Cloud II this morning in Piraeus and transfer to Athens airport for your flight home, or continue to Athens for the optional postlude.

ISTANBUL PRELUDE
July 10 to 14, 2011

Fly from New York to Istanbul for three nights at the historic Four Seasons Sultanahmet Hotel in the Old City. Explore Topkapi Palace, residence of the Ottoman sultans for over 400 years, visit the Museum of Turkish and Islamic Arts in the former Ibrahim Pasha Palace, and shop for spices, carpets and crafts at the Grand Bazaar. At the Archaeological Museum view the magnificent Alexander Sarcophagus, dating from the 4th century B.C.E. Other highlights include the 6th-century basilica of Hagia Sophia, the stunning tiled interior of the Blue Mosque.

ATHENS POSTLUDE
July 21 to 23, 2011

Disembark Sea Cloud II in Piraeus and continue to Athens for two nights at the elegant Hotel Grande Bretagne, located on fashionable Constitution Square. Visit the National Archaeological Museum, whose collection of antiquities is one of the finest in the world, and the Benaki Museum, housed in a former private mansion and displaying unique art and artifacts from all periods of Greek history. Ascend the Acropolis and discover the outstanding new Acropolis Museum.
TERMS & CONDITIONS

AIRFARE Academic Arrangements Abroad (AAA) will be pleased to assist with air travel arrangements. A specially negotiated APEX Economy Class non-refundable group airfare will be offered. Business Class will be quoted on an individual basis. A fee of $75 per person will be charged for any reservations other than the group flight schedule; private transfers can be arranged at a supplemental cost. Please note that AAA can assist with rebooking flights only on air reservations booked directly with AAA. To redeem your frequent flyer mileage, please contact the airline directly.

PAYMENT SCHEDULE A deposit of $2,500 per person, payable to Academic Arrangements Abroad, of which $350 is non-refundable for administrative fees, is required with the reservation application. Final payment, by check only, must be received 120 days prior to departure.

HEALTH All participants must be in good health. This program involves extensive walking over uneven surfaces and climbing stairs at monuments and other locations not handicapped accessible and climbing into various conveyances including tenders. Any condition that may require assistance or special medical attention must be reported at the time of your reservation. Please note: Sea Cloud II does not have an elevator.

INSURANCE TRIP CANCELLATION / EMERGENCY MEDICAL EVACUATION / BAGGAGE / ACCIDENT AND SICKNESS INSURANCE IS STRONGLY RECOMMENDED. CANCELLATION PENALTIES ARE STRICTLY ENFORCED. As a service to its travelers, the Office of the Alumni Association of Princeton University automatically provides all travelers basic medical and evacuation coverage under a group travel insurance policy. It is highly recommended that you supplement this basic protection with your own additional coverage, as well as trip cancellation/interruption or baggage coverage. Information on additional insurance is available and will be mailed upon receipt of your reservation.

CHANGES IN ITINERARY & COSTS The itinerary is subject to change at the discretion of the Alumni Association of Princeton University (AAPU) and AAA. All prices quoted are based on prevailing fuel prices, airfares and currency exchange rates in effect at the time of brochure printing and are subject to change without notice. Deviations from the scheduled itinerary are at the expense of the individual.

RESPONSIBILITY CLAUSE The participation of AAPU is limited to educational sponsorship of the program described in this brochure (The Program). AAA acts only as an agent for the participant with respect to transportation, accommodations and all other services, relating to The Program. AAA, AAPU and/or their agents assume no responsibility or liability for any act, error or omission, or for any injury, loss, accident, delay or irregularity which may be occasioned by reason of any defect in any aircraft, ship, train, bus or other carrier, or through neglect or default of any subcontractor or other third party, which may be used wholly or in part in the performance of their duty to the participants of The Program. The passage ticket issued by the carrier is the sole contract between the participant and the carrier. Nor will AAA or AAPU and/or their agents be responsible for loss, injury, damages or expenses to persons or property, due to illness, weather, strikes, local laws, hostilities, wars, terrorist acts, acts of nature or other such causes in connection with The Program or anything beyond their reasonable control. AAA is not responsible for transportation or other program delays and changes, nor additional expenses or loss of time that may be incurred. In the event it becomes necessary or advisable for the comfort or well-being of the participants, or for any reason whatsoever, to alter the itinerary at any time, without notice to the participants, such alterations will be made without penalty to AAA or AAPU. Additional expenses, if any, shall be borne by the participants. Baggage and personal effects are the sole responsibility of the participant at all times. AAA and AAPU reserve the right to accept or decline any person as a participant at any time, or to require any participant to withdraw from The Program at their own expense when such an action is determined by AAA or AAPU to be in the best interest of the participant's health and safety, or the general welfare of the other participants.

CANCELLATION POLICY AAA must strictly adhere to its cancellation policy to offset costs incurred prior to the commencement of The Program, which may include but are not limited to: advance payments to land operators; ship charters; communication expenses; development/promotional expenses and the loss of time that might have permitted resale of reserved space. All cancellations must be made in writing to the offices of AAA and are subject to a $350 non-refundable administrative fee. All refunds are limited to amounts actually received by AAA and are the sole responsibility of AAA; AAPU shall have no liability for refunds. At the time AAA receives written notification of cancellation, the following cancellation charges will apply: cancellations received between 120 and 91 days prior to departure, 20 percent of the program cost per person; those received between 90 and 61 days before departure, 50 percent of the program cost per person; no refunds will be given for cancellations received within 60 days of departure. No refunds are given for cancellation on or after the day of departure, or for unused portions of the tour, for any reason. As cancellation charges, if any, will be assessed in accordance with airline regulations. All group fare tickets must be issued no less than 30 days prior to departure. NOTE: Neither AAA nor AAPU shall be liable for any airfare cancellation penalties incurred by the purchase of a non-refundable ticket. In the case of a cancellation due to shortage of participants, AAA will attempt to notify all participants at least 45 days prior to departure. However, AAA reserves the right to cancel The Program prior to departure for any reason and, in such case, reimbursement of refundable costs of the trip by AAA shall constitute full settlement with the participant. In the unlikely event that a dispute arises between a participant and AAA or AAPU, the following conditions will apply: (a) the dispute will be settled by binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in New York, NY; (b) the dispute will be governed by New York Law; (c) the maximum amount of recovery to which a participant shall be entitled under any and all circumstances will be the sum of all monies actually received from the participant by AAA. The participant agrees that this is a fair and reasonable limitation on the damages, of any sort whatsoever, that a participant may suffer. Upon payment of the deposit to AAA, the participant agrees to be bound by the above terms and conditions.
