Dear Princetonian:

With a heritage older than the American Revolution, the gardens of the Caribbean—along with the islands’ other historic sites and welcoming cultures—await your arrival with Princeton Journeys. Join your fellow Princetonians, January 15-22, 2015, on a tropical getaway aboard the sailing yacht, Sea Cloud II, where understated elegance, gourmet cuisine, and gracious service reign supreme. Experience the excitement of traveling aboard this majestic lady, and watch as the energetic young crew scales the masts to set the sails by hand.

We are delighted that Anna Pavord, the distinguished British garden authority, will accompany us on this voyage. A riveting lecturer, she is the author of many garden books including her bestseller, The Tulip. Anna will be joined by her husband Trevor Ware, a witty and delightful speaker, and an authority on British maritime history.

From Barbados, cruise to Trinidad to admire Port of Spain’s eclectic colonial architecture and its 200-year-old Royal Botanic Gardens. Step ashore at St. George’s, Grenada, the “Spice Island,” to tour two private gardens—one in the same family for six generations—and sample a traditional rum punch. In Kingstown, inhale the essence of nutmeg and black pepper at the St. Vincent and Grenadines Botanic Gardens, established in 1765, and ascend to the Montreal Estate Gardens, nestled in the mountains overlooking the surrounding farmland. On St. Lucia, enjoy a swim on a white-sand beach tucked between the island’s majestic pitons; and call at tiny Bequia, for a hike to a turtle hatchery or some seaside time in this snorkeler’s paradise.

As Princeton travelers will be joined by those from The Royal Oak Foundation, the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and Smithsonian Institution, space on this winter voyage is limited. We suggest that you contact the Princeton Journeys team at journeys@princeton.edu or 609-258-8686 to reserve your spot today.
