CUBA INTERACTIONS
With the Class of 1972

Havana, Cienfuegos & Trinidad
March 1 to 8, 2014

http://alumni.princeton.edu/journeys
Dear Princetonian,

Princeton Journeys is pleased to announce that, by special permission of the U.S. Department of the Treasury, the Office of the Alumni Association has been awarded a license to offer to our alumni and friends educational exchanges in Cuba, a country long off-limits to American travelers. Please join your fellow Princetonians in the Class of 1972, March 1-8, 2014, on this interactive journey.

The Office of the Alumni Association has certified that each traveler on our program will have a full-time schedule of educational exchange activities that will result in meaningful interaction between the travelers and individuals in Cuba. So, expect daily opportunities to converse and engage with Cuban people from all walks of life who embody the richness of unique and proud traditions in music, art, culture and history. Engage with leading intellectuals, youthful university students, and up-and-coming artists from acclaimed galleries. Share ideas with representatives from various sectors of Cuban society to gain a deeper understanding of the transitions the Cuban people are experiencing today.

The Class of 1960 was the first to offer a mini-reunion in Havana with Princeton Journeys and it was a sold-out success. We suggest that you contact the Princeton Journeys team by submitting your signed application as soon as possible. Applications can be received by fax at (609) 258-5561 or by mail to the address on the form; reservations will be processed in the order of receipt.

With kind regards,

Margaret M. Miller ’80

CUBA INTERACTIONS
With the Class of 1972
Havana, Cienfuegos & Trinidad
March 1 to 8, 2014

 Exact dates and times for the following meetings, meals, and other interactions, will be determined closer to the date of departure.

Saturday
March 1
MIAMI / HAVANA
Meet at Miami International Airport in the early morning to check in for a regularly scheduled chartered flight to Havana. Upon arrival at the José Martí Airport, transfer to the Saratoga Hotel for lunch and check-in. Later in the afternoon attend an introductory lecture on Cuba’s current reality by a former deputy minister for foreign affairs. The welcome dinner this evening is at a lively local restaurant.

Sunday
March 2
HAVANA
Join an architectural historian for a morning lecture followed by a walking tour of Old Havana, focusing on the four main squares: the Plaza de Armas, Plaza de San Francisco de Asís, Plaza Vieja and Plaza de la Catedral. Conclude with lunch near the cathedral. The arts have long presented Cubans with an opportunity to cautiously express their views on society. This afternoon visits are arranged in the homes and studios of some of Havana’s leading artists, where there may be an opportunity to purchase paintings and drawings. The evening is at leisure. Travelers may wish to have dinner at a paladar, a restaurant in a private home that operates with the special permission of the Cuban government.

Monday
March 3
HAVANA
Drive to the hilltop village of San Francisco de Paula to visit Finca La Vigía, the house where Ernest Hemingway lived for 20 years. View the rooms through open windows and hear about the Princeton connections to the site. Upon return to Havana, lunch is arranged at a local paladar. During the early afternoon, travelers may wish to see the storied Hotel Nacional, speak with vendors at the Feria de Artesania (the crafts market), or stroll past the Colonial-style buildings on Calle Obispo, Havana’s main shopping street. This evening drive to the Ludwig Foundation for the Arts where the group will have a presentation on Cuban Art and a chance to discuss the arts and other aspects of contemporary life with invited local guests. The Foundation President will host a cocktail reception and buffet dinner on the penthouse terrace.
Tuesday
March 4
HAVANA / CIENFUEGOS
Depart for Playa Girón, the landing site for seaborne forces of armed Cuban exiles in the Bay of Pigs Invasion, and visit the museum dedicated to the invasion. Continue to Cienfuegos, founded by settlers from Bordeaux, France. After lunch, depart on a walking tour of the main square, pass the 19th-century Tomás Terry Theater with its magnificent wooden décor and visit an artist’s studio. In the late afternoon check into the Jagua Hotel. The group has been invited to meet with the world renowned choir, Cantores de Cienfuegos, and enjoy a performance before dinner at a local restaurant.

Wednesday
March 5
CIENFUEGOS / TRINIDAD / HAVANA
Drive this morning to Trinidad de Cuba, one of Cuba’s many UNESCO World Heritage sites. Visit the main plaza and museums, and pass beautifully decorated colonial homes. There will be leisure time to explore this historic city and meet local artists and crafts people before lunch. Return to Havana in the late afternoon.

Thursday
March 6
HAVANA
Attend an informal morning rehearsal of the Contemporary Dance Company of Cuba at the Teatro Nacional, located adjacent to the Plaza de la Revolución. Continue to the Museo de la Revolución, which vividly describes Cuba’s history from colonial times through the winning of independence to the Triumph of the Revolution. Lunch is at leisure. In the late afternoon, enjoy a private director’s tour and reception at the Ceramics Museum, followed by dinner.

Friday
March 7
HAVANA
Today begins with a curatorial tour at the National Museum of Fine Arts focusing on their Cuban art collection. Then, as a group, spend the majority of the day speaking with locals about various aspects of Cuba today, including time in the local markets and neighborhoods to share stories about daily life. In the late afternoon, attend a private concert at the Church of San Francisco de Paula, with an opportunity to chat with the performers, followed by our farewell dinner.

Saturday
March 8
HAVANA / MIAMI
Transfer to the airport for the morning flight to Miami.

Please note that this itinerary is subject to change. Additionally, throughout the program special guests have been invited to join the group. Architects, museum directors, students and others will be joining the group for meals and discussions. Participants are encouraged to actively engage these individuals in conversation. Interpreters are available upon request.
PROGRAM RATE $4,995 per person, double occupancy
SINGLE SUPPLEMENT $575

Rate Includes
- Round-trip airfare via regularly scheduled chartered flights: Miami / Havana / Miami

AIRFARE Roundtrip air travel between Miami and Havana is via a regularly scheduled chartered flight. Business Class is not available. Academic Arrangements Abroad (AAA) will be pleased to assist with air travel arrangements from your home city to Miami, for a processing fee of $40 per person. Domestic airfare will be quoted on an individual basis and is payable by credit card only. Frequent flyer mileage cannot be accepted in conjunction with this program.

PAYMENT SCHEDULE $1,500 per person, payable to Academic Arrangements Abroad, of which $500 is non-refundable for administrative fees, is required with the reservation application. Balance due by check only 120 days prior to departure.

HEALTH This is an active program and all participants must be in good health. This program involves extensive walking over uneven surfaces, climbing stairs without handrails at locations that are not handicapped accessible. Any condition that may require assistance or special medical attention must be reported at the time of your reservation.

INSURANCE Trip Cancellation / Emergency Medical Evacuation / Baggage / Accident and Sickness Insurance Protection is strongly recommended. Cancellation penalties are strictly enforced. As a service to its travelers, the Office of the Alumni Association of Princeton University automatically provides all Princeton Journey participants with basic medical, accident, and evacuation coverage under a group travel insurance policy. An additional limited policy, valid in Cuba only, is extended to all travelers age 80 and under as required by the Cuban government and is included in the cost of the program. IT IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED that you supplement this basic protection with your own additional coverage, as well as trip cancellation / interruption or baggage coverage. Information on additional insurance is available and will be mailed upon receipt of your reservation.

CHANGES IN ITINERARY & COSTS The itinerary is subject to change at the discretion of the Office of the Alumni Association of Princeton University (AAPU) and AAA. All prices quoted are based on prevailing fuel prices, airfares and currency exchange rates in effect at time of brochure printing and are subject to change without notice. Deviations from the scheduled itinerary are not permitted.

RESPONSIBILITY CLAUSE The participation of AAPU is limited to educational sponsorship of the program described in this brochure (The Program). AAA acts only as an agent for the participant with respect to transportation, accommodations and all other services, relating to The Program. AAA, AAPU and/or their agents assume no responsibility or liability for any act, error or omission, or for any injury, loss, accident, delay or irregularity that may be occasioned by reason of any defect in any aircraft, ship, train, bus or other carrier, or through neglect or default of any subcontractor or other third party, which may be used wholly or in part in the performance of their duty to the participants of The Program. The passage ticket issued by the carrier is the sole contract between the participant and the carrier. Nor will AAA or AAPU and/or their agents be responsible for loss, injury, damages or expenses to persons or property, due to illness, weather, strikes, local laws, hostilities, wars, terrorist acts, acts of nature or other such causes in connection with The Program or anything beyond their reasonable control. AAA is not responsible for transportation or other program delays and changes, nor additional expenses or loss of time that may be incurred. In the event it becomes necessary or advisable for the comfort or well-being of the participants, or for any reason whatsoever, to alter the itinerary at any time, without notice to the participants, such alterations will be made without penalty to AAA or AAPU. Additional expenses, if any, shall be borne by the participants. Baggage and personal effects are the sole responsibility of the participant at all times. AAPU and AAA reserve the right to accept or decline any person as a participant at any time, or to require any participant to withdraw from The Program at their own expense when such an action is determined by AAA or AAPU to be in the best interest of the participant’s health and safety, or the general welfare of the other participants.

CANCELLATION POLICY AAA must strictly adhere to its cancellation policy to offset costs incurred prior to the commencement of The Program, which may include but are not limited to: advance payments to land operators; communication expenses; development and the loss of time that might have permitted resale of reserved space. All cancellations must be made in writing to the offices of AAA and are subject to a $500 non-refundable administrative fee. All refunds are limited to amounts actually received by AAA and are the sole responsibility of AAA; AAPU shall have no liability for refunds. At the time AAA receives written notification of cancellation, the following cancellation charges will apply: cancellations received between 120 and 91 days prior to departure, 20 percent of the program cost per person; those received between 90 and 61 days before departure, 25 percent of the program cost per person; no refunds will be given for cancellations received within 60 days of departure. No refunds are given for cancellation on or after the day of departure, or for unused portions of the tour, for any reason. Air cancellation charges, if any, will be assessed in accordance with airline regulations. All group fare tickets must be issued no less than 30 days prior to departure. NOTE: Neither AAA nor AAPU shall be liable for any airplane cancellation penalties incurred by the purchase of a non-refundable ticket. In the case of a cancellation due to shortage of participants, AAA will attempt to notify all participants at least 45 days prior to departure. However, AAA reserves the right to cancel The Program prior to departure for any reason and, in such case, reimbursement of refundable costs of the trip by AAA shall constitute full settlement with the participant. In the unlikely event that a dispute arises between a participant and AAA or AAPU, the following conditions will apply: (a) the dispute will be settled by binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in New York, NY; (b) the dispute will be governed by New York Law; (c) the maximum amount of recovery to which a participant shall be entitled under any and all circumstances will be the sum of all monies actually received from the participant by AAA. The participant agrees that this is a fair and reasonable limitation on the damages, of any sort whatsoever, that a participant may suffer. Upon payment of the deposit to AAA, the participant agrees to be bound by the above terms and conditions.

Academic Arrangements Abroad
Current Restrictions on Travel & American Travelers to Cuba

There are substantial restrictions on travel to Cuba from the United States and for all American citizens and American residents. These restrictions apply regardless of where you are traveling from on your way to Cuba or where you travel to following a visit to Cuba. The restrictions include persons who are citizens of other countries as well. Only those who are authorized by the U.S. Treasury Department’s Office of Foreign Assets Control, known as “OFAC”, may legally travel from the United States to Cuba. There are specially licensed air carriers (CSTs) that provide charter services for authorized individuals between Cuba and the U.S. Further, air arrangements and arrangements for travel and stays within Cuba can only be made through a licensed Travel Service Provider (TSP). Academic Arrangements Abroad is a licensed Travel Service Provider and is authorized to make all travel arrangements to and from Cuba, as well as travel arrangements within Cuba for individuals who possess the following licenses:

Please note that this summary of OFAC travel restrictions is for informational purposes only. For the official requirements please see:

http://www.treasury.gov/resource-center/sanctions/Programs/Documents/cuba_tr_app.pdf

For your program, you will be traveling under a Specific License. The Office of the Alumni Association of Princeton University has been granted a Specific License for educational exchanges not involving academic study pursuant to a degree program but which promote people-to-people contact. Princeton Journeys participants travel under this license and must have a copy of the license in their possession at all times while traveling to and from Cuba.

Specific Licenses: Applications must be submitted to OFAC for a Specific License, either by an individual or institution. OFAC will consider issuing a Specific License for the following:

- Educational exchanges not involving academic study pursuant to a degree program to promote people-to-people contact.
- Educational: An applicant must be traveling for certain clearly defined educational activities, including: participation in a structured educational program that includes at least 10 weeks in Cuba; independent research for writing a Master’s thesis, doctoral dissertation or similar document; participation in a formal course of study or teaching at a Cuban academic institution or sponsoring a Cuban scholar in the United States.
- Persons traveling for religious activities.
- Persons traveling for certain humanitarian projects.
- Persons traveling for free-lance journalism.
- Persons traveling for professional research or to attend a professional meeting that do not meet the requirements of the relevant general license.
- Amateur or semi-professional athletes traveling to participate in a competition held under the auspices of an international sports Federation or for participation in certain public performances or exhibitions.
- Persons traveling for the purposes related to exportation, importation or transmission of information or informational material.
- Persons visiting close relatives who are neither Cuban national or U.S. government employees assigned to the U.S. Interest Section.

For complete information, please see the OFAC website:

http://www.treasury.gov/services/Pages/Cuba-Travel-Licenses.aspx

By participating on this program, you agree to the following restrictions of the Specific License and OFAC regulations on travel to Cuba:

- To travel to and from Cuba with the group
- To participate fully in all program activities
- To abide by the terms of the U.S. Embargo

After reserving your place on the program, you will be informed of exactly what you must bring with you in order to enter Cuba and re-enter the United States according to OFAC.
