Passage along the Blue Danube Transylvania and the Danube Delta to Vienna aboard the Deluxe M.S. AMADEUS ROYAL

October 17 to 29, 2016
Dear Princetonian,

Declared by fifth-century philosopher Herodotus as “the greatest of all rivers which we know,” the Danube River has ranked among the world’s most legendary waterways from the dawn of civilization. Join your fellow Princetonians, from October 17-29, 2016, for a voyage along this fabled river that has seen the passage of Roman legions and crusading knights, the indomitable Janissaries of the Ottomans and the proud Hussars of the Habsburgs. This program, rich in history, architecture and geographical beauty, features six countries, three UNESCO World Heritage sites and a private excursion to the untouched Danube Delta Biosphere Reserve, where land, river and sea converge to create one of Europe’s largest and best preserved wilderness areas.

Begin with two nights in Bucharest, whose splendid architecture earned the city its nickname, “Little Paris,” and travel to mythical Transylvania, where authentic medieval castles and local lore keep the legend of Dracula alive. Then board the elegant M.S. AMADEUS ROYAL for a nine-night cruise up the Danube through some of southeastern Europe’s most picturesque scenery, including the legendary Iron Gates, naturally carved by the flowing waters in the course of its passage through the Transylvanian Alps. Here a rich mosaic of medieval cities, charming villages and rugged countryside await you amidst the ancient lands of Bulgaria and Serbia. In historic Belgrade tour the Byzantine Kalemegdan Fortress and the famous “House of Flowers” memorial. Visit Hungary’s fabled Puszta for a masterful display of traditional horsemanship in the country’s heartland. Compare and contrast the two parts of Hungary’s capital—ancient Buda on the Danube’s right bank and modern Pest on the left. Explore Bratislava, capital of Slovakia, before concluding your journey in sophisticated Vienna.

We hope you can join us on this exciting adventure! Space is limited, so contact the Princeton Journeys team today at (609) 258-8686 or journeys@princeton.edu to reserve your place.

With kind regards,
Margaret M. Miller ’80

U.S./Bucharest, Romania Monday and Tuesday, October 17 and 18
Depart the U.S. and arrive in Bucharest. Check into the Five-Star ATHÉNÉE PALACE HILTON BUCHAREST, ideally located on Piața George Enescu, named after Romania’s most famous composer. Attend the Welcome Reception this evening.

Bucharest/Transylvania Wednesday, October 19
Today, travel to intriguing Transylvania, Latin for “the land beyond the forest,” and into central Romania’s rich medieval heritage. Enjoy the autumnal glory of the spectacular Carpathian Mountains, an evocative backdrop of grand medieval castles with soaring spires where the mythical Gothic narrative of Count Dracula is kept alive through local storytelling. Tour imposing 14th-century Bran Castle, commonly known as Dracula’s Castle, which Romania’s beloved Queen Marie transformed into the royal family’s summer residence.

Following a traditional Romanian lunch, visit the elegant, 19th-century fairy-tale Peleș Castle, with its Neo-Renaissance façade and Florentine, French and Moorish interiors, arguably the most beautiful castle in all of Europe. Intended as the summer residence of Romania’s King Carol I, Peleș contains over 170 rooms, all lavishly furnished, and is home to one of the largest art collections in Central and Eastern Europe. Return to Bucharest for an evening at leisure.

Bucharest/Embark Ship Thursday, October 20
In the morning, enjoy a panoramic tour of this dynamic capital city and visit the National Art Museum in the 19th-century Royal Palace, housing Romania’s finest collection of artistic treasures. Following a traditional Romanian lunch, see the immense Palace of Parliament, Europe’s largest administrative building.

Drive through the rolling Romanian campii (plains) en route to Fetești to embark the deluxe M.S. AMADEUS ROYAL. Attend the Captain’s Welcome Reception this evening.

St. Gheorghe/Danube Delta Friday, October 21
In the village port of St. Gheorghe, board a small excursion boat for a private cruise of the untouched Danube Delta Biosphere Reserve, where land, river and sea converge to create one of Europe’s largest and best preserved wilderness areas. The fertile marshlands of this UNESCO World Heritage-designated delta shelter extensive numbers of fish and birds—over 300 avian species have been observed here, including the rare red-throated diver, the pygmy cormorant and the dalmatian pelican—many of them migrants from Northern Europe and the Central Asian steppes.

Cruising the Danube River Saturday, October 22
Enjoy the colorful autumn scenery of the lower Danube, seldom seen by Westerners. Attend specially arranged onboard lectures.

Cover photo: Look for the Monastery of Mraconia (“hidden place”) as you cruise the dramatic Iron Gates, the Danube River’s spectacular passageway through the Carpathian and Balkan Mountains.

Ruse for Arbanasi, Bulgaria/
Veliko Târnovo/Svishtov
Sunday, October 23
Dock in Ruse and travel to the quiet, 12th-century hillside village of Arbanasi, where nearly 90 historical buildings are protected monuments. See its distinctive stone houses, famous for their fortified Bulgarian architecture and richly decorated interiors. Visit the perfectly preserved Konstantalsiev House to learn more about the comfortable life of a 17th-century merchant. Inside the 15th-century Birth of Christ Church, admire its elaborate icons and frescoes.

Continue to the medieval town of Veliko Târnovo, historic capital of the Bulgarian Empire between the 12th and 14th centuries. Following lunch in a local restaurant, enjoy a brief walking tour through the open-air museum of its historic town center. See the impressive 12th-century Tsarevets Fortress and walk through lively Samovodska Charshia, Veliko Târnovo’s old marketplace street.

Reboard the ship in Svishtov.

Cruising the Danube River/
Iron Gates
Monday, October 24
Today, enjoy cruising through some of southeastern Europe’s most picturesque scenery including the legendary Iron Gates, naturally carved by the Danube River in the course of its passage through the Transylvanian Alps.

Belgrade, Serbia
Tuesday, October 25
One of the oldest cities in Europe, Belgrade traces its origins from the Stone Age, followed by Romans, Byzantines, Serbs, Turks and Austrians, each of whom left lasting impressions here. The walking tour features historic Terazije Square and the iconic domed Temple of St. Sava, Serbia’s patron saint.

Tour the imposing and strategically built Kalemegdan Fortress, one of the world’s oldest fortresses, constructed by Byzantine Emperor Justinian I in 535 and visit the famous “House of Flowers” memorial dedicated to Yugoslavia’s longstanding leader, Josip Broz Tito.

Commissioned by Romania’s longest-serving monarch in 1873, the stunning Peleș Castle outside the picturesque Carpathian Mountain town of Sinaia is one of Europe’s best preserved palaces.
Mohács, Hungary/Kalocsa
Wednesday, October 26
Dock in Mohács and enjoy a scenic drive across Hungary’s protected Puszta, one of Europe’s largest expanses of rolling grassland plains. Visit a revered traditional horse farm to see a performance of authentic Hungarian horsemanship. Enjoy lunch and folk entertainment in the farm’s award-winning csárda (tavern), then continue to Kalocsa, famously known for its creation of intricately patterned, brightly hued Hungarian embroidery. Visit the fascinating Local Country House and Paprika Museum for further insight into regional culture and customs and the traditional methods of cultivating paprika, the spice that locals refer to as “red gold.”

Budapest
Thursday, October 27
Austrian-born Archduke Joseph, who became the “most Hungarian Habsburg,” is credited with developing in Budapest an imperial capital that rivaled Vienna. Buda and Pest, the centuries-old twin cities that face one another across the Danube River, the embankments along this storied river and the Buda Castle Quarter together are designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Tour Pest, where the elegant, Neo-Gothic 19th-century limestone Parliament Building towers over the river. Pass through Heroes’ Square and admire the monuments honoring the Magyar chiefs who conquered Hungary in A.D. 896. Visit the Renaissance Revival-style 19th-century Hungarian State Opera House, one of the most beautiful performing arts venues in the world—its interiors are decorated with frescoes by eminent painters, including Mór Than and Károly Lotz.

The imposing Chain Bridge links river-level Pest to the hills of Buda across the Danube. On Castle Hill, visit the stately, Neo-Romanesque late-19th-century Fisherman’s Bastion and the ornate St. Matthias Church, first built in 1015. Enjoy an afternoon at leisure in Budapest.

Bratislava, Slovakia
Friday, October 28
Dock in Slovakia’s capital, located in the foothills of the impressive Carpathian Mountain range overlooking the banks of the Danube River. Beautifully restored since the end of the Cold War, the city showcases 21st-century life amidst its 1000-year-old history. Enjoy a walking tour of the city’s Staré Mesto (Old Town); its medieval, Renaissance and 19th-century architecture is among the finest in central Europe. Visit the Romanesque 14th-century Cathedral of St. Martin, the elaborate Primatial Palace and see St. Michael’s Gate, Bratislava’s oldest preserved medieval fortification, originally built in 1300.

This afternoon, cruise through Austria’s scenic Donau-Auen National Park, which preserves the last remaining major wetlands in central Europe. Enjoy the Captain’s Farewell Reception this evening.

Vienna, Austria/U.S.
Saturday, October 29
Disembark in Vienna and continue on the Post-Program Option or transfer to the airport for your flight home.
In 1762, a six-year-old Mozart performed for Empress Maria Theresa and the imperial family in the Habsburgs' exquisite Schönbrunn Palace in Vienna.

The deluxe M.S. AMADEUS ROYAL, newly renovated in 2015, features the comforts of a floating luxury hotel. This exclusively chartered ship offers 69 river-view, air-conditioned, spacious, stylishly appointed Suites (237 square feet) and Staterooms (162 square feet). All Suites and select Staterooms feature a French balcony (floor-to-ceiling sliding glass door with iron railing). Each has two twin beds (convertible to one queen bed), a private bathroom with shower (Suites have bathtub with shower), individual climate control, direct dial telephone, flat-screen television, writing desk, safe and hair dryer.

Freshly prepared continental meals featuring local ingredients are served in single, unassigned seatings in the delightfully scenic Panorama Restaurant and include early-risers’ coffee, buffet breakfast and lunch, afternoon tea, four-course dinner and late-evening snack. Complimentary house wine and beer are served with lunch and dinner.

Inviting public facilities are spacious and include the Panorama Bar, Lido Bar, Amadeus-Club with Internet station, beauty salon, boutique, fitness studio with massage services and early morning exercise classes and Sun Deck with outdoor dipping pool and chess board. Complimentary audio headsets are available for all shore excursions. The ship has an elevator serving all passenger decks except the Sun Deck, and laundry service is available. There is no doctor aboard the ship.

The English-speaking, international crew provides warm hospitality. The M.S. AMADEUS ROYAL meets the highest safety standards and is one of the only European river ships to have been awarded the “Green Certificate” of environmental preservation.

Vienna Post-Program Option
The former seat of the Habsburg Empire and one of Europe’s most beautiful cities and vibrant cultural centers, Vienna showcases an open-air museum of splendid Baroque architecture in its historic center, a UNESCO World Heritage site. The legendary Danube River is a great symbol of diverse cultures and epic histories that have unfolded along its venerable banks. Ancient Greeks traveled up from the Black Sea through the river’s naturally carved Iron Gates, well before it became a long-standing frontier of the Roman Empire. After changing hands from the Romans, Ottomans and Byzantines, some of the world’s most enchanting capital cities were built upon its banks—Vienna, Bratislava, Belgrade and Budapest—and the river served as a historical path traveled by European dynasties like the Wittelsbach and Habsburgs. In 1854, Empress Elisabeth of Austria traversed its waters to visit her future husband, Emperor Franz Joseph I, in Vienna.

In mythical Transylvania, amidst the unparalleled natural beauty of the Carpathian Mountains, explore fairy-tale castles like Bran and Peleș, built on a medieval route that served as the scenic yet mysterious backdrop for Bram Stoker’s Dracula, one of literature’s best-loved tales. Where the river empties into the Black Sea, the incredible Danube Delta is a UNESCO World Heritage site that began to form around 4000 B.C. and is one of the last remaining protected wilderness areas in Europe. From the river’s unsurpassed natural allure emerged The Danube School, a highly expressive style of 16th-century German landscape painting. The wild beauty of the Danube valley influenced artists of this movement—its flora and fauna, flowing waters, fir trees, misty atmosphere and the glowing effects of light and weather form the subject of a great many paintings from this period.

In addition to fine art, the river remains inextricably linked to other forms of culture; its storied waters also inspired the famous melody of Johann Strauss II’s “An der Schönen blauen Donau,” or “The Blue Danube,” waltz. This captivating region of great historical and cultural significance is a seldom-visited jewel in the crown of Central and Eastern Europe, with a mystique that continues to intrigue and inspire musicians, writers, artists and travelers to come from all over the world.
