DEAR PRINCETONIAN,

Rome’s Colosseum and Pantheon. Timeless Pompeii. The birthplace of the Olympics. The Theater at Ephesus. Greek island-hopping. Hiking, swimming. Athens and the Acropolis. There is something for everyone on this multi-generational voyage to some of the seminal cities and sites of the Classical world.

Create memories of shared learning and discovery as you explore this remarkable region as a family. Grandparents, parents, and children will learn about Greek and Roman history, literature, mythology, and culture while walking among the ruins of these civilizations. Experienced youth education counselors will lead groups of similarly aged children in the Young Explorers Program and expert lecturers, including Princeton classicist Yelena Baraz, will enrich the program for adult learners.

If you have ever dreamed of introducing your children or grandchildren to the wonders of Classical antiquity and the adventure of sailing to foreign lands, now is your chance. But the delightful Corinthian II features just 57 suites. Because Princetonians will be joined on this voyage by travelers from the Smithsonian and the American Museum of Natural History, we suggest that you make your plans as soon as possible. Contact the Princeton Journeys team at (609) 258-8686 or journeys@princeton.edu.

Onboard Enrichment Program
This journey from Rome to Athens affords countless opportunities to delve into the history and myths of Greco-Roman civilization. Professor Yelena Baraz will outline the major events in the course of Rome’s transformation from a small village to a world empire. She will pay special attention to daily life—food, home furnishing, entertainment, and so on—both in the metropolis and in the provinces. Extending this focus on the everyday, Professor Kris Trego will talk about ships, shipbuilding, and navigation in the ancient world and will share with travelers the results of her work in underwater archaeology.

Princeton Study Leader
YELENA BARAZ teaches Latin language and literature at all levels at Princeton. She is largely interested in how literary texts shape, and are in turn shaped by, social and cultural forces. Her first book—to appear in the spring of 2012—is on Cicero’s philosophical works as a cultural project, while her newest work explores the meaning of pride and related concepts in Roman society. Professor Baraz will speak on a variety of aspects of Roman culture, from the philosophers of the time to daily life in ancient towns.

Additional Study Leader
KRISTINE TREGO, is an assistant professor of classics at Bucknell University who received her Ph.D. in classics from the University of Cincinnati. Kris has been working in Turkey as an underwater archaeologist with the Institute of Nautical Archaeology for the past eleven years, and her archaeological research focuses on the crews’ equipment aboard ancient Greek and Roman ships. Additionally, Kris lectures and publishes on narrative and rhetorical techniques in ancient Greek and Roman authors.

Itinerary

Thursday, June 21, 2012 • USA
Fly from the U.S. to Rome, Italy.

Friday, June 22 • ROME | CIVITAVECCHIA, Italy |
EMBARK
Arrive in Rome and transfer to Civitavecchia, the deepwater port of Rome, to embark Corinthian II. Overnight aboard docked in port. (D)

Saturday, June 23 • ROME
From a collection of huts on the banks of the Tiber, Rome became Empress of the World, the seat of Western history’s most enduring empire. On a full-day excursion, travel to Rome and see the Colosseum, the vast elliptical amphitheater dating from a.d. 70; the Pantheon, the most perfectly preserved ancient temple in Rome; and the Forum, the center of Imperial Rome for nearly 500 years. After lunch at a local restaurant, enjoy time at leisure to explore the eternal city. Return to the ship and sail. (B,L,D)

Sunday, June 24 • POMPEII or AMALFI & RAVELLO
From Salerno, an excursion leads to Pompeii, the Roman city both destroyed and preserved by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in a.d. 79. Alternatively, visit Amalfi, an 11th-century maritime city, and Ravello, a medieval hilltown with stellar views. (B,L,D)

Monday, June 25 • AT SEA
Enjoy a relaxing day at sea as we cruise toward Greece. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, June 26 • OLYMPIA, Greece
Travel to Olympia, an ancient sanctuary dedicated to Zeus and the place where the Olympic games originated. Children will compete in the original Olympic stadium. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, June 27 • KNOSSOS or IMBROS GORGE, Crete
Arrive in Crete, once home of the Minoans, Europe’s earliest developed civilization. From quaint Rethymnon, travel to Knossos and its fabled Minoan Palace, built around 4,000 years ago. It is also home to the labyrinth of the legendary Minotaur. Then spend free time to explore Rethymnon or swim at a nearby beach. Alternatively, walk part of the rugged, scenic Imbros Gorge. (B,L,D)

Thursday, June 28 • SANTORINI
In the second millennium b.c., volcanic eruptions shrouded Santorini in pumice and ash and collapsed the island into a fractured caldera. This ultimately produced Santorini’s wild, multihued beauty while sending its Minoan civilization into irreversible decline. Adults will visit the Archaeological Museum while Young Explorers board a sailboat to Nea Kameni, the island in the center of Santorini’s caldera, and ascend to the top on foot to learn about the area’s geology. (B,L,D)

Friday, June 29 • RHODES | LINDOS
The historic island of Rhodes was known in antiquity for its schools of philosophy, rhetoric, and sculpture. Today it boasts one of Europe’s largest medieval towns. Discover Old Town’s windsing streets and splendid plazas, which owe their 14th-century charm to the Crusader Knights of St. John. In the lovely village of Lindos, take a donkey ride or walk up to the acropolis, set on a cliff 400 feet above the sea, with stunning views of the village and bay below. (B,L,D)

Saturday, June 30 • KUSADASI | EPHESUS, Turkey
From Kusadasi, travel to Ephesus. Renowned as the center of worship of the mother-goddess Cybele, later known as Artemis, it was also the site where St. Paul addressed the Ephesians. Today Ephesus is on of the world’s greatest and most evocative ancient sites. (B,L,D)

Sunday, July 1 • PIRAEUS, Greece |
DISEMBARK | ATHENS
Disembark Corinthian II and transfer to Athens, a city with an incomparably dramatic and influential history. Adults tour the New Acropolis Museum while kids enjoy a youth-themed “treasure hunt” exploration of Athens. After lunch at a local taverna, explore the Acropolis, perhaps the most important ancient monument in the Western world and where our concept of democracy was born over 2,500 years ago. The ruins include the majestic Parthenon and the Erechtheion. Overnight at the Athens Plaza Hotel. (B,L,D)

Monday, July 2 • ATHENS | USA
 Transfer to the airport in Athens for return flights to the U.S. (B)
An Organized Educational Program for Children & Young Adults

Experienced youth education counselors will lead groups of similarly aged children and young adults in the Young Explorers Program, a series of educational and recreational activities designed from a child’s perspective. This is the perfect opportunity to inspire young minds with the poetry of Homer, the legends of The Iliad and The Odyssey, the ideas of Socrates, and real-life examples of great architecture.

Children will take guided shore excursions specifically created to bring to life legend and history. Or, flexibility being the key, they may also enjoy independent time to relax or explore together as a family. In addition, while adults attend lectures or enjoy free time, Young Explorers may:

- Participate in their own mock archaeological “excavation”
- Discover how ancient sailors navigated by the stars
- Visit the ship’s bridge and keep a log of their journey
- Learn about the heroes of Greek mythology
- Produce a play in the ancient Greek style for presentation at the end of the cruise
- Participate in a treasure hunt designed with an ancient cultural theme
