Trekking Mont Blanc

A three country hike

July 23 – August 2, 2018

Princeton Journeys and the Outdoor Action Program are pleased to offer active travelers the chance to explore the majesty of the Alps during the brilliant European summer. Join your fellow Princetonians and experience one of the world’s classic treks, the Mont Blanc Circuit. Alongside Outdoor Action Director Rick Curtis ’79, sample the flavors and cultures of the three different countries that share the massif: France, Italy and Switzerland. The trek is dominated by spectacular views of the premier peaks in the Alps and remarkable Mont Blanc, the highest mountain in Western Europe reaching 15,781 feet. You'll be trekking on ancient pack animal routes, over high passes and through small villages and alpine pastures with experienced mountain guides who bring the wonderful added history, geology and local color to every aspect of the trip. After vigorous days of hiking, you'll welcome the creature comforts of quaint European mountain inns and comfortable hotels — all featuring excellent mountain cuisine and local wines.

The Tour du Mont Blanc is an 11-day trip with nine vigorous days of hiking covering a 110-mile circumnavigation of the Mont Blanc massif. The trip is fit for active people who are prepared to hike five to seven hours per day with an elevation gain of between 2,000–3,000 feet per day. You will be joined by expert trip guides who are all members of the Companie des Guides de Chamonix - the oldest and biggest guide company in the world. The Mont Blanc trek is “must do” for every mountain hiker and we hope you can join this beautiful walk with its clear, clean air, dark pine forests, gleaming glaciers, soaring rocky peaks and of course, your fellow tigers!

About our Princeton Journeys Host

Rick Curtis ’79 has been the Director of the Outdoor Action Program at Princeton for the past thirty-six years. During that time the program has grown significantly with over 600 first year students and 200 student trip leaders participating in the annual Frosh Trip outdoor orientation program. Rick is an experienced backpacker, backcountry skier, and kayaker and is author of The Backpacker's Field Manual, a best-selling book on hiking and backpacking. Rick has led numerous Outdoor Action alumni trips over the past thirty years. Most recently, he participated in the successful 2012 Annapurna Sanctuary Trek in Nepal and the 2016 Torres del Paine Trek in Patagonia.

Bio Bio Expeditions World Wide, its owners, agents, outfitters, and employees give notice that they act only as agents for the said company and assume no responsibility for injury, loss or damage to person or personal property resulting from the expedition or connected activities other than through gross negligence on behalf of Bio Bio Expeditions World Wide, its owners, agents, outfitters and employees. On advancement of deposit, the depositor agrees to be bound to aforementioned terms and conditions.

Bio Bio Expeditions Inc. shall not be liable for: (a) expenses such as additional hotel nights and meals not specified in the individual trip itineraries that may be required either en route, prior to, or following a trip, when caused by individual clients’ travel arrangements, by airline scheduling or airline schedule changes, canceled flights, missed flight connections, or by other factors not under Bio Bio Expeditions control; (b) expenses incurred in recovering luggage lost by airlines, belongings left behind on a trip, or in shipping purchases or other goods home from abroad; (c) bodily injury or property damage for any reason, including but not limited to acts of God, weather, quarantines, strikes, civil disturbance, theft, default, detention, annoyance, changes in government regulations, terrorism, war, or failure of conveyance to arrive or depart as scheduled, etc., over which it has no control.

Bio Bio Expeditions Inc. reserves the right to take photographic or film records of any of our trips, and may use any such records for promotional and/or commercial purposes.

Cost of Delays: The cost of delays is not included if any trip is delayed due to bad weather, trail conditions, river levels, road conditions, transportation delays, government intervention, sickness or other contingency for which Bio Bio Expeditions or its agents cannot make provision.

Cost Increases: Trip Costs and/or Land Costs are subject to increase without prior notice, even after you have signed up on the trip. We often publish our prices more than a year in advance. Between that time and the time of the trip’s actual departure, we are occasionally faced with significant cost increases that we cannot absorb, i.e. international currency fluctuations, fuel surcharges, or increases in cost of services. We regret this situation, and we do everything we can to avoid raising prices, but sometimes it is unavoidable. We will do our best to limit such increases and will notify you at least two months before departure.

University Disclaimer: Princeton University, through its Office of Alumni Affairs and Princeton Journeys, is pleased to provide this service of facilitating travel opportunities for its Alumni and Friends. The Office of the Alumni Association strives to work with the best tour operators to make available interesting and enriching travel opportunities for the Princeton family.

Please note that the University does not conduct tours, nor does it act as an agent for guests interested in tours. Princeton Journeys acts as a facilitator with tour operators, with whom tour participants make arrangements for completing travel, and is pleased to act as a liaison with tour operators should you have any questions or concerns that may arise before, during, or after your tour. Princeton Journeys encourages you to familiarize yourself thoroughly with the tour operator’s cancellation and refund policies, and also to investigate available services such as trip cancellation insurance. The University is not responsible for changes to trips or travel arrangements or for losses or additional expenses resulting from travel.
