Morocco & the Canary Islands
Aboard the Sea Cloud II
November 3–14, 2018
With Professor of Anthropology Emeritus Lawrence Rosen
DEAR PRINCETONIAN,

Dazzling royal palaces and ancient medinas in Marrakech; Berber villages of the High Atlas Mountains; black and white sand beaches lining the isles of a Spanish archipelago: you are invited to experience them all with your fellow Princetonians on a grand voyage to Morocco and the Canary Islands. Aboard the romantic Sea Cloud II you will have the special and unique experience of sailing in tandem with the original Sea Cloud, marveling at the maneuvers of these two beautiful windjammers as they glide side-by-side through the Atlantic under full sail.

In the company of Professor Larry Rosen, begin this adventure in Marrakech, with three nights at the renowned La Mamounia hotel. Discover the cultural and culinary riches of this fabled city and the surrounding countryside with a choice of included excursions to best match your interests, then gather for a gala feast and Berber Fantasia horsemanship performance at a deluxe private tented camp to cap the Marrakech portion of your adventure.

Continue to Casablanca, where the luxurious Sea Cloud II awaits. Before embarkation, visit Hassan II Mosque—the largest in the country—and lunch at Rick's Café, a recreation of the bar made famous by Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman in their cinema classic. Once aboard ship, set sail south along the coast of Morocco and arrive in the beautiful Canaries.

On the island of Lanzarote, discover dramatic lunar landscapes and visit the open-air sculptures of renowned local artist Cesar Manrique. In Tenerife, the largest and most populous island of the archipelago, explore the beautifully preserved medieval town of La Laguna, or visit one of the world’s most important astronomical observatories, Izaña Observatory, and Teide National Park, site of the highest mountain in Spain.

For those wishing to take a deeper dive into Moroccan culture, an optional pre-tour extension to Rabat, Fes, and the Middle Atlas is available.

Princeton travelers will share this unique cruise with participants from Yale, Smith College, and the National Trust for Historic Preservation. The elegant Sea Cloud II is sure to fill quickly, so we encourage you to reserve your space today by contacting the Princeton Journeys team at (609) 258-8686 or journeys@princeton.edu.

With kind regards,

Lawrence Rosen, Professor of Anthropology Emeritus, will serve as the Princeton study leader for this program. As an anthropologist, Professor Rosen works on Arab social life and Islamic law, with long-term experience doing fieldwork in Morocco and Tunisia. As a legal scholar, he works on the rights of indigenous peoples and American socio-legal issues. His publications include Bargaining for Reality: The Construction of Social Relations in a Muslim Community (Chicago); Meaning and Order in Moroccan Society (with Clifford and Hildred Geertz; Cambridge); The Anthropology of Justice: Law as Culture in Muslim Society (Cambridge); The Justice of Islam (Oxford); The Culture of Islam (Chicago); Law as Culture: An Invitation (Princeton); Varieties of Muslim Experience (Chicago); and Two Arabs, a Berber, and a Jew: Entangled Lives in Morocco (Chicago).

Professor Rosen earned his PhD and JD from the University of Chicago and taught at Princeton University from 1977 until 2017. At Princeton he has received The President’s Distinguished Award for Teaching, The Ombudsman’s Award for Civility, The President’s Committee on the Status of Women Award, the Princeton University Women’s Organization Award, and the Graduate Mentoring Award. He continues as an adjunct professor of law at Columbia Law School and as a member of Princeton’s Institute for Advanced Study.

James Salzman, the Donald Bren Distinguished Professor of Environmental Law with joint appointments at the UCLA School of Law and at the School of the Environment at UC Santa Barbara, is an international expert on drinking water. His scholarship topics range from water to wildlife, from climate change to creating markets for ecosystems. He is an advisor to several environmental nonprofits.

Gregory White is the Mary Huggins Gamble Chair of Government at Smith College. A political scientist, he focuses on North Africa, environmental politics, and migration/refugee studies. He received a doctorate in political science and African studies from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and has held Fulbright scholarships to Tunisia and Morocco. He will discuss the impact of climate change on North Africa’s political economy and society.

John Meffert, consultant on Heritage Conservation Services, has a long tradition with the National Trust for Historic Preservation. He served as director of the Trust’s Southern Office and of the Preservation Society of Charleston, the oldest nonprofit organization in the United States.

Saturday–Sunday, November 3–4
Home / Marrakech, Morocco
Depart home on an overnight flight to Marrakech. Upon arrival, check in to the elegant La Mamounia hotel. Later, enjoy a welcome reception and dinner with musical accompaniment at Palais Soleiman.

Monday, November 5
Marrakech
Choose between two included options today. (1) Explore the hidden quarters of the Marrakech medina, evocative of the city’s medieval past, for glimpses of authentic local life—a bakery, theological school, café, and handmade crafts. Also visit the Marrakech Museum, housed in the 19th-century Dar Menebhi Palace, a representative example of Andalusian architecture featuring fountains, a central courtyard, a steam bath (hammam), and intricate tilework and carvings. Or (2) visit a selection of Marrakech’s top private museums—the Dar Tiskwin Museum with its displays of rural North African crafts; the Dar Si Said Museum in a grandiose 19th-century palace; and the exquisite Museum of Berber Culture within the exotic Majorelle Garden. Continue with a tasting tour to local food markets and stalls, Spice Square, and the bustling main square of Jemaa el Fna. After lunch, the remainder of the afternoon and evening are at leisure for independent explorations and dining.

Tuesday, November 6
Marrakech
Today offers another choice of two included options. (1) Travel into the Berber countryside in four-wheel-drive vehicles, observing breathtaking valleys, timeless villages, panoramic landscapes, and the snowcapped High Atlas Mountains. Visit the cliff-hanging village of Tizi Ouadou and the lush, green, orchard-filled valley of Ouirgane, arriving for lunch at an idyllic mountain resort set amid 25 acres of gardens. Or (2) visit a selection of Marrakech’s top private museums—the Dar Tiskwin Museum with its displays of rural North African crafts; the Dar Si Said Museum in a grandiose 19th-century palace; and the exquisite Museum of Berber Culture within the exotic Majorelle Garden. Continue with a tasting tour to local food markets and stalls, Spice Square, and the bustling main square of Jemaa el Fna. Gather this evening for a gala 1001 Nights dinner at a private tented camp set among date palms, featuring traditional cuisine, folkloric entertainment, and a thrilling 10-horsmen Berber Fantasia performance.

Wednesday, November 7
Casablanca
After a three-hour drive to Casablanca, enjoy lunch at Rick’s Café, designed to recreate the café/piano bar made famous in the movie classic Casablanca. The house pianist is accustomed to requests for “As Time Goes By” on the café’s authentic 1930s Pleyel piano. Casablanca is also well known for its Art Deco architecture, the theme of this afternoon’s panoramic city tour, which also includes a photo stop at the Hassan II Mosque, the largest mosque in Morocco, and a visit to the central food and flower market. Embark the Sea Cloud II and set sail, enjoying a welcome reception, dinner, and star-gazing under a new moon.

Thursday, November 8
At Sea
Enjoy the thrilling experience of sailing in tandem with the elegant Sea Cloud along the coast of Morocco. There will be abundant photo opportunities as the crew demonstrates rigging the ship by hand (weather permitting), and time to attend presentations by the lecture team.

Friday, November 9
Agadir
Dock in Agadir and travel through the Sous Valley to the historic market town of Taroudant, its 11th-century ramparts still mostly intact. Once a trading post for caravans coming from Saharan regions, Taroudant retains the feel of a medieval city.
with alleys shaded by reed canopies and open-air markets. Continue south to Tiout, a Berber village situated in the foothills of the Anti-Atlas Mountains, surrounded by an oasis of thousands of date palm trees. After lunch at a local restaurant, walk into the oasis to observe traditional agricultural methods and to visit a women's co-op where argan oil is processed for culinary and cosmetic purposes. SEA CLOUD II (B,L,D)

Saturday, November 10

At Sea
Relax aboard ship during a second day at sea, including sailing alongside the Sea Cloud and a continuation of the lecture series. (B,L,D)

Sunday, November 11

Lanzarote, Canary Islands, Spain
This morning arrive at the main port of Arrecife on Lanzarote in the Canary Islands, an archipelago of seven large and several smaller volcanic islands. The island’s enduring natural state of stark beauty is the legacy primarily of one man, Cesar Manrique, an internationally recognized artist who dedicated his life to achieving a balance between tourism and the authenticity of his native island. Visit his former home in Tahiche, half submerged in volcanic rock and now an art gallery and cultural center, and Jameos del Agua, a spectacularly unique fusion of volcanic geological features and art envisioned and created by Manrique. This afternoon continue cruising to Tenerife. (SEA CLOUD II (B,L,D))

Monday, November 12

Tenerife, Canary Islands
Disembark at Santa Cruz de Tenerife for a visit to the UNESCO World Heritage-designated town of San Cristóbal de La Laguna, considered one of the most picturesque towns in the Canary Islands. During a walking tour of the town, founded in the late 15th century, marvel at the astonishing number of elegant historic buildings and traditional patios dating from different eras. The ship remains in port tonight, and travelers are welcome to disembark for independent exploration after dinner. SEA CLOUD II (B,L,D)

Tuesday, November 13

Today choose from one of two included excursions. (1) Parque Nacional de Teide, a UNESCO World Heritage site, boasts the highest peak in Spain as well as fascinating geological features of basalt, pumice, and obsidian that represent nearly the entire range of volcanic formations found around the world. Learn about the park’s unique geology and plant life and meet scientific researchers who use powerful telescopes to probe the skies at Izaña Observatory. (2) Take a panoramic tour of the island, including a special wine tasting, an easy nature walk through Anaga Rural Park, and photo opportunities in picturesque historic towns. Enjoy the captain’s farewell dinner as the ship departs Tenerife. (SEA CLOUD II (B,L,D))

Wednesday, November 14

Las Palmas, Gran Canaria / Home
Disembark this morning in Las Palmas de Gran Canaria and transfer to the airport for flights home. (B)
SEA CLOUD II

Christened in 2001, the Sea Cloud II is perhaps the most luxurious three-masted sailing yacht on the seas today. Like Marjorie Merriweather Post’s legendary Sea Cloud, the Sea Cloud II combines the seafaring elegance of a bygone era with the highest modern standards of luxury. In the grand tradition of the world’s finest sailing vessels, guests experience this marvelous ship under sail (weather permitting), as the skilled crew hand-sets more than 30,000 square feet of canvas. The Sea Cloud II offers an intimate setting of just 47 beautifully appointed cabins, gracious common areas, world-class service, and five-star dining.

PROGRAM RATES INCLUDE
All accommodations, meals, and excursions as specified in the itinerary
• Full program of briefings, lectures, and presentations • Scheduled transfers on group arrival and departure days • Baggage handling • Gratuities to porters, wait staff, guides, and shipboard personnel • Entrance fees • Welcome and farewell receptions • House wine, beer, and soft drinks with all group lunches and dinners • Bottled water on motorcoaches • Professional tour manager

WHAT TO EXPECT
This is a moderately strenuous program, at times physically demanding and busy, with considerable walking at some sites. Daily activities can involve up to two miles of walking, over sometimes rough terrain; often elevators are unavailable and stairs may not have handrails. Participants should be fit and in active good health. Limited medical facilities are available on board Sea Cloud II, and there is no elevator between decks. We will be cruising in the open Atlantic, and seas can be choppy. By forwarding the deposit for passage, the participant certifies that s/he does not have any physical or other limitation that would create a hazard for her/himself or other travelers.

A NOTE ABOUT COSTS
Tour costs are based upon current fuel prices, currency values, taxes, tariffs, and a minimum number of participants. While we will do everything possible to maintain the listed prices, they are subject to change. If there are significant changes, details and costs will be advised prior to departure.

AIR ARRANGEMENTS
Valerie Wilson Travel, Inc., can help with airline arrangements for this trip and can be reached at (877) 376-1754. You are also welcome to book your air transportation through your local travel agent, an online travel site, or the airline of your choice. Please note: U.S. domestic and international airfare is not included in the program rates. Round-trip economy-class airfare from New York to Marrakech, Morocco, with return from Las Palmas, Canary Islands, is approximately $1,170 per person as of November 2017 and is subject to change without notice.
