HTTP://ALUMNI.PRINCETON.EDU/JOURNEYS
Enjoy superior animal and bird watching—from lilac-breasted rollers and regal lions to graceful leopards and curious giraffes—at Kapama Private Game Reserve.
Dear Princetonian,

Travel to South Africa to experience the diverse threads of South Africa’s history, an animal kingdom of enormous diversity, the birthplace of mankind’s earliest ancestors, the meeting place of two great oceans, and the juxtaposition of transplanted European values and indigenous tribal norms. Discover the rich history of South Africa’s oldest city, Cape Town; marvel at the beauty of the Cape Peninsula; and explore the justly acclaimed Stellenbosch wine region. Then board the luxurious Rovos Rail for a two-day journey across South Africa’s sweeping landscapes, enjoying all the comforts of the golden age of train travel: unsurpassed service, sumptuous furnishings, panoramic views of spectacular landscapes, and fine dining. Visit Kimberley, site of the first diamond discoveries in South Africa; Pretoria, South Africa’s administrative capital; and Johannesburg, where the struggles of apartheid played out so dramatically. End your adventure at Kapama Private Game Reserve for a magnificent safari experience. You may also extend your trip, if you wish, and fly to Zimbabwe to see the thundering wonder of Victoria Falls.

We are sharing this exciting program with travelers from Smith College, so space is limited. Contact the Princeton Journeys team at (609) 258-8686 or journeys@princeton.edu to reserve your place on this visual, cultural, and intellectual adventure in one of the African continent’s most intriguing countries.

Sincerely,
