Please read this information carefully, as payment of a $500 deposit per person represents your acceptance of the following Terms and Conditions. Please note: All registrants will be required to sign Princeton University’s waiver and release form.

Not included in tour price
Airfare when purchasing a land only package; costs of passports and visas; airport, port, cruise and departure taxes, which will be listed as separate items on your invoice and are subject to change; personal expenses such as beverages, laundry, room service, and meals not specified; airline baggage fees; airport transfers when purchasing a land-only package; communication charges; optional sightseeing or shore excursions; travel protection insurance.

Cancellations, refunds and changes
If you must cancel your trip, the effective date of cancellation will be upon our receipt of your written notification. Refunds for cancellations are subject to the following per person charges: Cancel 95 days or more before departure: $200 charge; Cancel 94-65 days before departure: 50% of tour price; Cancel 64-30 days before departure: 75% of tour price; Cancel 29-0 days before departure: No refund. If a guest makes any changes to their reservation from 94 to 30 days prior to departure, Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. will apply a $100 per person administrative fee, in addition to any fees or penalties imposed by third parties. Changes are subject to availability and cannot be guaranteed. If your reservation changes from double occupancy to single occupancy for any reason, you will be charged the single supplement. No changes are allowed within 30 days of departure.

Upon reservation you must provide your full legal name as it appears on your passport, your date of birth and gender. In the event an airline ticket is issued with incorrect information you have provided, you will be responsible for charges associated with the ticket’s reissue.

Responsibility
The liability of Princeton Journeys, as sponsor, and Odysseys Unlimited, Inc., as tour operator, is strictly limited. Princeton Journeys and Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. purchase transportation, hotel accommodations, restaurant and other services from independent suppliers not under our control. We serve only as agents for these suppliers in securing tour arrangements, and therefore will not accept responsibility for wrongful, negligent, or arbitrary acts or omissions of these independent contractors, their employees, agents, servants or representatives. Princeton Journeys and Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. are not liable for injury, damage, loss, accident, or delay that may be caused by events not within our control, including without limitation, acts of terrorism, war, strikes, the defect of any vehicle, or the negligence or default of any third party. All coupons, receipts, and tickets issued are subject to the terms and conditions specified by the air carriers, cruise line, and other independent suppliers.

We will make every effort to operate our tours as planned, but we reserve the right to make itinerary changes as necessary. If unforeseen circumstances require us to change a hotel, we will select alternative accommodations of the same or better quality. If you choose to make your own air arrangements, Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. shall not have any liability for any loss resulting from cancellation of this tour or changes in this tour.

Health and Medical Issues
We request that you be in fairly good health to participate in an Odysseys Unlimited tour. There is a reasonable amount of walking, and you must be able to get on and off motorcoaches and boats on your own. If you require the use of a wheelchair or have other personal needs, you must be accompanied by a companion who will assist you. We reserve the right to remove anyone whose physical or mental condition, in our opinion, compromises the operation of the tour or detracts from the enjoyment or safety of the other passengers. In that event, Odysseys Unlimited assumes no financial responsibility for any unused portion of the tour. As a service to its travelers, the Office of the Alumni Association of Princeton University automatically provides all travelers basic medical and evacuation coverage under a group travel insurance policy. It is highly recommended that you supplement this basic protection with your own additional coverage, as well as trip cancellation/interruption or baggage coverage. Information on additional insurance is available and will be mailed upon receipt of your reservation.

An Exclusive Tour for Princeton Alumni & Friends
Featuring Professor Mario Zucconi
Turkey and the Turquoise Coast

15 days from $4,675 — air, land & cruise inclusive

Exotic sights, scents, and sounds reign in this fascinating land where Europe and Asia meet. From Istanbul, magnificent “Empress of the World,” to ancient ruins, stunning landscapes, and the dramatic Turquoise Coast to board a privately chartered yacht for a distinctive four-day voyage, Turkey engages and beguiles, offering an unparalleled small group travel experience.

Monday, August 29, 2011
Day 1: Depart U.S. for Istanbul, Turkey

Tuesday, August 30, 2011
Day 2: Arrive Istanbul
Arrive in Turkey’s cultural and spiritual heart late this morning and transfer to your hotel. After time to relax, and a briefing on the journey, take a short walking tour. Tonight enjoy an authentic Turkish dinner at a local restaurant. D

Wednesday, August 31, 2011
Day 3: Istanbul
Here where the waters of the Marmara, Bosphorus, and Golden Horn meet, Europe greets Asia; past and present collide. Taste Istanbul’s allure on a full-day tour that includes the Roman Hippodrome, the Blue Mosque, and Hagia Sofia. After lunch at a local restaurant, tour splendid Topkapi, medieval palace of sultans that today is one of the world’s richest museums. B,L

Thursday, September 1, 2011
Day 4: Istanbul
This morning encounter the vast Grand Bazaar, housing 4,000 shops selling goods of all kinds; and the Spice Market, with exotic spices, nuts, and dried fruits from around the world. Next: a visit to the renowned Museum of Turkish & Islamic Art, housed in a restored palace. Then take a private cruise on the Bosphorus Strait, the waterway that separates Europe from Asia. Stop in the village of Ortaköy, known for its trendy art scene, cafés, and boutiques. There’s time to have lunch on your own before returning to your hotel mid-afternoon. B

Friday, September 2, 2011
Day 5: Istanbul/Gallipoli/Troy/Assos
Leaving Istanbul this morning, travel to the northern Aegean Coast for a brief visit to Gallipoli, haunting site of 31 Allied cemeteries from World War I. Then ferry across the Dardanelles to Troy, whose present site was discovered in the 1870s. After touring here, continue south to Behramkale, ancient Assos, for an overnight stay. \textit{B,L,D}

\textbf{Saturday, September 3, 2011}
\textbf{Day 6: Assos/Pergamum/Izmir}  Today explore one of Turkey’s most spectacular ancient sites: windswept Pergamum, a major power in the 3rd and 2nd centuries BC, with a wealth of Hellenistic ruins. Then continue on to Izmir. \textit{B,L,D}

\textbf{Sunday, September 4, 2011}
\textbf{Day 7: Izmir/Ephesus}  Few ancient sites compare to Ephesus, which the group explores today. Dating to at least 1300 BC, Ephesus was Asia Minor’s largest metropolis and principal port. We also visit the acclaimed Ephesus Archaeological Museum housing relics from the ancient site, then enjoy lunch in the rustic village of Sirince. \textit{B,L}

\textbf{Monday, September 5, 2011}
\textbf{Day 8: Izmir/Göcek}  Today journey south to coastal Göcek, stopping along the way at a carpet factory to watch a demonstration of this age-old craft. In the late afternoon reach Göcek and board \textit{gulets} for the first night on board. \textit{B,L,D}

\textbf{Tuesday, September 6, 2011}
\textbf{Day 9: Cruising – Aga Limani/Cleopatra Baths}  The route for the next few days is along the stunning coastline Antony is said to have given Cleopatra as a wedding gift. Begin the “Blue Voyage” this morning by cruising to the hidden cove of Aga Limani. From here one can opt to take a three-hour hike to the Greco-Roman ruins at Lydea, ending at the Sunken Baths of Cleopatra. Set in a breathtaking inlet, the Baths offer crystal-clear waters for swimming and snorkeling. Those who prefer a less strenuous day can stay aboard the \textit{gulets} as they sail to the Sunken Baths. \textit{B,L,D}

\textbf{Wednesday, September 7, 2011}
\textbf{Day 10: Cruising – Ekincik Cove/Dalyan}  This morning we disembark and drive to Dalyan, an environmentally protected area known for its loggerhead sea turtles. Here board a small skiff for a trip through a maze of channels; high on the hills above one can see well-preserved ancient Lycian rock tombs. After lunch drive back to the \textit{gulets} for a relaxing afternoon in this stunning setting. \textit{B,L,D}

\textbf{Thursday, September 8, 2011}
\textbf{Day 11: Cruising – Gemiler Island/Kayakoy}  Today cruise to Gemiler Island to tour its 6th-century Byzantine monastery. After lunch drive to the Greek “ghost town” of Kayakoy, which was abandoned after World War I and is now

\textbf{Post-Tour Extension: September 12-16, 2011}
\textbf{CAPPADOCIA \& ANKARA}  \textbf{5 days/4 nights for $895}  \textbf{Single Supplement: $195}

Explore the bizarre rock formations and underground cities of Cappadocia and the Goreme Valley; and also tour Ankara, Turkey’s capital.

\textbf{Your Tour Price Includes} preserved as a historical monument. Explore the town and its churches then return to the gulets for a final night on board. B,L,D

Friday, September 9, 2011
Day 12: Fethiye/Demre/Myra/Antalya
This morning have a short cruise to Fethiye, disembark, bid farewell to the crew, and begin the drive to Antalya. Along the way visit Demre to tour the striking Roman ruins at nearby Myra and visit the 12th-century Church of Saint Nicholas. After lunch in Demre continue the drive along the Turquoise Coast to the resort town of Antalya. B,L,D

Saturday, September 10, 2011
Day 13: Antalya
On a walking tour, encounter highlights of Antalya’s charming Old Town, including the extravagantly carved Hadrian’s Gate and the lovely Yivli Minare (fluted minaret). After a visit to the Archaeological Museum, this afternoon is at leisure. Tonight enjoy dinner at a local restaurant. B,D

Sunday, September 11, 2011
Day 14: Antalya/Perge/Aspendos
This morning visit the ruins at ancient Perge, which reached its apex during the reign of Alexander the Great. Continue on to Aspendos, whose huge theater is considered among the best preserved in all of antiquity. This afternoon is at leisure before the group gathers for a farewell dinner this evening. B, D

Monday, September 12, 2011
Day 15: Depart for U.S. Board early flights to return to the United States. B

Meet Your Princeton Study Leader
Professor Mario Zucconi will serve as the Princeton Study Leader for this program. A visiting professor and lecturer at Princeton University’s Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs since 2003, Professor Zucconi is interested in European-American relations and in the European Union’s soft, transformative power. For many years he has focused on the evolution of Turkish politics in connection with the accession process to the European Union. He is currently writing a book on Turkey-European Union relations. During our journey, he will be available to discuss a number of topics such as the evolution of Turkish politics, Turkey’s relations with the EU and the US, and Turkey as a rising international actor.

Dear Princetonian,

Back by popular demand is our exclusive Princeton Journeys program to Turkey! Turkey has long been a crossroad of cultures, safeguarding historic treasures from thirteen successive civilizations spanning 10,000 years. With such a magnificent history, gorgeous land and seascapes, and a modern society rich with food, song, and story, it is the perfect place for a getaway.

While exploring the architectural and cultural riches of Istanbul, the fabled ruins of ancient Troy, and the spectacularly-preserved Ephesus, Princeton travelers will also have the opportunity to put Turkey in contemporary context. Professor Mario Zucconi from Princeton’s Woodrow Wilson School will talk about Turkey today, particularly its pivotal place in regional politics, its relationship with the U.S. and the E.U., and its role on the international stage.

In addition to receiving expert academic leadership, Princeton Journeys travelers benefit from a number of other inclusions—all site fees and gratuities, basic international medical insurance, and a few Princeton touches along the way. At the time chosen for our group’s departure, the weather should be perfect, with warm seas and pleasant breezes. As space is strictly limited to 28 guests, act now to reserve your space. Contact the Princeton Journeys team at (609) 258-8686 or journeys@princeton.edu for more information.

Sincerely,

Margaret M. Miller ’80
