VOYAGE TO THE ANCIENT EMPIRES

Rome • Pompeii • Amalfi Coast
Isle of Capri • Sicily • Malta

aboard the Exclusively Chartered, Newly Launched, Five-Star LE BOUGAINVILLE

September 26 to October 4, 2019
Featuring Andrew Feldherr
Professor of Classics, Princeton University
Dear Princetonian,

Experience the timeless allure of Italy, Sicily and Malta, where an intriguing mélange of cultures flourished under the influence of powerful empires. On this specially designed itinerary, explore storied villages and resplendent shores, which embody the exquisite charm of the coastal Mediterranean and where the imprint of ancient civilizations awaits your discovery.

Cruise among historic islands aboard the exclusively chartered, state-of-the-art, Five-Star Le Bougainville, to be launched in 2019. Le Bougainville features the deluxe and exclusive Blue Eye, the world’s first multisensory underwater lounge. With only 92 Suites and Staterooms, this elegant small ship cruises into ports inaccessible to larger vessels.

This outstanding itinerary takes you from Rome, Italy, to Valletta, Malta, along two of Europe’s most dramatic coastlines, through the fabled Strait of Messina and the Tyrrhenian and Mediterranean Seas. En route, visit seven impressive UNESCO World Heritage sites, marvel at Italy’s stunning Amalfi Coast and enjoy the colorful seaside towns of Positano and Sorrento. Gain intimate insight into the Roman way of life in A.D. 79 at the superbly excavated site of Pompeii and visit the legendary Isle of Capri. Discover Sicily’s storied town of Taormina in the shadow of Mount Etna; the legendary city of Syracuse, once the most powerful city of the ancient Greek world and today an open-air museum of monumental antiquities; and Agrigento’s unforgettable Valley of the Temples. Experience the rich history of Malta, the island nation where St. Paul the Apostle was shipwrecked, and that the Order of the Knights of St. John, Caravaggio, Sir Walter Scott and Queen Elizabeth II once called home.

Our Study Leader, Andrew Feldherr, Professor of Classics, will be joined by lecturers from the Smithsonian Institute and the National Trust for Historic Preservation. Onboard this team will deliver talks to further illuminate these ancient cities, medieval ports and scenic landscapes—once coveted territories of the world’s most powerful empires.

This cruise itinerary visits several of the most sought-after locations in the world—providing a captivating and unforgettable experience. Reserve now while space is available!

With kind regards,

Study Leader
Professor of Classics, Andrew Feldherr, ’85, works on Latin Literature, with a particular interest in historiography and the poetry of the Augustan period. His first book, Spectacle and Society in Livy’s History, argued that Livy’s manipulation of viewers’ perspectives in his representation of the Roman past tapped into the political and religious power of spectacle in contemporary Roman society. Playing Gods: Ovid’s Metamorphoses and the Politics of Fiction examined the role of fictionality in the poem in light of other cultural discourses, especially in the visual arts. Feldherr is also the Editor of The Cambridge Companion to the Roman Historians. On this journey, Feldherr will help travelers uncover the impact of the Roman Empire on each site visited.
The ancient coasts on this itinerary are considered by many to be the most alluring shorelines in the world, where centuries-old ruins beckon you into the ancient past and sparkling turquoise waters ensconce pastel-hued villages. Each destination in Italy, Sicily and Malta reveals an intriguing history and distinct character—attracting explorers, artists, architects and powerful rulers for generations. A seemingly endless roll call of empires is etched into every incomparable landscape and extraordinary architectural triumph; it is a rare opportunity to see and experience the diverse cultural legacies of the Italians, Greeks, Goths, Moors, Normans, Castilians, Turks, Jesuits, Spanish and French as they come to life amongst timeless natural beauty. Fall under the enchantment of the history-laden lands—from Pompeii to Capri to Syracuse—as they captivate you with their unforgettable traditions, tales and legends.

Thursday, September 26
Depart from the U.S.

Rome, Italy/Civitavecchia
Friday, September 27
Arrive in the former seat of the Roman Empire, UNESCO World Heritage-designated Rome, today the historic heart of Italy. From the Colosseum and the Vatican to the Spanish Steps and the Catacombs, ancient Rome continues to amaze modern visitors. Embark the Five-Star Le Bougainville in Civitavecchia.

Sorrento for Pompeii
Saturday, September 28
Dock in quaint Sorrento, an outpost of the ancient Roman Republic and the scenic gateway to Mt. Vesuvius and Pompeii. This seaside town of rose-flushed buildings was built into picturesque cliffs high above the Tyrrhenian Sea and, as the world’s limoncello capital, is abundant with fragrant lemon and orange groves. Continue to Pompeii, which was engulfed by the tephra of Mt. Vesuvius in A.D. 79, rendering the city frozen in time. Discovered and excavated 17 centuries after petrification, the incredible UNESCO World Heritage-designated ruins intimately reveal Roman daily rituals during Emperor Titus’s reign. On your walking tour, see the wealthy Vetti family estate and the extraordinary amphitheater and Temple of Jupiter. Enjoy the Captain’s Welcome Reception on board this evening.

Sorrento for Amalfi Coast/Isle of Capri
Sunday, September 29
Admire the natural splendor of the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Amalfi Coast, and experience the charm of the Mediterranean seaside with secluded villages, opulent villas and sun-drenched beaches.

Cover photo: Visit Taormina’s Roman theater, which exemplifies the ancient Greek belief that a city’s key sites should complement its nature.

Photo this page: Experience the iconic Amalfi Coast corniche road, winding along the cliffs and hillsides, weaving through quaint villages and picturesque landscapes.
Explore winding, cliffside streets on your own in the delightful, coastal village of Positano—frequented by Picasso, Toscanini and Bernstein, and popularized by John Steinbeck.

Enjoy the afternoon at leisure in captivating Capri, the island where, legend has it, Homer’s Odysseus resisted the enticing call of the sirens; or cruise around the island by small boat, savoring views of translucent waters, luminous grottos and the craggy coastline.

Naxos for Taormina, Sicily

Monday, September 30

Be on deck this morning to view the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Aeolian Island of Stromboli, the “Lighthouse of the Mediterranean”—a volcano mildly active for more than two millennia.

From charming Taormina, the medieval center of Sicilian culture and commerce, enjoy stunning panoramas of the Calabria coastline and snowcapped Mt. Etna, Europe’s highest volcano and a UNESCO World Heritage site. Tour the remarkably preserved third-century B.C. Greco-Roman theater, still in use today. See the 14th-century Gothic-Catalan-style Corvaia Palace; the Roman Odeon, the “small theater” built in 21 B.C.; and see the medieval Baroque portal of the Cathedral of St. Nicola. Stroll along Taormina’s distinctively Mediterranean pedestrian-friendly thoroughfare, Corso Umberto.

Syracuse

Tuesday, October 1

Extolled for its grandeur and importance by Cicero, enchanting Syracuse reached its zenith of influence as an intellectual milieu under Dionysius the Elder 350 years after Greek colonists first settled there in 734 B.C.

Admire St. John’s Co-Cathedral, a masterpiece of Baroque artistry, inlaid with the crests of the Knights of St. John.
Today, this UNESCO World Heritage site is an open-air museum of well-preserved classical monuments. Visit the storied Greek Theater, where Aeschylus once spoke to ancient Siracusans, still in use today; the Roman Amphitheater, where gladiators competed for the crowds; the Altar of Hieron II; the limestone Ear of Dionysius cave; and the impressive Archaeological Museum.

Wander the hallowed small island of Ortygia, Syracuse’s maritime heart, where the most ancient Doric temple in Sicily, the sixth-century B.C. Temple of Apollo, stands in the remains of Piazza Pancali. The city’s Baroque cathedral incorporates the ruins of a fifth-century B.C. temple dedicated to the goddess Athena, where one can admire the unique baptismal font, an ancient Greek marble krater (large vase) dating from the 13th century. The landmark Piazza Archimede showcases the dazzling, Baroque-style Fountain of Diana, adorned with rearing horses, charging tritons and maternal sea nymphs.

Porto Empedocle for Agrigento
Wednesday, October 2
Classical Greek architecture is showcased in Agrigento’s UNESCO World Heritage-designated Valle dei Templi (Valley of the Temples). Here, the landscape features eight Doric shrines dating from the fifth century B.C., including the Temple of Hera, with its graceful northern colonnade; and the Temple of Concordia, said to be one of the most beautifully preserved Greek monuments still standing. See the temples honoring Zeus and Heracles and the Sanctuary of the Chthonic Divinities—mythological gods of Earth and the underworld. Visit the Agrigento Archaeological Museum, arguably Sicily’s finest collection of Greek, Etruscan, Phoenician, Carthaginian and Roman artifacts.

Valletta, Malta
Thursday, October 3
Cruise to the picturesque bay of Valletta, the “Fortress City.” Founded in 1566 by the Knights of St. John, this UNESCO World Heritage site is one of the world’s earliest planned cities. Malta has held a strong connection to Italy and Sicily since A.D. 60, when a shipwrecked St. Paul brought Christianity by happenstance to the tiny archipelago. Today, this 2018 European Capital of Culture showcases incredible high Baroque, neoclassical and modern architecture, from the 16th century onward.

Visit the ornate 16th-century St. John’s Co-Cathedral, featuring masterpieces such as Caravaggio’s The Beheading of Saint John the Baptist and Flemish tapestries designed by Sir Peter Paul Rubens. Tour the colonnaded Lower Barrakka Gardens, and enjoy unforgettable vistas of Valletta’s Grand Harbor and the Grand Master’s Palace. A member of the de Piro family of Maltese nobility leads your private tour through the 430-year-old Casa Rocca Piccola, the family’s ancestral home and a display of historical Maltese aristocracy. Attend the Captain’s Farewell Reception this evening.

Valletta/U.S.
Friday, October 4
Disembark and continue on the Timeless Malta Post-Cruise Option or transfer to the airport for your flight home.

View the three rock outcroppings of Faraglioni, one of Capri’s most legendary sites, as you cruise around the island by small boat during leisure time.
Introducing the extraordinary Blue Eye, the world’s first multisensory, underwater observation lounge. View the beauty of marine life through the large, subaquatic windows and integrated digital screens providing live images from underwater cameras, and enjoy the sensory experience of listening to the ocean’s unique underwater universe in the comfort of the exclusive Blue Eye lounge.

Blue Eye - The World's First Luxury Underwater Observatory!

Luxury Small Ship, Innovative Design

Le Bougainville, launching in 2019, ushers in a new generation of Five-Star small ships, combining revolutionary design and a new standard of luxury for unparalleled cruising. Dock in smaller ports inaccessible to larger ships and where authentic cultural experiences and majestic scenery await you.

Respect for the Environment

The newest addition to the Ponant “clean ship” fleet, an important environmental certification among ocean-cruising vessels, Le Bougainville is energy efficient and eco-friendly, protecting fragile marine ecosystems while providing a safe and comfortable voyage.

Chic and Casual Dining

Dine indoors or alfresco on international and regional cuisine served in the stylish, spacious indoor-outdoor restaurant, at the casual pool deck grill or from 24-hour room service. Daily meals include continental and buffet breakfasts, buffet lunch, afternoon tea and four-course dinner.

92 Elegant Suites and Staterooms, 100% with Private Balconies

Each Five-Star Stateroom and Suite (up to 484 square feet) features a private balcony. Grand Deluxe Suites have a bay window and spacious private terrace. Accommodations offer two twin beds or one queen bed, private bathroom with shower, individual climate control and luxurious hotel amenities.

Life on Board

Enjoy sweeping views from the lounges, which open to the outdoors and lectures, cultural performances or film screenings in the state-of-the-art theater. Relax in the spa and sauna, or the Sun Deck’s infinity-style swimming pool. There is a beauty salon, fitness room and there are three elevators. Complimentary Wi-Fi is available throughout the ship.

World-Class Service

The highly trained, English-speaking crew are personable and attentive, and the ship has a medical center staffed with a doctor and nurse.

Tour Rome’s Colosseum, built in A.D. 70.

Eternal Rome
Pre-Cruise Option
Capital of the ancient Roman Empire and a UNESCO World Heritage site, the “Eternal City” of Rome showcases centuries as a nucleus of culture, religion and political power through its spectacular ancient landmarks. Visit the iconic Colosseum, the historic Roman Forum and the fifth-century Church of St. Peter in Chains, which houses Michelangelo’s famed sculpture of Moses. Enjoy a tour of remarkable St. Peter’s Basilica and walk through the opulent Vatican Museums, including the famous Sistine Chapel, featuring Michelangelo’s awe-inspiring ceiling frescoes. Accommodations are for three nights in the deluxe Westin Excelsior Rome, ideally located within walking distance of the grand Via Veneto, one of the most elegant streets in all of Rome.

Timeless Malta
Post-Cruise Option
The extraordinary island of Malta is referred to as “one of the most concentrated historic areas in the world.” Walk the medieval streets of the beautifully preserved walled town of Mdina, where settlement pre-dates 4000 B.C., and admire its extraordinary Baroque-style architecture. Experience Malta’s fabled Blue Grotto (weather permitting), a sea cave illuminated by the brilliant blue reflection of glistening sunlight. Visit the underground Lascaris War Rooms, where General Eisenhower directed the invasion of Sicily during World War II’s American-led “Operation Husky.” Tour the opulent interiors and magnificent gardens of the family-owned, 18th-century Palazzo Parisio, known as a “miniature Versailles.” Accommodations for two nights are in the Five-Star Grand Hotel Excelsior Malta.

The Pre- and Post-Cruise Options are available at additional cost. Details will be provided with your reservation confirmation.
LE BOUGAINVILLE has been specially contracted for this tour, and the applicable deck plan is available on request from Gohagan & Company and reflects the only valid cabin categorization of the vessel.
