

Exhibits and Programs

Art Museum

The Princeton University Art Museum, founded in 1882, is one of the finest art museums in the country. Its collection features more than 68,000 objects ranging from ancient to contemporary art, and encompassing geographically the Mediterranean regions, Western Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Americas. The following special exhibitions will be on view during Reunions: “57 Collects: A Fiftieth Anniversary Celebration;” “Treasures from Olana: Landscapes by Frederic Edwin Church;” “Pop Art at Princeton: Permanent and Promised.”

The museum hours are Tuesday - Saturday, 10:00 AM - 5:00 PM, and Sunday, 1:00 PM - 5:00 PM. Please remember to visit the Museum Shop while you are here for a wonderful selection of gifts. The shop is open to the public free of charge during museum hours, listed above.

Cotsen Children's Library Exhibits

The Cotsen Children's Library is located to the right as you enter Firestone Library. Families are invited to stop by to relax and read in our public gallery for children. Additionally, we invite you to view our current exhibit, “Are We There Yet?: Vacation Destinations in Children’s Books,” which features colorful and engaging items from Cotsen’s collections. Cotsen Children's Library is open from 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM during Reunions.

Firestone Library Galleries

Enjoy gallery exhibitions sponsored by the Friends of the Princeton University Library: “To the Mountains of the Moon: Mapping African Exploration, 1541-1880” in the Main Exhibition Gallery and “Boris Godunov: Pushkin, Prokofiev, Meyerhold” in the Leonard L. Milberg Gallery for the Graphic Arts. Firestone Library is open from 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM during Reunions.

Outdoor Action

Outdoor Action, Princeton’s outdoor education program, is offering a variety of activities for alumni and their families, including canoeing trips and beginning kayaking classes on Lake Carnegie, and rock climbing at the indoor OA Climbing Wall. ### Sculptures by Joseph Brown: “Celebrating the Harmony of Sculpture and Education”

This exhibit features the sculptures of Princeton University Professor Joseph Brown ~ Teacher, Coach and Friend. The exhibit represents Joseph Brown’s career from his early years, his time at Princeton from 1937 to 1977, and his time after Princeton up until his death in 1985. On display will be some of his most noted sculptures: Monument to Freedom of Expression (1951), Jesse Owens (1942), Boxers (1943), the models for his 16-foot Veterans Stadium sculptures (1970-1975) along with his many athletic figures, female figures, clown figures, portrait busts, and medallions. Even if you have never had the opportunity to meet Joseph Brown or know him personally, as a faculty member of Princeton, he represents a wonderful part of Princeton's history. Make it a point to stop by and be amazed at the magnificent sculptures created by Joseph Brown. Friday and Saturday, 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM. Dillon Gymnasium Library.

University Archives

All are welcome to view the exhibit, “Tune Every Harp and Every Voice,” a display including photographs, sheet music, posters and musical instruments drawn from the Princeton University Archives that documents Princeton’s instrumental and vocal groups from the mid-19th through 20th centuries. The Classes of 1952 and 1987 are honored in a special display commemorating their respective years on campus. Thursday and Friday, 9:00 AM - 4:45 PM; Saturday, 9:00 AM - 1:00 PM. Seeley G. Mudd Manuscript Library (behind Elm Club).
