CONSTITUTION OF PRINCETON CLASS OF 1946

Article I Name

The name of this Organization shall be "Princeton Class of 1946," hereinafter referred to as the Class.

Article II Membership

All men who are listed officially by Princeton University as being in the Class of 1946 shall be members of the Class, together with such honorary members as may be elected by the vote of a majority of the Class at any annual meeting.

Article III Officers

1. The officers of the Class shall consist of a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

2. Candidates for the office of President shall be the five, and candidates for the offices of Secretary and Treasurer respectively shall be the three men receiving the highest number of votes within a reasonable time from a mailing of ballots for nomination purposes to all members of the Class.

3. The President, Secretary and Treasurer shall be the men respectively receiving the highest number of votes of the ballots received within a reasonable time from the mailing of ballots for such purposes to all members of the Class. The Vice-President shall be the man receiving the second highest number of votes for President. The original four Class officers elected in December 1946 shall hold office retroactively from June 23, 1946 until the Sunday of reunion week of the Class's fifth reunion in 1951. Previous to that date an election shall be held as specified herein for new officers, and henceforth from that date the officers shall hold office commencing Sunday of reunion week of the year of election for a term of five years or until their successors are appointed. Ballots shall be counted by such members of the Executive Committee not candidates as shall be appointed for that purpose together with any other members not candidates so appointed.

4. The duties and powers of the officers shall be as follows, namely:

   a. In general, as to all officers:
      (1) To be a member of the Executive Committee.
      (2) To represent the Class on appropriate occasions.
      (3) To perform all the duties attendant on each such office respectively whether or not specifically set forth in this Constitution.

   b. President:
      (1) To preside at all Class meetings and meetings of the Executive Committee.
      (2) To give such authorizations and approvals and make such determinations as are hereinafter in this Constitution provided.

   c. Vice-President:
      (1) To act in the place of the President in his absence or incapacity.
      (2) To perform such other duties as may be delegated to him.

   d. Secretary:
      (1) To keep or supervise all records of the Class, including the supervision of records kept by any other person given duties by this Constitution.
      (2) To provide regular Class notes for the Princeton Alumni Weekly and send out such newsletters or other class communications as may be appropriate including mailing of ballots.
      (3) To keep the minutes of all meetings of the Class and of the Executive Committee.
e. Treasurer:
   (1) To be responsible for all general Class assets.
   (2) To raise necessary Class funds by dues (which must be optional) or by any other means.
   (3) To sign all checks on the Class bank account and pay all bills of the Class.
   (4) To render detailed financial reports to the Executive Committee
        as required by such Committee.
   (5) To open a Class bank account in any bank upon the written authorization of any other two officers of the Class.
   (6) To deposit with or without interest and to invest and reinvest the assets of the Class in any investment or reinvestment which shall be first approved unanimously at any meeting of the Executive Committee.

5. Anything hereinbefore or hereinafter contained to the contrary notwithstanding, the authorization or approval of determination of any Class officer shall not be required when such officer is without the United States at the time such authorization, approval or determination would otherwise be required under this Constitution.

Article IV Executive Committee

1. The Executive Committee shall consist, in addition to the Class officers, of nine men who shall be appointed by the Class officers to serve for three years.
   There shall be annual rotation of three of such men.

2. The Executive Committee shall have general supervision over the conduct and business of the Class and shall by majority vote of a quorum appoint to serve as it shall determine, to perform the following duties and render such reports as the Executive Committee shall require, the following Class representatives with such assistants as the Executive Committee shall determine, namely:
   a. Class officers when any office shall for any cause be vacant, to serve for the balance of the term of any such ex-officer or until a general election for such office shall be held.
   b. Representatives of a Class Council which shall consist in addition to the members of the Executive Committee of not less than 11 members geographically representative of the Class and which shall act in general in an advisory capacity to the Executive Committee and shall afford general assistance in all Class concerns, members thereof being empowered to attend in such capacity any Executive Committee meeting.
   c. Class Reunion Chairman, who shall have general charge of all Class meetings formal or informal, raising of necessary funds therefor, and banking and disbursement of such funds.
   d. Class Agent for Annual Giving, who shall have charge of raising funds for Alumni Giving and records of the Class in connection therewith.
   e. Class Memorial Insurance Agent, who shall have charge of the Class Memorial Insurance records, the payment of premiums for such insurance and the determination by the Class of the disposition of the proceeds of such insurance.
   f. Class Memorial Agent, who shall have charge of all Class memorials and the raising of necessary funds therefore with the exception of Class Memorial Insurance, of the disbursement of such funds but only with the approval of a majority vote of a quorum of the Executive Committee, of the laying of the Class wreath at the appropriate ceremonies at Princeton University and of the preparation in conjunction with the Class Secretary of individual memorials for publication in the Princeton Alumni Weekly.
   g. Class Representatives on the Undergraduate Council and on any other appropriate undergraduate body.
h. A representative on the Graduate Council.
i. Such other agents or committees as it shall deem appropriate.

3. The Executive Committee shall hold such meetings as the Class Officers shall authorize but not less than two annually, and five shall be a quorum at any such meeting.

Article V Class Meetings

1. The Class as a whole, when consonant with the Policy of Princeton University, shall hold meetings during Reunion Week at Princeton University, at such place as the President and Reunion Chairman shall determine.

2. The undergraduate members of the Class shall hold meetings at any time and at such times and places as the President or a representative appointed by him for that purpose shall determine.

3. The members present at any such meeting shall constitute a quorum.

Article VI Adoption and Amendment

1. This Constitution shall be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the ballots of members received on or before a date two weeks after the mailing of such ballots.

2. This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any annual meeting.

3. Amendments shall be proposed to the Executive Committee and voted on by the Class only when approval for such a vote is given by such Committee.
