CONSTITUTION OF PRINCETON UNIVERSITY CLASS OF 1950

Article I Name
Princeton University Class of 1950, herein "Class."

Article II Membership
"Class Members" are men listed by Princeton University as comprising its Class of 1950. "Class Associates" are widows of Class Members. "Class Spouses" are spouses of Class Members. "Honorary Members" are named by the Executive Committee.

Article III Purpose
To further the interests of the Class and Princeton University.

Article IV Officers
1. Class Officers are the President, Vice President, Vice President–Annual Giving, Secretary, and Treasurer, all holding office from Sunday of the Class Major Reunion week for a term of five years. The President and Vice President are Class Members. Class Members, Associates and Spouses are eligible for election to other offices.

2. Class Officers represent the Class on appropriate occasions, perform the duties attending their office, and render reports when required.

3. The President presides at Class and Executive Committee meetings, gives authorizations and approvals, and makes appointments.

4. The Vice President acts in the President’s place, and performs other needed duties.

5. The Vice President–Annual Giving is Class liaison to the University Annual Giving Office, and conducts solicitations for Annual Giving gifts.

6. The Secretary keeps Class records, provides Class Notes and Memorials for the Princeton Alumni Weekly, and sends out notifications.

7. The Treasurer manages Class assets, maintains bank accounts, collects dues and other monies and, with Executive Committee approval, pays bills and makes loans.

Article V Elections
Class Officers are elected in calendar years ending in zero and five. Except as stated, the Executive Committee determines election procedures. A nominating committee appointed by the President submits a slate of officer nominations which is published in the Princeton Alumni Weekly together with a notice inviting nominating petitions. If no nominating petition is received, the officers named in the slate of officer nominations are elected. If one or more nominating petitions are submitted, election ballots are prepared, sent, tallied, and officers are elected. If a Class Officer is unable to serve out a term, the Executive Committee appoints a new officer to serve until a successor is elected.

Article VI Executive Committee
The Executive Committee consists of Class Officers, and other Class Members, Associates and Spouses appointed by the President. It has general supervision of Class business by a majority vote of members attending meetings called by the President and attended by members in person or by electronic means.

Article VII Class Meetings
Class meetings are called by the President.

Article VIII Amendment
Constitution amendment is by a two-thirds affirmative vote of those voting in a procedure determined by the Executive Committee.

Article IX Dissolution
The Executive Committee decides when dissolution of the Class is appropriate and the procedure to be used. After all debts are paid, the remaining Class assets are transferred to Princeton University to be used in the manner it determines.

Article X Adopted
September 2009

—End—