ARTICLE I

The Executive Committee shall consist of all those members or a quorum thereof who shall be appointed by the Executive Committee and members thereof.

ARTICLE II

The President shall, at all times, have the power to appoint a quorum of the Executive Committee to act at any time when the number of members of the Executive Committee is not sufficient to hold a regular meeting.

ARTICLE III

The Executive Committee shall consist of not less than three members.

ARTICLE IV

The Executive Committee shall have the power to adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the affairs of the organization.

ARTICLE V

The Executive Committee shall have the power to authorize the appointment of such officers as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the affairs of the organization.

ARTICLE VI

The Executive Committee shall have the power to provide for the proper conduct of the affairs of the organization.

ARTICLE VII

The President shall, at all times, have the power to appoint a quorum of the Executive Committee to act at any time when the number of members of the Executive Committee is not sufficient to hold a regular meeting.

ARTICLE VIII

The Executive Committee shall consist of not less than three members.

ARTICLE IX

The Executive Committee shall have the power to adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the affairs of the organization.

ARTICLE X

The Executive Committee shall have the power to authorize the appointment of such officers as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the affairs of the organization.

ARTICLE XI

The Executive Committee shall have the power to provide for the proper conduct of the affairs of the organization.
ARTICLE VI

The President, the Provost, the Executive Committee, and the Board of Trustees shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE VII

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE VIII

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE IX

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE X

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE XI

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE XII

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE XIII

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE XIV

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE XV

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE XVI

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE XVII

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE XVIII

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE XIX

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.

ARTICLE XX

The President, the Provost, and the Executive Committee shall have the power to approve any change in the Constitution of the University, and to amend the Constitution, by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, or in a written vote by two-thirds of the entire body.