Constitution of the Class of 1966

Article I

The name of this organization shall be "Princeton University Class of 1966," hereinafter referred to as the class.

Article II

All men who are listed officially by Princeton University as being in the Class of 1966 shall be members of the class, together with such honorary members as may be elected by the vote of a majority of those class members who return ballots from a general class meeting.

Article III

1. The officers of the class shall consist of a president, a vice-president, a secretary and a treasurer.

2. Candidates for class office shall be nominated by the class executive committee. Petitions bearing the signatures of 25 members of the class will be accepted as a nomination. There shall be 3 or more nominations for the office of president, and 2 or more for the offices of Secretary and Treasurer respectively.

3. The president, secretary and treasurer shall be the men respectively receiving the highest number of votes of the ballots received within a reasonable time from a mailing of ballots for such purposes to all members of the class. The vice-president shall be the man receiving the second highest number of votes for president. The officers shall hold office commencing Sunday of reunion week of the year of election for a term of five years or until their successors are appointed. Ballots shall be counted by such members of the Executive Committee not candidates as shall be
Article III

4.d.(3) To keep the minutes of all meetings of the class and of the Executive Committee.

e. Treasurer:

(1) To be responsible for all general class assets.

(2) To raise necessary class funds by dues (which must be optional) or by other means.

(3) To sign all checks on the class bank account and pay all bills of the class.

(4) To render detailed financial reports to the Executive Committee as required by such committee.

(5) To open a class bank account in any bank upon the written authorization of any other two officers of the class.

(6) To deposit with or without interest and to invest and reinvest the assets of the class in any investment or reinvestment which shall be first approved unanimously at any meeting of the Executive Committee.

5. Anything hereinbefore or hereinafter contained to the contrary notwithstanding, the authorization or approval or determination of any class officer shall not be required when such officer is without the United States at the time such authorization, approval or determination would otherwise be required under this constitution.

Article IV Executive Committee

1. The Executive Committee shall consist in addition to the class officers of ten men who shall be appointed by the class officers to serve for five years. There shall be annual rotation of two of such ten men.

2. The Executive Committee shall have general appointed for that purpose together with any other members not candidates so appointed.

and

4. The duties and powers of the officers shall be as follows, namely:

a. In general, as to all officers:
   (1) To be a full voting member of the Executive Committee.
   (2) To represent the class on appropriate occasions.
   (3) To perform all the duties attendant on each such office respectively whether or not specifically set forth in this constitution.

b. President:
   (1) To preside at all class meetings and meetings of the Executive Committee.
   (2) To give such authorizations and approvals and make such determinations as are hereinafter in this constitution provided.
   (3) To cast the deciding vote in case of a tie.

c. Vice-President:
   (1) To act in the place of the president in his absence or incapacity or resignation.
   (2) To perform such duties as may be delegated to him.

d. Secretary:
   (1) To keep or supervise all records of the class, including the supervision of records kept by any other person given duties by this constitution.
   (2) To provide regular class notes for the Princeton Alumni Weekly and send out such newsletters or other class communications as may be appropriate including mailing of ballots.
supervision over the conduct and business of the class and shall by majority vote of a quorum appoint to serve as it shall determine, to perform the following duties and render such reports as the Executive Committee shall require, the following class representatives with such assistants as the Executive Committee shall approve, namely:

a. Class officers when any office shall for any cause be vacant, to serve for the balance of the term of any ex-officer or until a general election for such office shall be held, or for an interim period should the vacancy be temporary.

b. Representatives of a Class Council, to be initiated within five years, which shall consist in addition to the members of the Executive Committee of not less than 11 members geographically representative of the class and which shall act in general in an advisory capacity to the Executive Committee and shall afford general assistance in all class concerns, members thereof being empowered to attend in such capacity any Executive Committee meeting.

c. Class reunion chairman, who shall have general charge of all class meetings formal and informal, raising of necessary funds therefor, and banking and disbursement of such funds.

d. Class agent for Annual Giving, who shall have charge of raising of funds for Annual Giving and records of the class in connection therewith.

e. Class memorial insurance agent, who shall have charge of class memorial insurance records, the payment of premiums for such insurance and the determination by the class of the disposition of the proceeds of such insurance.
Article IV

f. Class memorial agent, who shall have charge of all class memorials and raising of necessary funds therefor with the exception of class memorial insurance, of the disbursement of such funds but only with the approval of a majority vote of a quorum of the Executive Committee, of the laying of the class wreath at the appropriate ceremonies at Princeton University, and of the preparation in conjunction with the class secretary of individual memorials for publication in the Princeton Alumni Weekly.

g. Class representative on the Graduate Council.

h. Such other agents or committees as it shall deem appropriate.

3. The Executive Committee shall hold such meetings as the class officers shall authorize but not less than two annually, and six shall be a quorum.

Article V Class Meetings

1. The class when consonant with the policy of Princeton University shall hold annual meetings during commencement week at Princeton University, at such place as the president and reunion chairman shall determine.

2. The members present at such annual meetings shall constitute a quorum.

Article VI Adoption and Amendment

1. This constitution shall be adopted and may be amended by a two-thirds vote responding from a general class mailing.

2. Amendments shall be proposed to the Executive Committee and voted on by the class only when approval for such vote is given by such committee.
BYLAWS

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY
CLASS OF 1966

ARTICLE I

General Organization

Section 1. The Princeton University Class of 1966 is organized pursuant to and will perform all activities consistent with the terms and provisions of the Constitution adopted and effective on June 2, 1984, as it may be duly amended.

Section 2. Governing Members. The Princeton University Class of 1966 shall be governed by the Officers and the members of the Executive Committee. All such individuals shall constitute the Governing Members.

Section 3. Meetings. A regular meeting of the Princeton University Class of 1966 shall be held annually unless the Governing Members as defined above conclude that such meeting is not required. Meetings of the Governing Members and/or the Class may occur at such times and such places as deemed appropriate by the President or a majority of the Governing Members. Notice of any meeting of the Princeton University Class of 1966 shall be given in writing not less than two weeks before such meeting.

Section 4. Quorum. For the purposes of conducting business, a quorum shall consist of seven of the Governing Members provided that the Officers and Governing Members may take action in the absence of a quorum if such action is approved by a majority of the Governing Members present and is ratified by a majority vote of the Governing Members at the next meeting where a quorum is present. Written proxies will be permitted if transmitted prior to the meeting to the President of the Princeton University Class of 1966. Each Governing Member shall have one vote.

Section 5. Action Without A Meeting. Any action required to be taken by law, the Constitution of Princeton University Class of 1966, or these Bylaws, or any action otherwise permitted to be taken at a meeting as set forth in Article I, Section 3, above, may be taken by the Officers of the Princeton University Class of 1966 without a meeting if a consent in writing is obtained from a majority of the Governing Members of the Princeton University Class of 1966 within sixty days following such action.

ARTICLE II

Governing Members

Section 1. Elected Officers. The Officers of the Princeton University Class of 1966 shall consist of a President, two Vice Presidents, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. These Officers shall be elected by a plurality of those members of the Princeton University Class of 1966 voting in said election.

Section 2. Nominations of Elected Officers. A Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the then-current Class President, with the advice of the Governing Members. The membership and number of members on the Nominating Committee shall be determined by said Officers. Candidates for class office will be solicited from the class members by the Nominating Committee. From those names suggested and others, the Nominating Committee will propose a slate and advise the members of the Class in writing. Within thirty (30) days, other nominations may be made by submitting the signatures of ten (10) classmates with the consent of the proposed nominee. The recommendations of the Nominating Committee together with any additional nominations shall be reported to the Class in writing not less than four months prior to the end of the term of the elected Officers. All members of the Class shall have an opportunity to vote on the nominations so reported.

Section 3. Appointments and Committees.

(a) The Officers of the Class shall appoint additional Governing Members as they deem necessary and appropriate. Such appointments may be for the terms and purposes as specified by the Officers. Such appointees may be designated members of the Executive Committee, as determined by the Class Officers.

(b) The Officers of the Class may appoint up to six Regional Vice Presidents who shall undertake the duties and responsibilities assigned by the Officers of the Class for the term specified. Such Regional Vice Presidents shall be Governing Members and members of the Executive Committee.

(c) The Officers of the Class shall appoint members of the Class to the Executive Committee who shall be members of the Governing Members. The number and term of those appointed to the Executive Committee shall be determined by the Officers.
Officers and/or the Governing Members may appoint additional committees as may be deemed appropriate.

Section 4. Terms.

(a) Elected Officers. The elected Officers of the Princeton University Class of 1966 shall hold office commencing Sunday of Reunion Week of the year of election for a term of five years or until their successors are appointed or elected. The first five-year term shall commence in 1966.

(b) Appointments and Committees. Governing Members appointed by the Officers shall serve for the term specified by the Officers when the appointment is made. Governing Members may be reappointed by the Officers. The Officers may give consideration to establishing staggered terms for those members of the Class appointed to the Executive Committee or any other committee, even if such terms extend beyond those specified in Article I, Section 4(a).

Section 5. Vacancies. If a vacancy occurs in any office, the Governing Members may immediately appoint a replacement to fill such office for the duration of the original term. If a majority of the Governing Members so determine, a special general election may be held to fill the vacancy for the duration of the original term.

ARTICLE III
Duties of Officers and Committees

Section 1. Governing Members. In general, Governing Members of the Princeton University Class of 1966 shall have full authority to represent the Class on appropriate occasions and to perform all duties and responsibilities consonant with such position whether or not specifically set forth in these Bylaws.

Section 2. President. The President is the elected leader of the Class and may represent the Class in all activities with and on all committees of Princeton University. The President shall preside at all Class meetings and all meetings of the Governing Members. The President shall have plenary authority in Class matters and shall undertake such other duties as may from time to time be specified by the Governing Members or which he may undertake pursuant to his plenary authority.

Section 3. Vice Presidents. The two Vice Presidents shall have the responsibility of acting in the place of the President in his absence or incapacity or resignation. It is contemplated, but not required, that one Vice President shall have overall responsibility for all financial matters relating to Annual Giving, Class Memorial Fund, Special Gifts, and any other related matters. It is contemplated, but not required, that one Vice President have overall responsibility for projects including Reunions, Class Special Events, and any other specific activities. The President shall have authority to delegate specific duties to each Vice President.

Section 4. Secretary. The Secretary shall keep and supervise all records and minutes of the Class, including the supervision of records kept by any other person given duties to do so. The Secretary will provide regular Class notes for the Princeton Alumni Weekly and send out such newsletters or other Class communications as may be appropriate including the mailing of ballots. The Secretary shall also have any other duties which may be delegated to him by the President.

Section 5. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall be responsible for all Class assets and shall be responsible for collecting Class Dues and any other Class funds. The Treasurer is authorized to sign all checks, maintain the Class bank account, and pay all bills of the Class. The Treasurer may open such bank accounts and maintain such investment accounts as may be approved in writing by any other two Officers of the Class. The Treasurer shall have the responsibility to supply detailed financial reports to the Governing Members and to the Class as appropriate.

Section 6. Appointment of Governing Members. Appointments by the Officers may be for any specific purpose, such as Reunion Chairman, Chairman of Annual Giving, Chairman of Memorial Fund, and Regional Vice Presidents. If and when such appointments are made, the Officers shall specify the specific duties and responsibilities of those appointed. All individuals appointed by the Officers shall be members of the Executive Committee. It is contemplated but not required that the Reunion Chairman would report to the Vice President in charge of projects. Likewise, the Chairman of Annual Giving and the Chairman of the Memorial Fund would report to the Vice President in charge of financial matters.
Section 7. Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall have general supervision over the conduct and business of the Class and shall undertake duties and obligations accordingly. The Executive Committee shall also undertake specific projects which may be identified by the Officers of the Class from time to time.

Section 8. Other Committees. The Officers of the Class and/or the Governing Members may establish such other committees as they deem appropriate in their sole discretion. The powers, membership, and term of such committees shall be determined by the Governing Members.

ARTICLE IV

Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Princeton University Class of 1966 shall be July 1 through June 30.

ARTICLE V

Amendments

Governing Members, by the affirmative vote of a quorum of all of Governing Members, may amend or alter any of these Bylaws at any meeting provided that the substance of the proposed amendment shall have been stated in the notice of the meeting.

ARTICLE VI

Honorary Classmates

Section 1. Any Classmate, including any of the Governing Members, may propose an individual for consideration as an Honorary Member of the Class. Any such proposal shall be considered by the Governing Members at the next scheduled meeting or at a special meeting duly called by the President. If the person(s) proposed is approved by unanimous vote of a quorum of Governing Members, the person(s) proposed shall be submitted to the Class for approval. If approved by the Class, the person(s) shall be made an Honorary Member of the Class with all rights, privileges, and responsibilities thereof.

Section 2. The spouses of deceased members of the Class shall automatically be Honorary Members of the Class with all rights, privileges, and responsibilities thereof.
CONSTITUTION
PRINCETON UNIVERSITY
CLASS OF 1966

ARTICLE I. Name. The name of this organization shall be the Princeton University Class of 1966.

ARTICLE II. Constitution. This Constitution formally establishes and creates the organization. The provisions of this Constitution shall control and govern all matters affecting the organization, other documents or instruments notwithstanding.

ARTICLE III. Purpose. The purpose of the organization shall be to further the interests, welfare and educational aims of Princeton University, for so long as the organization is in existence and Princeton University remains organized exclusively for charitable, educational or scientific purposes under Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE IV. Powers. Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the organization shall have full power and authority to perform any lawful acts and to exercise any rights not otherwise limited by law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the organization shall have all rights and powers of any unincorporated association under the laws of the State of New Jersey.

ARTICLE V. Financial Limit. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any member, trustee, officer, director or any other private person. All of the assets and net earnings of the organization shall be used to further the organization’s purpose.

ARTICLE VI. Political Activity. No substantial part of the activities of this organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing and distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE VII. General Limits. This organization shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by an organization contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE VIII. Membership. The following shall be members of this organization:

1. Regular Members. All persons who shall at any time have been correctly listed by Princeton University in the Class of 1966 shall be regular members of this organization.

2. Honorary Members. Honorary Members may be elected as provided in the By-laws.

ARTICLE IX. Governing Body. Full management and control of the affairs of this organization is vested in the Executive Committee. The names and addresses of the persons who shall serve on the Executive Committee until their successors are selected are:

Name: See Attached
Address:

ARTICLE X. Existence. Unless sooner terminated as provided in the By-laws, the existence of this organization shall terminate when fewer than ten regular members of this organization are living.
ARTICLE XI. Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of this organization, after paying or making provision for all its obligations and liabilities, all of the assets of this organization shall be distributed to Princeton University, so long as it is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). Any such assets not so disposed of shall be distributed, by the order of any New Jersey Court with jurisdiction, exclusively for such purposes, or to such organization or organizations which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE XII. By-laws. The Executive Committee may enact, and may from time to time amend, By-laws not inconsistent with the provisions of this Constitution.

ARTICLE XIII. Adoption and Amendment. This Constitution may be adopted, and thereafter amended, by the vote of a majority of the members of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE XIV. Situs. The organization shall have its situs at Princeton University, Princeton, Mercer County, New Jersey.

Adopted and effective on the 2nd day of June, 1984.

J. H. Thacher, Jr.

Title: Class President
Class President
J. H. Thacher, Jr.
Class Vice President
Richard G. Morgan
Class Vice President
Charles J. Plohn, Jr.
Class Treasurer
John A. Edie
Class Secretary
Jeffrey N. McCollum
Class Regional Vice Presidents
New England
George H. Largay
Mid-Atlantic
Christopher A. Mill
Southeastern
Brian H. Breuel
Southwestern
Robert L. Johnson, III
Midwest
Barry M. Fisher
West
Stephen R. Harwood
Memorial Fund Chairman
John M. McDonough

Executive Committee
J. Lauzon Cashdollar
Bernard J. D'Avella, Jr.
Jonathan T. Dawson
Carl E. Eastwick
Glenn P. Goltz
Nelson H. Hendler
William R. Leahy, Jr.
Stanislaw Maliszewski
John I. Merritt, III
Gary B. Mount
Robert E. Nahas
James L. Parmentier
Robert H. Rawson, Jr.
John H. Scully
J. Kearney Shanahan
Richard E. Thomas, II
Guy G. Woelk