When you make a planned gift to Princeton, your generosity has an impact far beyond your lifetime. Your gift supports generations of students whose lives will be forever changed by their Princeton experience.

There are many ways you can make a gift that will cost you nothing today, or help you make a tax-wise investment in both your future and the future of the University. You can support Princeton’s mission by:

- naming Princeton as a beneficiary of an IRA, retirement plan, insurance policy, or bank account
- creating a charitable trust or other life income gift
- including Princeton in your will or living trust
A PLANNED GIFT TO PRINCETON IS ONE THAT LIVES FOREVER.
WAYS TO GIVE

Princeton offers many ways to reach your financial and philanthropic goals, as well as expert advice to help you find the right balance.

Typical financial benefits are listed. Consult with your financial advisor to learn which benefits apply to you.

A Princeton philanthropic advisor can review options and minimum amounts that allow you to designate your gift to support a specific department, program, or initiative.

YOUR GOAL

- I’m in my 70s; I’d like to ensure that I have enough money for my 80s and 90s, and give a gift to Princeton, too.
- I have appreciated stock that pays me a dividend; how can I make a gift to Princeton and continue to receive an income during my life?
- I want to make a gift to Princeton, but am also concerned about providing for my heirs and the impact of gift or estate tax.
- I’d like to make a gift to Princeton that costs me nothing now.

YOUR STRATEGY

- Charitable Gift Annuity
- Charitable Remainder Trust
- Charitable Lead Trust
- Bequest -or- Beneficiary

DESCRIPTION

- Gift, often of cash or securities; provides guaranteed payments to you and/or your beneficiaries age 65 or older for the payees’ lifetime; the remainder becomes a gift to Princeton.
- Gift of cash, securities, or real estate; provides payments to you and/or your beneficiaries for a lifetime or a specific term; becomes a gift to Princeton when the trust ends.
- A trust that benefits your heirs and also provides a gift by directing the trust’s income to Princeton for a specific term (usually 15 to 25 years).
- Include Princeton in your will -or- Name Princeton as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy, IRA, retirement plan, outside trust, or bank account.

- Their charitable remainder trust provides them with both income and tax benefits now. Princeton and Smith College (Alexis’s alma mater) will share the remainder of the trust when it ends.
- Princeton pride is a family tradition that began with Pierce’s father, Pierce W. Selwood, a postdoctoral fellow and instructor at the University in the 1930s.

“At some point, you realize you want to give back to the things that matter most to you.... It’s a win-win gift.”

NAOUM FARES MARAYATI ’19

- Fares, from Aleppo, Syria, resettled with his family in North Carolina
- Among his activities at Princeton, the psychology major was a residential college advisor at Forbes College, a peer academic advisor, an a cappella group member, and a research assistant at the Princeton Baby Lab.
- Fares was the recipient of several scholarships established by bequests, including those created by Thomas Nichol Jr. ’33, Oliver Langenberg ’35, and Isabel Dod, in memory of her father, Samuel Bayard Dod, a member of the Class of 1857.

“I escaped the perils of war in Syria with big dreams yet small means of achieving them. Today, I belong to the strong community of Tigers.”

—NAOUM FARES MARAYATI ’19

...FOREVER SUPPORTS ACHIEVEMENT
A \textit{bequest} is a gift that comes to Princeton after your lifetime. Through a bequest, you can direct a specific dollar amount or assets to the University. Or, you can direct all or a percentage of the remainder of your estate after your other beneficiaries have received their inheritances and estate-related expenses have been paid.

No will is necessary to designate the University as a \textbf{beneficiary} of your IRA, retirement plan, life insurance, or bank account.

The following bequest language can be used in your will: \textit{I give and bequeath to the Trustees of Princeton University, a New Jersey not-for-profit corporation, the sum of \underline{_________} Dollars (or all the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate) to be used for the purposes of the University at the discretion of its Board of Trustees.}

The University’s tax ID number (EIN) is 21-0634501.

\begin{itemize}
  \item \textbf{A Charitable Remainder Trust} (CRT) or \textbf{Charitable Gift Annuity} (CGA) can diversify your portfolio, increase your income, reduce or defer capital gains tax, and provide a federal income tax charitable deduction. Many donors use the payments to fund their annual gift to the University, or to support a University priority during their lifetime.
  \item \textbf{A Deferred Charitable Gift Annuity} (DCGA) is another way to provide yourself and/or your beneficiaries with an income stream. Starting at age 55, DCGAs may be established with rates set for future payments; payments can begin as early as age 65.
  \item If your 50th — or 55th, 60th, 65th, 70th or more — Reunion is on the horizon, receive Annual Giving major Reunion class credit for life income gifts through Princeton’s \textbf{Annual Giving Legacy Program}. Gifts made in the form of a charitable remainder unitrust (fluctuating income) or a charitable gift annuity (fixed income) are eligible for AG class credit.
\end{itemize}
