Dear Princetonian,

Antibes...Monte Carlo... PortoVenere & the Cinque Terre...Lucca...Florence.

These are names that conjure up images of glamorous seaports and sun-drenched beaches, rich masterpieces of art and architecture, picturesque villages and medieval history—in short, the quintessential Mediterranean journey. Early May is the perfect time of year to visit, with verdant gardens and landscapes awash with blossoms, and moderate temperatures. Join fellow Princeton travelers for this exploration along the French & Italian Rivieras, combining a three-night stay at a landmark luxury resort featuring its own private bay on the French Riviera with a relaxed four-night cruise aboard the Sea Cloud II from Nice to Rome, with port calls in the Cinque Terre, Livorno (for a day trip to Florence or Lucca), and the Isle of Elba.

Enjoy private entrée to sites not open to the general public, including masterpieces of contemporary architecture such as the Fondation Hans Hartung in Antibes and modernist villas designed by Eileen Gray and Le Corbusier, as well as a private garden in Grasse hosted by the artist owner. Most days feature differing excursions to choose from catering to your interests or style of travel.

A journey aboard the Sea Cloud II is an intimate experience on one of the most elegant and luxurious vessels afloat, and our itinerary is custom-designed to allow ample time for experiencing the ship under sail, watching in awe from the deck as the crew hand-sets over 30,000 square feet of canvas and the wind carries us on to our next port of call. This magnificent three-masted barque accommodates just 78 passengers, so I encourage you to reserve your space now by contacting our partner tour operator, Criterion Travel at (888) 328-2089 or res@criteriontravel.com.

With kind regards,
