PRINCETON JOURNEYS

Dear Princetonian,

Nestled in the storybook landscapes of the Bavarian Alps, more than 2,000 residents of Oberammergau stage one of the world's greatest performances—the extraordinary Passion Play, founded on unique local history and a legacy that encompasses nearly four centuries. Join us for a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to experience the 42nd production of this time-honored tradition, the Oberammergau Passion Play. Spend two nights in the Oberammergau region with a Danube River cruise aboard the exclusively chartered, deluxe AMADEUS STAR through Hungary, Austria, Germany and Slovakia.

Our unique itinerary combines this internationally acclaimed event with the authentic art, architecture, culture and history of the Ottoman, Habsburg and Holy Roman Empires. Special tickets, unavailable to the general public, have been procured for your Passion Play experience. Visit four world-class cities and a host of UNESCO World Heritage sites, including Budapest and its Castle Quarter; Vienna and the Schönbrunn Palace and Salzburg. Immerse yourself in Bratislava's well-preserved medieval past; the 900-year-old traditions of Melk's Benedictine Abbey; and Munich.

SARA S. POOR (“Sally”) is currently Associate Professor of German at Princeton University and recently completed her second term as Director of the Program in Medieval Studies at Princeton University. Earning her PhD from Duke University's Graduate Program in Literature, she went on to teach at the University of Erlangen and at Stanford University before joining the faculty at Princeton in 2002. Her primary research interests are in the areas of Gender Studies and medieval German literature. She also has a passion for all aspects of medieval history and culture, from late Roman Empire to the early modern period. Her published work focuses on medieval women mystics, their writings, and their reception (e.g., Mechthild von Magdeburg and Her Book [2004], Mysticism and Reform 1400-1750 [2015]). While her current research focuses on women writers of devotional literature and the history of the book, future projects include a study of late medieval literary re-tellings of the Charlemagne legends.

The Passion Play of Oberammergau

Nearly 400 years ago, the ruling council of Oberammergau made a valiant effort to safeguard their hamlet against the Black Death plague. They sought deliverance by performing a Passion Play on a modest stage built over the graves of plague victims. Surviving villagers made a solemn vow to reenact the passion of Christ every 10 years in perpetuity as an act of gratitude and remembrance.

Through the centuries, Oberammergau's Passion Play has risen in prestige, drawing pilgrims from around the world. Performed on one of the world's largest stages, the Passionsspielhaus, the play now features a cast of nearly 2,000 village residents transformed from Bavarian farmers and townsfolk into an array of Roman centurions, Jewish villagers and other Biblical characters. The tradition lives on, respected around the globe as the world's most historic and spectacular Passion Play.
