Dear Princetonian,

Nestled in the storybook landscapes of the Bavarian Alps, more than 2,000 residents of Oberammergau stage one of the world’s greatest performances—the extraordinary Passion Play, founded on unique local history and a legacy that encompasses nearly four centuries. Join us for a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to experience the 42nd production of this time-honored tradition, the Oberammergau Passion Play. Spend two nights in the Oberammergau region with a Danube River cruise aboard the exclusively chartered, deluxe AMADEUS STAR through Hungary, Austria, Germany and Slovakia.

Our unique itinerary combines this internationally acclaimed event with the authentic art, architecture, culture and history of the Ottoman, Habsburg and Holy Roman Empires. Special tickets, unavailable to the general public, have been procured for your Passion Play experience. Visit four world-class cities and a host of UNESCO World Heritage sites, including Budapest and its Castle Quarter; Vienna and the Schönbrunn Palace and Salzburg; Immerse yourself in Bratislava’s well-preserved medieval past; the 900-year-old traditions of Melk’s Benedictine Abbey; and Munich.

Princeton travelers will be joined on this program by those from like-minded institutions.

To reserve your space, please email the Princeton Journeys team at journeys@princeton.edu.

With kind regards,

Study Leader
SARA S. POOR (“Sally”) is currently Associate Professor of German at Princeton University and recently completed her second term as Director of the Program in Medieval Studies at Princeton University. Earning her PhD from Duke University’s Graduate Program in Literature, she went on to teach at the University of Erlangen and at Stanford University before joining the faculty at Princeton in 2002. Her primary research interests are in the areas of Gender Studies and medieval German literature. She also has a passion for all aspects of medieval history and culture, from late Roman Empire to the early modern period. Her published work focuses on medieval women mystics, their writings, and their reception (e.g., Mechthild von Magdeburg and Her Book [2004], Mysticism and Reform 1400-1750 [2015]). While her current research focuses on women writers of devotional literature and the history of the book, future projects include a study of late medieval literary re-tellings of the Charlemagne legends.

The safety and well-being of our travelers remains our highest priority. All passengers traveling on our programs are required to present confirmation of a full COVID-19 vaccination, and, as well may have to produce evidence of a recent negative COVID test. All our staff are committed to adhering to all health and safety protocols from the start of your trip to the end as directed by the United States Center for Disease Control and Prevention, overseas health officials, as well as those protocols mandated by your cruise company (if applicable). Detailed protocol information tailored to your travel program will be mailed to you along with additional pre-departure information.
The Passion Play of Oberammergau

Nearly 400 years ago, the ruling council of Oberammergau made a valiant effort to safeguard their hamlet against the Black Death plague. They sought deliverance by performing a Passion Play on a modest stage built over the graves of plague victims. Surviving villagers made a solemn vow to reenact the passion of Christ every 10 years in perpetuity as an act of gratitude and remembrance.

Through the centuries, Oberammergau’s Passion Play has risen in prestige, drawing pilgrims from around the world. Performed on one of the world’s largest stages, the Passionspielhaus, the play now features a cast of nearly 2,000 village residents transformed from Bavarian farmers and townsfolk into an array of Roman centurions, Jewish villagers and other Biblical characters. The tradition lives on, respected around the globe as the world’s most historic and spectacular Passion Play.

U.S./Budapest, Hungary
Days 1 and 2
Depart the U.S. for Budapest, Hungary’s historical capital. Upon arrival, embark the Amadeus Star, your exclusively chartered, deluxe small river ship, and attend the Captain’s Welcome Reception and dinner.

Budapest
Day 3
Austrian-born, nevertheless the “most Hungarian Habsburg,” Archduke Joseph is credited with creating in Budapest an imperial capital that rivaled Vienna. The embankments of the centuries-old twin cities of Buda and Pest, facing each other across the Danube, and the famous Buda Castle Quarter are a designated UNESCO World Heritage site.

Begin your tour in Pest to see the iconic, neo-Gothic limestone Parliament Building, built between 1884 and 1904 on the river’s banks. Pass through Heroes’ Square and admire the monuments honoring the Magyar chiefs who conquered Hungary in A.D. 896. See the 19th-century, neo-Renaissance Hungarian State Opera House, one of the most beautiful performing arts venues in the world. Cross the imposing Chain Bridge linking river-level Pest to the hills of Buda. Visit the late-19th-century, neo-Romanesque Fisherman’s Bastion on Castle Hill with commanding views of the city.

Nearby, explore the Gothic-style St. Matthias Church, where Charles I, the last Habsburgian ruler, was coronated in 1916.

Reboard the ship for lunch and depart Budapest.

Bratislava, Slovakia
Day 4
Bratislava is nestled in the foothills of the impressive Carpathian mountain range; beautifully restored since the end of the Cold War, Slovakia’s charming capital depicts 21st-century life amid its 1,000-year-old history. On a guided tour of the Old Town, walk among a sampling of central Europe’s finest medieval, Renaissance and 19th-century architecture.

Visit the Romanesque, 14th-century Cathedral of St. Martin and the elaborate Primatial Palace, and see St. Michael’s Gate, Bratislava’s oldest preserved medieval fortification, originally built in 1300.

Enjoy time at leisure in Bratislava before cruising through Austria’s fertile Donau-Auen National Park.

Vienna, Austria
Day 5
Former seat of the Habsburg Empire, Vienna’s historical center is a UNESCO World Heritage open-air museum of splendid Baroque architecture. Enjoy a panoramic tour featuring its famous Ringstrasse, showcasing the impressive Vienna State Opera House and Hofburg Palace.

Visit the iconic, Gothic-style Stephansdom (St. Stephen’s Cathedral).

After lunch on board the ship, visit the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Schönbrunn Palace and Gardens, the lavish summer estate of the imperial Habsburgs. It was here that a 6-year-old Mozart first performed for Empress Maria Theresa and her daughter, Marie Antoinette, the future queen of France. Enjoy time to stroll the sprawling, English-style gardens.

Stroll through the Baroque pleasure gardens of Mirabell Palace in the heart of Salzburg.

Enjoy the charm of Oberammergau, with painted trompe l’oeil frescoes on many homes and shops, depicting fairy tales and religious scenes.
Melk
Day 6
This morning, cruise the Danube’s fabled Wachau Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage site, where terraced vineyards blanket hillsides dotted with the ruins of medieval castles. Arrive in Melk and visit the impressive 900-year-old Benedictine Abbey, an Austrian Baroque masterpiece by Paul Troger. Showcasing stunning 18th-century ceiling frescoes and priceless relics, this beautiful kirche (church), houses the perfectly intact, multi-panel, 16th-century altarpiece by Danube School master Jörg Breu the Elder. A prestigious center of scholarship throughout the Middle Ages, the abbey’s library is today a repository of 100,000 medieval manuscripts.

Enjoy lunch and an afternoon of engaging lectures on the ship before the Captain’s Farewell Dinner.

Passau, Germany/Salzburg, Austria/Oberammergau, Germany
Day 7
Disembark in Passau, where three legendary rivers converge—the Danube, Inn and Ilz. Transfer to the UNESCO World Heritage site of Salzburg, the setting for several scenes in The Sound of Music. Explore the Alter Markt, the city’s old marketplace, where burghers’ houses date back to the Middle Ages; see the 17th-century Salzburg Cathedral, a fine example of Italian-style Baroque architecture; and savor a local lunch. Walk through Mirabell Gardens and St. Peter’s Cemetery—one of the world’s oldest and most beautiful cemeteries. Enjoy time at leisure to stroll the picturesque arcades of Salzburg’s famous pedestrian lane, Getreidegasse.

Continue through the scenic Bavarian Alps to a charming hotel near Oberammergau. Dinner is included in the hotel this evening.

Oberammergau Passion Play
Day 8
The pastoral village of Oberammergau is synonymous with the great Passion Play produced here usually every 10 years.

Walk the streets of Oberammergau and admire the charming frescoed murals adorning the walls and façades of the village buildings.

This afternoon, experience one of Europe’s oldest and most venerable dramatic traditions. From specially reserved seats, enjoy the 2022 Passion Play, featuring a cast of thousands—all local residents—and extraordinary stage sets. During intermission, enjoy a dinner of traditional Bavarian fare.

Oberammergau/Neuschwanstein Castle/Munich
Day 9
After breakfast, depart for Munich. En route, stop at King Ludwig II’s fairy-tale Neuschwanstein, one of the world’s most photographed castles and the Romanesque Revival inspiration for Disneyland’s Sleeping Beauty Castle. Lunch is included.

Munich
Day 10
History comes alive in the 800-year-old city of Munich, Bavaria’s historical capital, known for its artistic culture and unique beauty. Visit the 17th-century, Baroque Nymphenburg Palace, birthplace of King Ludwig II and former Princeton Journeys strives to work with the best tour operators to make available interesting and enriching travel opportunities for the Princeton family.

Please note that the University does not conduct tours, nor does it act as an agent for guests interested in tours. Princeton Journeys acts as a facilitator with tour operators, with whom tour participants make arrangements for completing travel, and is pleased to act as a liaison with the ship operators should you have any questions or concerns that may arise before, during or after your tour. Princeton Journeys encourages you to familiarize yourself thoroughly with the tour operator’s cancellation and refund policies, and also to investigate available services such as trip cancellation insurance. The University is not responsible for changes to trips or travel arrangements or for losses or additional expenses resulting from travel.

TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS BY:

“Gohagan,” or other tour operators, including Princeton Journeys, Gohagan & Company, or Princeton Journeys acts as a facilitator with tour operators, with whom participants make arrangements for completing travel, and is pleased to act as a liaison with the ship operators should you have any questions or concerns that may arise before, during or after your tour. Princeton Journeys encourages you to familiarize yourself thoroughly with the tour operator’s cancellation and refund policies, and also to investigate available services such as trip cancellation insurance. The University is not responsible for changes to trips or travel arrangements or for losses or additional expenses resulting from travel.

NOT INCLUDED:

Passport, visas and associated fees, COVID-19 related health checks and associated fees; personal expenses such as laundry, telephone calls and Internet access or any other expenses unless specifically otherwise described; trip cancellation, and baggage insurance; optional sightseeing excursions; baggage changes on aircraft, local departure or arrival tax/city tax (airline and associated local taxes, airport facility and security taxes and federal inspection fees not listed are included in domestic and international flights), airline or other fees if you are arriving earlier or than on or departing earlier or later than the scheduled group transfer(s), any overnight on land due to flight schedule(s), meal, alcoholic or other beverages and all other services not specifically mentioned as included in the travel program.

TRAVEL INSURANCE:

Any party other than Gohagan or Princeton Journeys acting on behalf of any participant, shall be resolved exclusively by binding arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. Sections 1-16, either according to the then existing Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or pursuant to the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules & Procedures of the American Arbitration and Mediation Services, Inc. (JAMS). Such proceedings will be governed by substantive Illinois law. In addition and with respect to disputes concerning, or arising out of, the program itself, shall be governed by the University’s terms and conditions, the participant and Gohagan are waiving the right to a trial by jury. The arbitrator and not any federal, state, or local court or agency shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, application, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any portion of this contract is void or unenforceable. Please understand that by agreeing to these terms and conditions, the participant and Gohagan are waiving the right to a trial by jury. Any arbitration commenced against Gohagan must be on behalf of only the signatory to this Agreement and his or her immediate family members who traveled with signatory, such as a spouse or child. Under no circumstances may participants be part of a class or other joint action.

ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACT:

By furnishing of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she does not have any mental, physical or other condition of disability that would create a hazard for him/herself or other participants and accepts the terms contained in this Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement for this program or for any program to which he/she may transfer. The participant agrees to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and will not have any remedies or rights against the University.
