The Golden Age harbor town of Hoorn

PRINCETON JOURNEYS

Dear Princetonian,

Join us on this exclusively chartered river cruise aboard the deluxe AMADEUS CARA, one of the finest vessels to ply the waterways of Europe and the canals of this delightful land of polder. Celebrate the beauty of Holland and Flanders in blissful springtime—the ideal season for visiting, when the tulip fields are in full bloom.

Discover the true essence of RIVER LIFE® in the Low Countries. Our expert-guided tours explore seven UNESCO World Heritage Sites — Amsterdam's 16th- and 17th-century house-lined canals, the medieval Flemish jewel of Bruges, and four of the historical belfries included in the Belfries of Belgium serial property. Experience this region's pastoral idyll and fascinating history with visits to the world-famous Keukenhof Gardens, the mercantile town of Antwerp, and medieval Ghent. Visit the legendary 18th-century windmills of Kinderdijk, watch traditional craftspeople create the iconic Delft Blue porcelain, and discover the world-class Kröller-Müller Museum. Learn more about the modern life and cultural heritage of the Netherlands during an exclusive RIVER LIFE® Forum with local residents and encounter the rich history of the Flemish-speaking county of Flanders in its main cultural centers.

Unpack just once and delight in specially arranged cultural enrichments, including a privately chartered canal cruise in Amsterdam. Enjoy an included, guided excursion in every port, deluxe accommodations, and all meals—an excellent value. Reserve now while space is still available.

Please note that Princeton travelers will be joined by those from Bucknell University, the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and Washington University in St. Louis.

With kind regards,

Bridget St. Clair

University Disclaimer:

Princeton Journeys is pleased to provide this service of facilitating travel opportunities for its Alumni and Friends. Princeton Journeys strives to work with the best tour operators to make available interesting and enriching travel opportunities for the Princeton family. Please note that the University does not conduct tours, nor does it act as an agent for guests interested in tours. Princeton Journeys acts as a facilitator with tour operators, with whom tour participants make arrangements for completing travel, and is pleased to act as a liaison with tour operators should you have any questions or concerns that may arise before, during, or after your tour. Princeton Journeys encourages you to familiarize yourself thoroughly with the tour operator's cancellation and refund policies, and also to investigate available services such as trip cancellation insurance. The University is not responsible for changes to trips or travel arrangements or for losses or additional expenses resulting from travel.

Travel Insurance:

As a service to its travelers, Princeton Journeys automatically provides all participants with basic medical, accident, and evacuation coverage under a group travel insurance policy. It is highly recommended that you supplement this basic protection with your own additional coverage, as well as trip cancellation/interruption or baggage coverage. Information on additional insurance is available and will be mailed upon receipt of your reservation.

The safety and well-being of our travelers remains our highest priority. Cruise lines and some other providers of services (as well as, potentially, some countries) require all passengers traveling on our programs to present confirmation of a full COVID-19 vaccination, and, as well, passengers may have to produce evidence of a recent negative COVID test. All our staff are committed to adhering to all health and safety protocols from the start of your trip to the end as directed by the United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, overseas health officials as well as those protocols mandated by your cruise company (if applicable) and other suppliers of services. Detailed protocol information tailored to your travel program will be mailed to you along with additional pre-departure information.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Keukenhof Gardens

Known around the world as the “Garden of Europe,” Keukenhof is a breathtaking tapestry of color and fragrance when its more than 1,000 floral varieties reach full bloom between mid-April and early May. Meticulously landscaped with tranquil ponds, placid streams, and winding, tree-shaded paths, this vibrantly hued oasis was designed in 1857 by Jan David Zocher of Vondelpark fame. The gardens of Keukenhof (which translates to “kitchen garden”) originally formed part of the Teylingen Castle Estate, where the early 15th-century Countess Jacoba of Bavaria tended an herb and vegetable garden.

In Kinderdijk, you will see largest concentration of windmills in the Netherlands

DAY BY DAY ITINERARY

Home city/ Amsterdam, the Netherlands

Day 1 and Day 2

Enjoy a private cruise through the charming and picturesque canals of Amsterdam—built during the Golden Age of the Middle Ages to show off the wealth of the city. Embark the river boat this evening and attend a Welcome Toast and Dinner. (R,D)

Nijmegen for Kröller-Müller Museum

Day 3

Visit the world-class Kröller-Müller Museum, lauded for its collection of 90 Vincent van Gogh paintings and 180 of his drawings. See works by Pablo Picasso, Claude Monet, Pierre-Auguste Renoir, and Édouard Manet. Enjoy a walking tour of Nijmegen, a university town layered with more than 2,000 years of history—originally settled by the Romans in the first century B.C. Explore an array of pristinely preserved buildings, including the turreted 15th-century town hall and the 17th-century, Renaissance-style De Waagh. (B,L,D)

Kinderdijk/ Delta Works

Day 4

In Kinderdijk, see 19 authentic windmills built between 1722 and 1761, the largest assembly of windmills in the Netherlands. Discover the Delta Works, an impressive feat of hydraulic engineering that has been hailed as one of the Seven Wonders of the Modern World. (B,L,D)

Ghent, Belgium/Bruges Day 5

Discover Ghent, replete with medieval and classical architecture. Admire the windows and Gothic steeples of St. Bavo's Cathedral and see Hubert and Jan van Eyck's magnificent altarpiece Adoration of the Mystic Lamb—the most frequently stolen artwork of all time. A scenic drive through Flemish countryside takes you to Bruges, where you'll enjoy a walking tour to the Gothic Town Hall, the famous octagonal belfry and tower, and the Church of our Lady, with a visit to see Michelangelo's Virgin and Child housed at the church. (B,L,D)

Antwerp

Day 6

Explore the enchanting Old Town of Antwerp, which preserves its

The Assumption of the Virgin Mary, painting by Rubens in the Cathedral of Our Lady distinct Flemish culture. Visit the UNESCO-inscribed belfry at Cathedral of Our Lady and see 17th-century Baroque masterpieces by the city's native son, Peter Paul Rubens. (B,L,D)

Rotterdam for Delft and Keukenhof Gardens

Day 7

Walk through historical Delft, where Johannes Vermeer painted his famous View of Delft from 1660 to 1661. Visit the original Delft factory of Royal Porcelaine Fles and watch craftspeople create iconic “Delft Blue” porcelain. Stroll through the world-famous Keukenhof Gardens, a tableau of blooming tulips meticulously landscaped with tranquil ponds, placid streams, and tree-shaded paths. (B,L,D)

Hoorn/Amsterdam Day 8

Discover Hoorn, which rapidly grew to become a major harbor town during Holland’s “Golden Age” and was an important home base for the Dutch East India Company.

Attend the Captain’s Farewell Reception and dinner on board the ship this evening. (B,L,R,D)

Amsterdam/Home city Day 9

Following breakfast, disembark and continue on the Hague Post-Program Option or transfer to the airport for your return flight home. (B)
