PRINCETON JOURNEYS

Dear Princetonian,

Venture out on a transformative wildlife safari through the heart of East Africa. With exceptional access to Tanzania's renowned national parks and reserves, you'll encounter vibrant local traditions, a rich diversity of wildlife, and three of the seven natural wonders of Africa.

Begin with two days at Tarangire National Park with its iconic baobab trees and sweeping savannas. Daily morning and afternoon game drives provide your introduction to Africa's natural beauty, power, and wonder. Travel next to the incomparable Ngorongoro Crater, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The largest intact caldera in the world, this once giant volcano shelters an astonishing array of wildlife.

Spend four nights inside Serengeti National Park, Tanzania's oldest and most popular park. Explore the Seronera Valley, then venture to the western corridor and the Grumeti River region, a more secluded and wild side of the park.

Trekking with expert naturalist guides in 4x4 Land Cruisers, it is possible to encounter the Big Five (lions, leopards, elephants, rhinos and buffaloes) plus cheetahs, wildebeests, zebras, primates, gazelles and countless species of birds.

With space limited to just 20 guests, we encourage you to reserve your place today.

With kindest regards,

Bridget St. Clair
