Travelers agree to conform to the local laws and customs and to act respectfully to their travel companions, as well as to comply with the directions by the Tour manager or guide including regarding personal hygiene guidelines in order to reduce the risk of travelers' disease, and to comply with the policy that smoking is not allowed in vehicles, trains, aboard flights, or other specified non-smoking areas. Traveler Cancellations Notice of change or cancellation must be made in writing to MIR by email (info@mircorp.com) or fax (206-624-7360). The date that MIR receives the written cancellation determines the cancellation charge applicable. Departure is defined as set forth in your itinerary, regardless of the date that you may depart from your location of origin. If you must cancel before Departure, be advised MIR must assess cancellation charges based on its cancellation schedule to cover non-refundable, non-recoverable Tour expenses including monies committed to airlines, railways, hotels, government bodies and other suppliers on your behalf, and other expenses. Cancellation fees are based on the following schedule: if received: 91 days or more before Departure, the deposit is 50% non-refundable; 90 days or less, the non-refundable deposit due or paid in full of $1000; 61-75 days before Departure, 50% of the Tour cost; 60 days or less before Departure, or at or after Tour Departure, no refund. Cancellation terms apply to all Tour components including single supplements, pre- and/or post-Tours, hotel nights and any other confirmed arrangements made on a traveler's behalf. Your decision not to participate on the Tour due to State Department warnings, fear of travel, if you do not have a valid passport or are unable to obtain a valid visa, or the like will be deemed a cancellation. MIR is not responsible for any expenses incurred by travelers in preparation for the Tour (e.g. non-refundable airline tickets, seat reservations, passport or visa fees, travel insurance, gear or equipment, etc.), including in the event of Tour cancellation for any reason. No refunds will be provided for any unused portion of a Tour once the Tour begins, including if you leave a Tour for any reason, miss the Tour's Departure date, or have to be removed from a Tour. There are no exceptions to this cancellation and refund policy, including for: reasons related to weather; terrorism; civil strife; airline default; strikes; personal, family or medical emergencies; your decision to not go on a Tour because of governmental/travel warnings or advisories, including but not limited U.S. State Department or World Health Organization warnings; or any other circumstances beyond our control. For this reason, we strongly suggest that you secure comprehensive Tour cancellation and interruption insurance for your Tour. One option for insurance will be sent to you on signup. You may also find alternative insurance. We also highly recommend that you consider securing "cancel for any reason" travel coverage (CFAR), which must be obtained soon after your first deposit is paid for your travels.
